Gordon-Lancaster Wedding

Magr. P. N. O'Farrell celebrated the nuptial mass at the St. Matthew's church in Kalspell on Saturday, July 3, at 9 a. m. at which Miss Aileen Marie Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gordon of Kalspell, became the bride of Sidney Charles Lancaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lancaster of Kalspell.

Music for the nuptial service was furnished by John Bushnell who sang "Ave Maria," and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother," accompanied by Mrs. P. J. Rubisehon. Candelabra bearing white tapers illumined the altar where baskets of white peonies formed the floral adornment. Miss Marjorie Johnson of Kalspell was maid of honor, and the Misses Grace Thomas and Rosemary Johnson were bridesmaids. Duane Johnson was best man and Dave Billaborough and Eddie Schorn were ushers. Little Miss Marjorie Rasmussen of Kalspell was flower girl.

The bride was attired in white tatin gown of classic bridal style, with sweetheart neckline and sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. The skirt, extending from a fitted bodice, fell into a long train. The bridal veil of fingertip length was of white net and was caught to a coronet. The bride carried a white orchid corsage on her prayer book. A matching string of pearls, given her by the groom, completed her ensemble.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Temple Tea room for about 40 guests. The tables were decorated with white peonies and syringa and white tapers, centered with the wedding cake which was made in three tiers. The table decorations were arranged by Mrs. William Kenna.

Out-of-town guests in attendance at the wedding were Bill Schorn of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Venzand, Chelsea, South Dakota, Donald and Duane Bisbee of Croshaw, S. D., Miss John Schantz of Athol, S. D., and Mrs. Riechel Kao and children, Ruth and Glen, of Forest City, Iowa.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school and was a student at Montana State college at Bozeman this past year. The groom is also a Flathead high school graduate, and for the past two years, after serving in the navy for two years, has been a student at Montana State college.

The young couple left immediately following the wedding breakfast for Seattle and the west coast on their honeymoon, and plan to take up residence in Los Angeles, where Mr. Lancaster will resume his studies at the University of Southern California.

Young Couple Wed in Rites Sept. 11

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Newell
The Bethlehem Lutheran church was the scene of a lovely late summer wedding Saturday evening, Sept. 11, as Rev. Amon Johnson performed the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Opal M. Daley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Daley of Kalispell, and James S. Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Newell, also of Kalispell.

The vows were exchanged in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends and in front of lighted candelabra. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli and marigolds.

Mrs. J. M. Carlson played the wedding marches and accompanied Bill Carr as he sang "Because" and "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Harold Gey, as matron of honor, Miss Lynne Newell, sister of the groom, and Miss Florence Jacobson, as bridesmaids. Miss Joanne Daley, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of white brocaded satin with a high rounded neckline featuring a marquise yoke which blended into a brocaded satin bodice with long light sleeves. The full brocaded skirt was worn in the new hoop fashion with the front hem-line drooping into a long train. Her veil was finger-tip length with a white beaded halo and she carried a white Bible and bouquet of white roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Glenn Johnson, Jr., as best man. Ushers were LaVano Daley, brother of the bride, and Joseph Kennedy.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors for 75 relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. The tables were decorated with mixed garden flowers and pink lighted tapers. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was centered on a lace covered table.

Mrs. Charles Therrien, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Frank Opp cut and served the cake. Mariame Wornley, Mrs. James Daley, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. J. V. Mitchell, cousin of the bride, poured. Miss Edith Brownlee had charge of the guest book.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Newell left on a wedding trip. On their return, they will spend a short time in Kalispell before departing for Berkeley, California where he will enter college.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Newell are graduates of Flathead county high school. He served one year overseas in the navy and attended the University of Montana last year.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arvell Hopkinn of Bend, Mont., uncle and aunt of the bride, Miss Alice Woody, east lake shore, Mrs. Bert Saling, Missoula; Mr. and Mrs. James Daley and daughters of Seneca and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Mitchell and daughters of Columbia Falls.

Now - Nordtome Rites

Marriage vows were exchanged Sunday afternoon, December 12, between Miss Dorothy June Root, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Root and Robert J. Nordtome, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nordtome. Rev. Ralph Werner of Columbia Falls read the doubling ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

The rooms were decorated with large baskets of white and yellow pom-poms and two seven-branched candelabra. Mrs. Earl Fenton, pianist, played "The Bridal Chorus," by Wagner and Mendelsohn's "Wedding March."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a white wool suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was a single white orchid and she wore a strand of white pearls.

The bride was attended by Miss Mary Ann Wormley as bridesmaid and Lynn Lee, cousin of the groom, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held from 2 until 4 o'clock. A four-tiered wedding cake centered the reception table and friends of the bride who served were, Donna Lindsay, Patby Mae Ebben and Della Manning. Sunny Knox was in charge of the guest book.

A large number of friends and relatives gathered to wish the bride and groom a long and happy married life after which the young couple left on a wedding trip for an unknown destination. They expect to be gone several months and on their return, will reside at the ranch home of the groom two miles south of Kalspell.

The bride and groom, the only children of their respective families, were reared in the Flathead and are graduates of Flathead high school. Their marriage was the culmination of a high-school romance. The bride was recently employed at the county airport. The groom served in the air corps with several years spent overseas in Korea.

Buck-Serier

The wedding of Miss Patricia Jean Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Buck, and T. Parker Serier, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Serier, was solemnized Sunday afternoon, April 4, at 2 o'clock at St. Matthew's church with the Rev. Msgr. F. N. O'Farrell officiating. This was the third generation he has married, having officiated at the weddings of the bride's grandmother and mother.

The double-ring vows were spoken before lighted candles and tall baskets of eolia lilies. Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Alma Foua sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by her sister, Miss Irena Albert, who also played the wedding march.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, was lovely in a white tulle suit cut ballroom style, and her hat was a braided coronet of the same material with a short draped veil. She carried a white orchid.

Margaux Reimer was bridesmaid, the bridegroom was attended by his youngest brother, Robert, and ushers were Lawrence Plummer and Willis Leon.

Following the wedding ceremony, relatives and a few intimate friends were guests at a reception at the bride's home. A wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom under a white bell centered a lace-covered table. The bride's cake was cut with a knife belonging to the groom's grandmother and which was brought from Scotland.

Mrs. Gaylord Smith, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Gene Serier poured. Miss Margaret Amicht served the cake and Miss Edith Brown was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. James Bowles and Mrs. William Hossack assisted with the service.

For her going away, the bride wore a brown gabardine suit with pink accessories. After a wedding trip to California, the couple will make their home in Kallapell.

Mr. and Mrs. Serier are graduates of Flathead high school and Mrs. Serier is employed by architect Fred Brinkman. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reimer of Trosson. Mr. Serier is a veteran of World War II having served three and one half years in the navy. He is employed at Bell's Carter Service station.
