Chris-Nordhog
 Miss Agnes Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Cox of Lakeside and Chris Nordhog of San Francisco were united in marriage at a ceremony read by the Rev. Crelighton at 9:15 o'clock on Saturday evening, April 6. The wedding took place before a candlelit fireplace at the apartment of Rev. Crelighton in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weiss attended the bridal couple. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. McCaffery, sister and brother-in-law of the groom and Milford Crowe. The bride was attired in a dress suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids. Mrs. Weiss, the former Helen Gendahl of Kalspell was the bride's attendant. A late dinner after the service was enjoyed by the party. The bride was employed by the Standard Oil Co. in Seattle for three years prior to going to San Francisco last year, where she has been employed by the Singer Sewing Machine company. The groom was employed by the New York Record-Herald for several years, was in the merchant marine for two years during the war and is now staff artist on the San Francisco Chronicle. The couple will make their home in San Francisco.
