Everson-Prince

The little chapel of the Presbyterian church was the scene of a lovely wedding Friday afternoon, Dec. 12 at 1 o'clock when Miss Helen Everson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Everson of Altadena, Calif., became the bride of Henry Prince, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prince of this city. Rev. Russell Prentice read the double-ring ceremony.

The chapel was attractively decorated with large baskets of pink and white lilies at the altar with matching baskets on the piano.

During the ceremony, Miss Jerry Caswell sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Tom Richardson.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother-in-law, E. G. Ferguson of Great Falls, was attractive in a gown of white satin fashioned with a sheer yoke with a beaded floral design. The full skirt was fashioned with a long train. The sheer bridal veil was attached to a coronet of seed pearls and her bridal bouquet was of pink Briarcliffe roses and orchid Beauty bouquets.

Mrs. Maurice Quemel was matron of honor. Barry Braunberger was best man and Maurice Quemel acted as usher.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where 75 guests were served refreshments, with Mrs. E. G. Ferguson, sister of the bride and Mrs. M. H. Nolan presiding at the refreshment table.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple is residing at 1235 Third avenue east.

Mrs. Prince is a graduate of the Plentywood, Mont., high school and of Montana State college, where she majored in home economics. She is county home demonstration agent and will continue in that office for the present.

Mr. Prince is a graduate of Flathead high school and Bradley university at Peoria, Ill. He served four years in the army, with time spent in the European and South Pacific theaters of war.

Nolan-Smith Nuptials

Smiling on a beautiful late-summer day brought the traditional signs of happiness to Nancy Jean Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nolan, and her bridegroom, Edward Ralph Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith of Billings.

The Rev. Russell J. Prentice, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Kalispell, officiated at the 4 p. m. double-ring church ceremony, August 31 in a setting of white and gleaming gold. A floral bank of pastel snow balls, ferns, and lighted white tapers made a lovely altar for the exchange of vows.

Preceding the ceremony, Robert Orser sang "Through the Years" and "Because" and Miss Dorothy Dixon rendered a violin selection, "At Dawning."

To the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party entered the church led by the usher, Robert Nolan of Missoula, cousin of the bride, Elwyn Seward, William Selig and Robert Deanna.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and silk, with fitted bodice, beaded neck line, full skirt and train. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a coronet of pleated satin, and she carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli centered with pink roses.

Miss Caroline Berg was maid of honor and Miss Bebe Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Virginia Johnson, were bridesmaids.

Do Short of Omaha, Neb., acted as best man.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Bert Selig, who served the bride's cake, and Mrs. R. N. Smith who served the groom's cake. Mrs. Henry Prince poured and Miss Ruth Voorhees was in charge of the guest book.

After a three-weeks' motor trip to the west coast and California, Mr. Smith and his bride will make their home at 401 McLaughlin, Ave., in Missoula, where he is a student at Montana State university.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school and attended Montana State university for two years where she was affiliated with Delta Delta sorority. The groom served in the army air corps and two years ago entered the university where he is a Phi Delta Theta member.

Relatives and friends who came for the wedding were the bridegroom's family, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Smith and daughters, Bebe and Shirley of Billings; R. W. Nolan and son, Robert, and Katie Nolan, all of Missoula, and Miss Jean Mack of Bozeman; Miss Jean McGleam of Prineville, Ore.; Miss Connie Cutler of Coulee, Wash.; Joe Farrell of Billings.

Johnson-Smith Nuptials

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding held Saturday, Sept. 13 at 8 o'clock in the Bethlehem Lutheran church, uniting in marriage Miss Juanita Claire Johnson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Johnson, and Richard Charles Smith, son of Mrs. Hattie T. Smith.

Against a setting of white gladioli and tall papers in candelabra, the wedding party gathered before the altar in the church chancel. Rev. Anson Johnson read the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. J. M. Carlson presided at the pipe organ and also played the processional and recessional marches. Before the service, Mrs. Wendell D. Johnson sang "Because," and at the close of the service Miss Dorothy Thorvilson sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of fine lace and sequinette, fashioned with a tight bodice, high neckline, long sleeves and long train. Sued pearls covered the jolite style head piece from which fell the fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Wendell Johnson was matron of honor, Miss Shirley Olson, bridesmaid, and little Susan Garding, flower girl. The groom was attended by Wendell D. Johnson, brother of the bride, as best man, and Lawrence Badler, Usbers were Luther Johnson and Lawrence Johnson, Jr., brothers of the bride.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church basement where 100 guests gathered.

Miss Ruth Crail and Mrs. Evg Garding poured at a lace-covered table. A large, beautifully decorated wedding cake was served by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Luther Johnson.

The bride grew up in this community and attended the city schools and Flathead county high school. She is employed at the R.E.A. office. The groom was raised at Pierre, S. Dak., attended high school at Dutton, Montana, and the State College of Science at Wahpeton, N. Dak. He served three years in the navy and is now associated with the Texaco company.

