Terry-Kennedy Nuptials

St. Paul's Lutheran church in Missoula was the scene of a lovely June wedding Sunday afternoon, June 13, when Miss Betty Jean Terry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Terry of Kalispell, and R. Glenn Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Kennedy of Anaconda, were united in marriage. The Rev. Gordon Toller-son performed the impressive double-ring ceremony.

Large baskets of pink and white flowers were near the altar, and the sanctuary was lighted by white tapers in seven-branch candelabra.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Benjamin Boyd, organist. Miss Joyce Dagenhart of Phillipsburg, sorority sister of the bride, sang "Because" and "All for You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in her wedding gown of heavy white satin with fitted bodice, long sleeves and full train. Her fingertip veil of tulle fell from a coronet edged in pear orange blossoms and she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a white Bible on which was placed a single orchid.

Miss Faye Manley of Kalispell was maid of honor. Miss Barbara Lou Kitt of Missoula and Miss Nancy Hodgson of Great Falls, sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Gene Kennedy acted as best man for his brother and ushers were Kenneth Kennedy, brother of the groom, Jack Slayton, Ryegate, and Wes Wendland, Deer Lodge, fraternity brothers of the groom.

A reception was held in the Mayfair room of the Florence hotel, attended by approximately 100 guests, including friends and relatives. Mrs. Robert Ledingham of Helena and Mrs. A. T. Aronson of Kalispell poured at the tea table. Mrs. Bayliss Cummings and Mrs. Duncan McCarthy, of Kalispell, cut and served the three-tiered wedding cake and Miss Gerry Lee Phillips and Miss Janice Ludwig presided at the punch table. Mrs. F. B. Kitt and Mrs. Flora Boyer, Missoula, assisted with the guests and Miss Jean Turnquist of Portland was in charge of the guest book.

Following a wedding trip to Flathead lake and Glacier park, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will reside in Bozeman where he will attend the summer session at Montana State college.

The bride is a native of Kalispell and a graduate of Flathead high school. She attended the University of Montana where she was affiliated with the Delta Gamma sorority. She has recently been employed in the office at Gallatin county high school in Bozeman.

The groom also attended the University of Montana and was in the army during World war II, with two years in the Pacific theater of operations. He is completing his senior year at Montana State college where he is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry entertained at a pre-nuptial 7 o'clock dinner in the rose room of Hotel Florence Saturday evening, for members of the bridal party and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy, parents of the groom.

Dyer-Kienas Wedding
In a setting of spring flowers and candlelight at the Kalispell Trinity Lutheran church Friday evening June 4, Miss Frances Dyer, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Dyer, became the bride of Arthur Kienas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Attenburg of Somers. The Rev. A. Jordan solemnized the double-ring rite.
Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Everett Shier rendered organ music to the guests who seated by the ushers, John Dyer, brother of the bride, and Henry Pickon. Mrs. Shier also played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Dyer of Missoula, who sang "Heaven" and "To You Beloved," the latter being an original composition for the wedding.
The bride, given in marriage to her uncle, Glenn Dyer of Missoula, wore a white satin gown, fashioned with a sheer yoke and trimmed in seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of Tullman roses, centered with an orchid.
Miss Bobbie Dyer was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Elsie Attenburg, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid. Ewald Kasper was best man and Fred Whelting an attendant to the groom.
Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Dyer and Mrs. Attenburg poured, and Mrs. Fred Mencham, Mrs. Clarence Sheldon, and Mrs. Orville Wolf served the guests. Miss Phyllis Anderson passed the guest book and Miss Shirley Dyer assisted with the gifts.
After many good wishes from friends and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Kienas left on a short wedding trip to Canada. Upon their return, they will make their home in Kalispell.

Reveal Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Larson of this city have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lois Jane, to Victor George Koch, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Koch of Sidney, Montana.

Miss Larson is a graduating senior in sociology at Montana State University and is a member of Delta Delta social sorority.

Mr. Koch was a member of the armed forces for two years, serving in the European Theater with the military intelligence. He is a student at the University and has just completed his first year in the law school.

The couple are making plans for a summer wedding.

Larson-Koch Nuptials

Miss Lois Jane Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Larson, of this city, and Victor George Koch, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Koch of Sidney, Montana were united in marriage at an informal but impressive wedding ceremony in St. Paul's Lutheran church in Missoula Monday afternoon, July 13, at 5 o'clock. The Rev. Gordon Tolftson performed the single-ring ceremony and a program of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Ben Boyd of Missoula.

For her wedding the bride wore a simple ankle-length, egg-shell sheer over pink taffeta, fashioned with a round neckline, cap sleeves and a flared skirt. A wide pink taffeta sash was tied in a large bow at the back. A large white straw picture hat trimmed in shattered pink carnations, and the bridal bouquet of pink roses with white satin ribbon streamers completed the ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jewell of Missoula attended the couple as best man and matron of honor.

Immediately following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served in the North Rose room of the Hotel Florence for the bridal party and guests.

Roses and pink sweet peas were used in a decorative theme on the tables where the large decorated wedding cake formed the center of attraction.

After cutting the cake, the couple left for a short wedding trip. On their return they will be at home to their friends at 1127 Van Buren street in Missoula.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school and received her B. A. degree in sociology at Montana State University in June of this year. The groom will enter his second year in the university law school. He served two years with armed forces in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Larson and son, Gordon, and Miss Betty Jo Hyde of Kalispell and Miss Hilda Myre of Somers, attended the wedding, as well as relatives and friends from Conrad, Great Falls, Spokane and Seeley Lake.
