26 Feb 1946 pg 8- marriage

Nommensen-Kassner
In the presence of many relatives and friends in Trinity Lutheran church on February 14, at a service, beautiful in its simplicity, Miss Irma Nommensen, daughter of Emil Nommensen, Sr., and Adolph Kassner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kassner, took their marriage vows before the Rev. A. Jordan.

To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Eleanor Kassner, cousin of the groom, the bridal party slowly made their way to the altar where the bride was met by the groom and best man, Reinhold Kassner, brother of the groom.

The bride was escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of shimmering white slipper satin, made with the long-sleeved sleeves, and full skirt and train. With this she wore a finger-tip veil, held in place with a coronet of stickpinnets and white carnations. Her bouquet was of pink roses and white carnations. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

The bride's sister, Miss Helen Nommensen, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of rose silver lace and tulle. The two bridesmaids were Miss Leona Nommensen, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Nommensen, cousin of the bride.

At the close of the double-ring ceremony, the bride and groom knelt for the benediction. The bridal party made their way down the aisle and received the good wishes of their many friends.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's father. The evening was spent in viewing the couple's lovely gifts. A delicious luncheon was served by two of the bride's cousins, Miss Evelyn Kraft and Miss Pauline Nommensen. As the bride cut the wedding cake, it was served by her three attendants.

The wedding cake was made by her aunt, Mrs. Paul Nommensen, and Mrs. Carl Nommensen.

At the close of the evening, the couple left on a trip. Her going-away costume was a rose suit with black accessories.

The groom has recently been discharged after spending over two years with the U. S. army in the European theater.

The bride has been employed at The Palace Dept. store in Spokane. Both young people were born and reared here and received their education in the local schools.

Congratulations and best wishes go out to the happy couple from their many friends in this community.
