ADA B. MacKENZIE

Ada B. MacKenzie was born in Kallispell, Montana on January 28, 1899, the daughter of Johnson and Olat Peterson. She was educated in the public and high schools of Kallispell, where she grew to womanhood, and was united in marriage to John S. MacKenzie on June 12, 1923.

Ada, as she was familiarly known to most people, was of exceptional disposition—and will to do more than her part. She always looked on the bright side of life and her motto through life was "to do the best she could for everyone." For years past she devoted much time to "doing and giving to somebody else" and the joy she found in so doing was evidenced in the host of friends she leaves to mourn her passing. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sisters, Eunice Holzknecht of Oakland, Calif., and Inez Peterson of Kallispell. Also one nephew and three nieces, to one of whom she has been as a mother for the past three and one-half years. She was a member of the Eastern Star and a member of the Board of the Rainbow Girls.

ANTON MADSON

Anton Madson was born August 1871 in Madelia, Minnesota. He was reared on a farm and followed that occupation most of his life.

On September 23, 1891 he was married to Miss Maria S. Jensen, and to this union were born nine children, seven of whom are now living.

In the year of 1910 the family moved to Joplin, Montana, and later to Great Falls, Mont., where Mr. Madson was employed for 14 years by the Great Northern railway company. Following this, they moved to Shyvana, Washington, where they located on a dairy ranch and it was here that they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary four years ago.

The following year they retired, moving to Kalspell, where Mr. Madson succumbed to a heart attack at the age of 74.

Those left to mourn his passing are his widow, Mrs. A. Madson; two daughters, Mrs. Angus L. Nelson of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Carl Tveit of St. James, Minnesota; five sons: Clifford H. of Great Falls, Montana; Loria A. of Los Angeles, Calif.; Ellsworth L. of Shyvana, Washington; Glen A. recently discharged from the navy; and Nollo C. of this city. All including the wives of Loria, Clifford and Nollo, were present at the services. A brother, Henry Madson of St. James, Minnesota, also survives, but was unable to attend the funeral.

ORVILLE C. MAHUGH

Funeral services for Orville C. Mahugh were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggoner and Campbell chapel by Rev. Ralph Underwood of Central Christian church. Obituary

Charles Chester McAuley was born at Pleasanton, Kansas, January 28, 1873. His father, John McAuley, emigrated from Scotland to New York State about 1840, and he and his wife traveled by covered wagon, drawn by oxen, from New York to Kansas, where he engaged in the cattle business. Charles was the youngest of 12 children.

On December 24, 1894, he was united in marriage to Estella Cooper. One daughter, Mary, now Mrs. Monroe Spink, was born to this union.

Mr. McAuley engaged in farming near Pleasanton and later operated a dray business there.

In 1919 the family moved to Kallspell and purchased a lot in what is now the east north section of the city, and later built a home where they lived until the death of Mrs. McAuley a year ago last April. Since that time Mr. McAuley has made his home with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Spink, in Whitefish.

During most of his sojourn in Kallspell he worked for the Great Northern railroad, retiring in 1941.

Having enjoyed exceptionally good health all his life, an unexpected heart condition developed rather suddenly and last Tuesday evening soon after retiring for the night he passed away.

Surviving relatives are his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Spink and granddaughter Peggy; two nieces living in Kansas and one living in Denver; four nephews and one brother-in-law living in Kansas.

ELIZABETH McCABE

Elizabeth Kingsley was born April 8, 1879, in Stowell, Pennsylvania. She received her education at the normal school at Lock Haven, Pennsylvania, and in the year of 1902 came to Kallspell to make her home. On January 2, 1903, she was united in marriage to Eugene McCabe and to this union two children were born, Helen of Ketchikan, Alaska, and James of Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Mrs. McCabe had been active in various clubs and activities in Kallspell and at the time of her passing was the secretary of the Council of Catholic Women and had served as president of the Altar Society of St. Matthew's church. Burch, Ward Buckingham, John McGregor, James Heller, Howard Knapp and Lawrence Bjorneby.

Obituary

Robert M. McGregor was born January 25, 1891, in San Carlos, Ariz. He was the youngest of two sons of Duncan and Charity McGregor. Following his graduation from Phoenix, Ariz. high school, he attended Highland Park college in Des Moines, Iowa. During the first world war he served in France with the 133rd Field Artillery. In June, 1929, he was united in marriage to Miss Eugenie Fholicher of this city.

To this union, two children were born, Victoria Nathalie and Roberta Jean. For 10 years previous to the war, he was with the Capital Motors of Helena and during the war he was engaged in war work in the San Francisco Bay area. He was a member of Morning Star Lodge No. 5 A. F. & A. M. Scottish Rite bodies and Algeria Shrine of Helena, and of the Lewis and Clark post of the American Legion. He passed away in Missoula Nov. 7 and is survived by his wife and two daughters and a host of friends.

Bob McGregor was an unpretentious fellow who saw his duty and went ahead and did it with no fear of not being recognized. His boyhood was spent on an Arizona ranch and the love of the outdoors was deep within him. Although not a resident of Kalispell, the Flathead was home to him and his numerous visits here gained him a host of friends who regret his passing. Though not of an advanced age, old timers who knew him will say, "Another son of the Old West has followed the blazed trail."