The young couple left by car on a short wedding trip and will be at home to their friends in their apartment on First avenue east.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rice of Libby, Dr. Laurence N. Field, Great Falls, and Donald E. Johnson of Missoula.

Elsas-Sothre

In a setting of pink and white gladiolus and dahlias, Margaret Elsas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olav Prestbye, became the bride of Howard Kenneth Sothre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sothre, at a beautiful wedding in the Bethlehem Lutheran church Friday evening, September 12.

The Rev. Arnon Johnson gave an impressive message and the Rev. N. R. Prestbye, cousin of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. J. M. Carlson rendered beautiful pipe organ selections and Al Olson of Whitefish sang "God Bless This House," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose as her wedding dress a floor length, full-skirted, ruffled gown of white sheer nylon. A coronet of baby's mum and pink roses was worn in her hair. She carried a handkerchief of Mrs. M. B. Larsson's which was 57 years old. Her only jewelry was a double string of pearls, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Orion Koppang, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the groom was attended by his brother, Milton Sothre of Wolf Point, as best man. Little Miss Freda May Elsas was flowergirl and ushers were Willis Gorton and Richard Larson.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held for 100 guests in the church parlors. Don Shepard offered several vocal selections.

After a wedding trip to Banff and Lake Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Sothre will be at home to their friends at 995 First avenue west.

The bride, who has lived in the Flathead all her life and attended the local schools, was recently employed at the Dr. Ross Clinic. The groom, formerly of Wolf Point, spent three years in the army air force with two years overseas, serving in both the European and Pacific theaters of operation. He is now employed at the Johns Buick garage.

Holmquist-Torgerson
 Miss Esther Holmquist of this city and LeRoy Torgerson of Sedro Woolley, Wash., were united in marriage Nov. 3 in the Assembly of God church at the place. The artistic decorations of the church made the wedding one of the loveliest of the season.

Walking down the candle-lit aisle with her father, the bride was lovely in her emerald satin wedding gown designed with full skirt and formal train. The bodice was fashioned with fitted sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a row in tiny satin buttons closing the back. She wore a French lace trimmed finger-tip length veil and carried a bouquet of pale pink rose buds surrounded with white carnations and white chrysanthemums. Three strands of pearls fastened with a diamond clasp, the groom's gift, completed her costume.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Lucille Poston, sister of the groom's mother of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Helen Holmquist and Mrs. Alice Hriener, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Evelyn Modahl and Miss Emma Courtney.

Stanley Walters was best man and ushers were Jesse Modahl, Poston and Austin Hancock.

A reception was held in the city auditorium at which a beautiful wedding cake was served by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Charlotte Poston of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Torgerson left for a short wedding trip to Hood Canal and Pacific beach after which they will be at home on Cook Road, Sedro Woolley.

The bride and groom are graduates of the Northwest Bible Institute of Seattle and plan to enter ministerial work in the future.

Korn-Walterskirchen

Miss Kathryn Flora Korn, on daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Korn, and William Charles Walterskirchen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Walterskirchen of Missoula, were united in marriage Saturday, September 13, at 1 o'clock p. m., at St. Matthew's church with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis X. O'Farrell performing the double-ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated throughout with tall baskets of white gladiolus and seven big candleabra standards.

As the ushers seated the guests Miss Marylynne Killo of Butte, sister of the bride, sang "Ave Maria" with Miss Dorothy Dickie playing the violin obligato and Sister Mary Chrysothem accompanied on the organ. Sister Chrysothem also played the wedding marches.

James Korn and Karl Walterskirchen, young brothers of the bride and groom, lighted the candles just before the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage to her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory slipper satin with big neck, long sleeves, long bodice buttoned down the back and a peplum forming a long train. The bodice and peplum were trimmed with clusters of ivory satin rosebuds. Her veil was held in place by a coronet of braided satin. The veil was fingered length. The bride's mother held the wedding cushions for her daughter. The bride's bouquet was of ranunculus with a cascade of stephanotis.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Wilbur Scott of Missoula as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. L. H. McAlley of Missoula and Miss Caroline Burg, Penny Warden, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrit Warden was flower girl. The matron of honor and bridesmaid carried corsage bouquets of rose and lily of the valley in autumn shades.

The groom was attended by Dan Korn, Jr., brother of the bride, as best man and Wilbur Scott and Roy Juhn of Missoula, Jack Scott of Polson and John Graham, Jr., were ushers.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Walterskirchen left on a wedding trip to the west coast. They will visit Seattle and San Francisco.

The bride will enter her senior year at Montana State university this fall. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The groom will enter law school at the university and is a member of Sigma Xi social fraternity. They will make their home in Missoula.
