Wedding Plans Made

Mrs. Julia Dufour of Somers announces the coming marriage of her daughter, Doloris, to Lester Averill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Averill of Somers, on December 12 in Bigfork. Miss Dufour has been teaching in Montana high schools, and recently worked in the office of the Somers Lumber company. Mr. Averill, discharged as a captain in the army air corps after three years overseas, is now a partner-owner in the Flathead Lake Lodges at Bigfork.

Lester Averill, Bigfork, and Doloris Dufour, Somers, secured a marriage license at the office of the clerk of the court Dec. 11.

Prominent Somers-Bigfork Couple Wed

Dufour-Averill

Miss Doloris Dufour, daughter of Mrs. Julia Dufour, became the bride of Lester Averill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Averill, at a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony at the Flathead Lake Lodges near Bigfork Thursday evening, Dec. 12.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Buster Dufour, was lovely in a white silk gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, tight-fitting bodice and a short train which was designed and made by her mother out of material from the groom's parachute. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a headband of red roses and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Bernadette Paul of Missoula was bridesmaid. Donald Young, a close friend of the groom, attended him and Roy Whitford was usher.

Rev. Jansson of Bigfork performed the single ring ceremony in candlelight before an improvised altar in front of the huge fireplace. Two candelabras and two baskets of mixed flowers flanked the altar at each side.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for a large number of relatives and friends.

After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in Bigfork.

Mr. and Mrs. Averill are well known in this community, both graduating from Flathead high school and the bride from the University of Montana. The bride was a member of the Bigfork high school faculty and has worked in offices in Washington, D. C., Spokane, and for the Somers Lumber company. Mr. Averill served overseas and also flew for the Pan-American Air Lines in Miami. He is at present a partner with Roy Whitford in the Flathead Lake Lodges.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Mike Christy of Butte, Mrs. George Gallant of Butte, Albert Zisake of Coffee Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Averill and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Averill of Spokane, and Clifford Averill of Coran.
