RACHEL M. HOWELL
DIES IN PLANE
EN ROUTE TO EAST

Mrs. Rachel M. Howell of Belton, who has been seriously ill for about a year, succumbed in a plane which was taking her to the Mayo Clinic for treatment about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Howell had been suffering with Addison's disease — a very rare malady — and had been at the Mayo Clinic for treatment several months ago. Monday her condition became alarming, and a plane from the Corsair Flying Service was chartered in the hope that she would reach the hospital in time, but she lost in the race with death, and passed away near Watertown, S. D. The return with the body was started, but the ceiling was too low to cross the mountains for a landing here last night. The plane made a landing at Cut Bank, and returned with the body this morning.

Mrs. Howell is survived by her husband, Robert E. Howell and two little daughters. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ridenour, and has lived at Lake Pive and Belton all her life. Funeral arrangements are incomplete, but will be announced later.
