Anderson-Stoltze
 Miss Sylvia Louise Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Anderson of KallsPELL, and Corporal Robert H. Stoltze, son of Mrs. Harry C. Stoltze of Portland, Oregon, were married Wednesday afternoon, June 13, at Fort Riley, Kansas. The ceremony was performed by candle-light in the beautiful chapel by the army chaplain of the Fort. Members of the 285th A.G.F. band, of which Corporal Stoltze is the director, attended in a body.

The bride was attired in a gold dressmaker suit trimmed in brown with a blouse of aquamarine blue. Her accessories were brown and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Stoltze attended local schools, graduating from Flathead county high school and also from Montana State University of Missoula, with a Bachelor of Art degree in English. She is a member of Kappa Delta sorority and also Alpha Lambda Delta.

She taught one year in the city schools of KallsPELL and in the summer of 1943 entered Chicago Musical College, Chicago, where she specialized in vocal music. Last summer she was a member of the St. Louis Municipal Opera company, St. Louis, Missouri, for four months. She then resumed her studies at the musical college and last January accepted a position in Portland, Oregon, as a teacher of music and English in the Franklin high school. In March she gave a concert at the Joan of Arc Hotel, Portland, and in April appeared in a concert in KallsPELL under the sponsorship of the Kiwanis club, where she won wide acclaim.

Corporal Stoltze attended the University of Oregon for two years, and is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He then went east to study music and has a Bachelor of Music degree from Chicago Musical College. He is a pianist, composer and teacher and had his own studio of music in Portland before he entered the service. His bride sang one of his songs at her concert here in April. Corporal Stoltze has been in the army for the past three years.

The couple spent a few days in Kansas City, Kansas, and are at home temporarily at Fort Riley, where Cpl. Stoltze is stationed. If possible, the couple will be in KallsPELL this summer for a short visit. Mrs. Stoltze has several concerts scheduled for this fall and will return to Portland to resume her teaching at Franklin high school in September.

The ceremony was performed by the bishop, Rev. J. G. Hochstetler. Before the vows were taken D. D. Brenneman, assistant pastor delivered a short sermon.

A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kauffman and Mr. and Mrs. Ailene Kauffman, brothers and sisters-in-law of the bride, sang "My Best Friend."

The bride wore a dress of white tulle, 5 p. m. crepe, and carried a white Bible. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Little Kauffman.

Mr. Stutzman was attended by his brother, Earl Stutzman, of McCall, Idaho. The ushers were David and Norman Kauffman.

Guests from a distance were Mrs. Mattie Stutzman, daughter Esther, and sons, Alvin and Gilbert, of Harrisburg, Ore.; Mrs. Joe Miller and son, Gene, of Seeley Lake, Montana.

A reception was held at 8:30 at the home of the bride's parents which was attended by over 100 guests. Refreshments, including a large wedding cake, were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Stutzman have been visiting friends here and left Dec. 5 for Terry, Montana, where they will await his discharge from civil. A public service when they will go to Oregon to make their home.

Walter A. Swanson and Flora L. Brook, both of Seattle, were issued a marriage license here Saturday.

Robert C. Sykes and Jewel M. Krantz, both of Kalispell, were issued a marriage license Tuesday by Clerk of the Court Oliver P. Vose.

Krantz-Sykes

The wedding of Miss Jewel M. Krantz and Lieut. Robert C. Sykes was solemnized at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening, March 3, at a beautiful candle light service at the First Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Russell J. Prentiss officiating. Boughs of cedar formed an effective background for the tall baskets of pink snapdragons and for the candelabra in front of the altar.

Proceeding the ceremony, a group of numbers were played by Miss Louise Hanger at the organ, including "At Dawning," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Child Carr sang "Always" and "Oh, Promise Me." The candles were lighted by Miss Rosemary Johnson, wearing ivory white formal returned in scarlet.

To the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin, the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, R. L. Dickey. She wore a beautiful gown of brocaded white satin with a train, and her fingertip veil was held with a tiara of ivory white flowers. She carried a bouquet of white roses and pink ruscias.

Her attendants were her sister, Miss Barbara Krantz, and Mrs. Walter Dunn, sister of the groom. Both wore floor-length gowns of aqua taffeta, and carried bridesmaids' bouquets of pink and white carnations. The matron of honor was Mrs. Gehrus Wood, who wore a gown of gold jersey, and carried a matching bouquet of jonquils.

The bride was met at the altar by the groom, who was accompanied by George Erickson, a college classmate, acting as best man. Ushers were Earl Hanchett, Mark Parks, Jr., of Whitefish, and Deane Johnson.

The impressive double ring service was pronounced by Rev. Russell Prentiss, to the accompaniment of "I Love You Truly," played softly on the organ. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jalmer Johnson from 9 o'clock till 11 p. m., when 75 friends and relatives gathered to extend their good wishes to the happy couple. Guests were admitted by Diana Johnson, wearing a blue chiffon dress with corsage of pink sweet peas.

Mrs. Dickey, mother of the bride, wore navy blue and white street length dress, with corsage of radiance roses, and Mrs. Sykes, the groom's mother, wore King green jersey suit, also with corsage of radiance roses.

Ferns and other greens were used effectively in the rooms, also pink and white sweet peas, sweet scented stock, snapdragons, and forget-me-nots. White candles were used on the mantel and also on the buffet table, which was centered by a beautifully decorated wedding cake.

The bride and groom cut the wedding cake, and coffee was poured by Mrs. Albert Knutson and Mrs. Russ Baker. Mrs. Harry Fisher, Mrs. Linden and Mrs. Mark Parks, Jr., also assisted in serving.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dickey of this city. She was reared in Flathead Valley, attending high school in Kalispell, and is a charming young woman with many friends. The groom is a local boy, having attended grade and high school in Kalispell. He also attended the University at Missoula, having nearly completed his law study there. He is stationed at present at Camp Lewis, Washington, where he is attached to the Medical Supply division. Both young people have many friends here to wish them all happiness in their new life.

Of interest to his Montana friends is the news of the marriage of Jess J. Tabor, SP 3/c, formerly of Big Arm, to Janan L. Fulton, GVL 1/c, of Ketchikan, Alaska. The wedding took place September 27 at the Lutheran Church at Big Arm, which the ladies of the place had made attractive for the double ring ceremony which was performed by Rev. Nygaard. A wedding supper followed the services. The bride wore a blue ensemble with tulle and black accessories and her bridal bouquet was roses. The groom wore the full dress uniform of the U. S. coast guard. Their attendants were Virgil Burke of Oregon and Alexander Frierich of Sitka. The bride was formerly of Seattle but has been a resident of Ketchikan for the past several years, graduating from high school there. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Tabor, formerly of Big Arm but recently of Vancouver, Wash. He was 9 Juney in the Tolson high school when he was sent to the colors. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Black of Dayton. After 28 months spent in Alaska, he plans on making a home near Flathead lake when he is discharged from the service.
