Conway-Bruyer Nuptials

Miss Jeanne Conway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conway of Sacramento, Calif., and Robert J. Bruyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bruyer of this city, were united in marriage Friday morning at 9 o'clock in a nuptial high mass ceremony with Msgr. F. X. O'Farrell officiating.

The altar, before which the double-ring ceremony was performed, was adorned with two large baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and spring flowers in pastel shades, flanked by candelabra standards bearing tall white tapers.

The music was played by Sister Chrysostrata with response by the children's choir. John Bushnell, as soloist, sang "Ave Maria." He was accompanied by Mrs. Marcella Strack.

The bride, escorted to the altar by Ben J. Bruyer, uncle and godfather of the bridegroom, was lovely in a gown of ivory slipper satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, and a white net overskirt terminating in a long train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a heart-shaped coronet, trimmed with seed pearls, and clusters of orange blossoms.

She carried a bouquet of red roses with pink and white net streamers and wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Mavor Moss, sister of the bridegroom. Mavor Moss acted as best man. Ushers were Don Walter Keith Damon, George Bruyer and Cal Herzog.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast at the Girshinger home was served to the immediate relatives and a few close friends. The traditional wedding cake was included in the menu.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to Spokane where Mr. Bruyer will enroll in Kinnman Business college and where they will make their home.

The bride received her earlier education at Sacramento but for two years has been a student at the Sacred Heart academy, Missoula.

The bridegroom is a native of this community and attended Flathead county high school until he entered the U. S. navy. Receiving his diploma upon his return from the service, he has since been a student at the University of Montana, Missoula, where he met his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruyer were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts for their new home.

A particular interest in the wedding is the fact that the date, Jan. 23, is the same as that of Mr. Bruyer's parents and his grandparents.

Double Wedding Rites Unite Popular Young Folks

A lovely, double wedding was solemnized the evening of June 12 at Boisvert's on McGregor lake when Miss Fern Fisher of Libby became the bride of Norman Fuller, also of Libby, and Miss Helen Deaton of Kila became the bride of Arthur Bundrock of Kalspell.

Before the large fireplace which was decorated with ferns, over green boughs, baskets of flowers and lighted candles, Rev. James Davidson, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Libby, read the double ring ceremony for the couples.

Before the ceremony, Ralph Swinley of Libby sang "Became," and Mrs. Verly Olson sang "I Love You Truly." Patricia Gruda was at the piano.

The brides, given in marriage by their fathers, were attractive in wedding gowns of white satin and lace, with rose buds in their velle and carrying colonial bouquets. Each wore three strands of pearls, gifts of the groom.

Fayella Fisher, sister of Mrs. Fuller, attended her as maid of honor and Viola Glazier of Kila was maid of honor for Mrs. Bundrock. Bridesmaids were Ruby Otis and Joyce Fuller, both of Libby, for Mrs. Fuller and Shirley Moeller and Dolly Butler of Kalspell for Mrs. Bundrock.

Robert Deaton, brother of Mrs. Bundrock, was best man for Mr. Bundrock and Mr. Fuller's best man was his brother, Lewis. Meriel Ann Savage was ring bearer and ushers were Dick Austin, Don Hall, Duane Moeller and Lenord Schmidt. The recessional was sung by Mrs. Bill Moller and Mrs. Worth Hindman of Kalspell.

Following the nuptials, a reception including a buffet supper and old-time and modern dancing, was held for approximately 300 guests. The table was decorated with flowers and candles and a three tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

The two couples left together on a wedding trip which will take them to Yellowstone park, the Grand Canyon, and points in California. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will reside near Liby and Mr. and Mrs. Bundrock will make their home in Kalspell.

Mrs. Fuller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Fisher of Libby, and is a graduate of Libby high school with the class of '48. Mr. Fuller served in the army with time spent in the south Pacific.

Mrs. Bundrock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deaton of Kila and attended Flathead high school. Mr. Bundrock also served in the army with time in the south Pacific.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fuller of Butte and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prestoeh and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Summers, all of Appleton, Wisconsin.
