Zeller-Laney

St. Ann's church in Somers was the scene of a lovely spring wedding Saturday morning, April 7, when Miss Eleanor Louise Zeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roman L. Zeller, became the bride of John Robert Laney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Laney of Sprague, Wash. The wedding was solemnized with a nuptial mass at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Hugh A. Paley officiating. The service was attended by relatives and friends of the couple.

The girls' choir accompanied by Miss Kathleen Lilly, organist, sang appropriate music. Snapdragons, pansies and carnations were used to decorate the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown of princess style, fashioned with a lace yolk, edged with seed pearls and a train. A matching coronet of lace and orange blossoms held the finger-tip veil. She wore pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried American Beauty roses on a white prayerbook with shower ribbons and sweetpea blossoms.

Miss Helen Marie Zeller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a pastel blue gown of brocade and chiffon and matching floral halo and carried American Beauty roses. Miss Peggy Bretlow, bridesmaid, wore a gown of rose taffeta and net with corresponding floral halo and carried blue iris. Little Miss Gretchen Huber was flower girl and wore a yellow net dress and halo and carried a basket of sweetpeas.

Pvt. Frank Laney, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and William Ringwood acted as usher.

The bride's mother wore navy and rose with navy accessories and the groom's mother was dressed in navy with yellow and each wore rose corsages.

The wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents with relatives and close friends attending. The table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake and white tapers.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Laney, Sprague, Wash.; Pvt. Frank Laney, McClelland Field, Calif.; Miss Helen Marie Zeller and Miss Gretchen Huber, Helena; William Ringwood, Sprague, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McDonnell and family, Polson.

The couple left on a short wedding trip immediately after breakfast. For traveling, the bride wore a light blue, wolf-trimmed coat with navy accessories. On their return, the couple will reside at Sprague, Wash., where Mr. Laney owns a wheat ranch.

Mrs. Laney graduated from Somers high school and Eastern Washington college at Cheney. She also attended the University of Montana and has been teaching at the Jefferson school in Helena. The groom attended high school in Sprague and Klamath Business college in Spokane.

Duane G. Langel, Rudyard, and Ruby E. Peebler, Kalispell, were married here Wednesday by Justice H. L. Lokengard. Witnesses to the ceremony were William Zufall and C. L. Hendrickson.

Stedje-Prestblye

At a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Annon Johnson at Bethlehem Lutheran church Thursday evening, Feb. 15, Miss Catherine Stedje became the bride of the Rev. Norman R. Prestblye. The ceremony took place before an altar decorated with palms and lighted tapers and in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Karen Stedje and Rev. Mr. Prestblye is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Prestblye.

Miss Bertha Stedje of Fargo, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the three bridesmaids were Miss Beth Adole Prestblye, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Dorothy Thorvickson and Miss Ruth Prestblye, a cousin of the bridegroom. Arnold Prestblye, a cousin, attended the bridegroom, and Alden Hetter and Arnold and Norman Stedje, the bride's brothers, were ushers.

Arnold Stedje gave his sister in marriage. For her wedding, she wore a floor-length dress of white satin with a flowing train. Her fingertip veil was caught with a tangle of white rose buds and she carried a white Bible and corsage of gardenias. She also carried her mother's wedding handkerchief which two sisters also carried at their wedding. A pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, was worn by the bride.

Mrs. J. M. Carlson, organist, played for the ceremony and Mrs. O. C. Hjorte sang appropriate numbers. The bridesmaids wore floor-length dresses of pastel shades and the maid of honor wore a peach lace gown. The bride's mother wore dark blue shadow voile and Mrs. Prestblye, the bridegroom's mother, wore a teal crepe dress.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors for 80 guests. Judith Prestblye, cousin of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Henry Hager of Hettinger, N. D., sister of the bride, was at the gift table and she also cut and served the three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Orvon Koppang and Mrs. Margaret Elsass, cousins of the groom, poured, and Donna Lee Brown, and Faye Manley assisted in the dining room. Mrs. Grant Sorum, Lee and Juanita Gullikson, assisted in the kitchen.

Landry-Roberts

Miss Philippa M. Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Landry of Somers, became the bride of Lt. William W. Roberts of the U. S. Army, son of Mrs. A. J. Roberts of Helena, Mont., at a nuptial mass celebrated Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Matthew's church by Mgr. Francis X. O'Farrell.

The bride wore a white satin dress with a train and long veil and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her sister, Ann Landry, was bridesmaid. Attending the bridegroom was Lt. (a. g.) Carl Dutton of the navy.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to 35 guests at the Temple Tea Room. White gladioli and white tapers centered the table.

Lt. and Mrs. Roberts left on a short wedding trip and at the termination of Lt. Roberts' leave, they will go to Fort Lewis, Wash., where he is stationed.

Mrs. Roberts attended the College of St. Catherine at St. Paul and the University of Washington at Seattle. Lt. Roberts attended Montana state university before entering the armed forces at the beginning of the war. He recently returned from the Pacific theater where he served for 30 months.
