Thon-Sheeran

Miss Cleora Louise Thon, daughter of Mrs. H. A. Thon and member of a prominent pioneer family of Montana, became the bride of Norman J. Sheeran of Seattle, son of Frank Sheeran of Polson, on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 28, at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

The church was filled with relatives and friends to witness the ceremony performed by Rev. Russell Prentice.

Nuptial music was played by Louise Hanger, and before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Jerry Gaskell sang "Ich Liebe Dich." Before the benediction, Dr. Robert Orser sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ray Thon. Her maid of honor was her sister, Harriet Thon. Others in the bridal procession were Miss Dorothy J. Orser, the groom's sister, Mrs. Mary Ellen Bowman, Mrs. Sidney Pugh, and flower girl Valerie Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bog Logan. Best man was George Nadeau of Whitefish.

The bride was radiant in her bridal dress of white velvet with shirred bodice, long full skirt and net veil and lace cap once worn by her great-great-grandmother. The bride's bouquet was pale pink roses and white mums. All of the bridesmaids wore green and coral gowns, and carried bronze mums. The flower girl wore a long lace dress and carried roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Pioneer room. The table was centered with white capers and white mums in silver baskets. Those presiding were the Madames A. R. Johnson, M. H. Nolan, Dan Korn and Ray Robbin.

The young couple left on a short trip to Glacier Park headquarters. Mrs. Sheeran's going-away outfit was a wine colored ensemble with black accessories.

Upon their return they will reside in Seattle where the groom is a research chemist for the American Mavroin Co.

Mr. Sheeran was graduated from the University of Montana, received his master's degree from the University of Washington and served during the war with the navy for two years as lieutenant (j.g.)

Cleora was graduated from Flathead county high school and was employed for two years in the office of Dr. Orser and four years in the First National bank.

Ushers at the wedding were Bill Thon, Ned Houtz, Jerry Schmall and Martin Huggins.

Miss Springer tied

The Presbyterian church was the scene Friday evening, November 28, of a lovely pre-holiday wedding when marriage vows were exchanged between Miss Gloria Frances Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Fisher of this city, and William H. Springer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Springer of Otis Orchards, Washington, with Rev. Frank B. Mills officiating.

Vows were exchanged in the double-ring ceremony before a background of evergreens, flanked by tall baskets of pink carnations and white pompons. Two floor candles holding 14 tall lighted tapers were used.

Preceding the ceremony, Clide Carr sang "Perfect Prayer" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Tom Richardson played the accompaniment and also played the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was exquisite in her bridal gown of white satin, fashioned with a round lace yoke, fitted bodice, and full skirt, train. Her full length veil of tulle had a deep border of shadow lace and was held by a train of seed pearls.

The veil was an heirloom of the bridegroom's family, and had been worn by all the brides in the Springer family.

The bride carried a white Bible on which rested a corsage of red roses. Miss Eleanor Laurich attended the bride as maid of honor, Miss Alameda Longpre was bridesmaid, and Maridonna Fisher, sister of the bride was junior bridesmaid.

Jack King attended the groom as best man, and ushers were Frank O'Neil and Anton Amundson, Jr.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Pioneer room of the church for 125 guests. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Helen O'Fallon.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead high school and graduated this year from the school of nursing at St. Luke's hospital in Spokane. Since graduation she has been employed as an assistant in a doctor's office at Cheney, Washington, where she will continue her work.

Mr. Springer was in the armed services for three and one-half years, with a year and a half spent in Germany. He is at present a senior at Eastern Washington college.

The young couple left Sunday, November 28, for their future home at Cheney.

Bergstrom-Walter Nuptials

The First Presbyterian church was the setting the evening of July 15 for the candlelight ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Dorothy Bergstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bergstrom, Sr., of Somers and Donald L. Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Walter of this city. The nuptials vows were exchanged before a flower-banked altar with the Rev. Russell Prentice performing the double-ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Keith Inamon lighted the candles and Miss Jerry Caswell sang "Because," and "Through The Years," accompanied at the organ by Miss Louise Hanzger.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a wedding gown of heavy white satin with a short train. Her fingertip veil was fastened with a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus centered with an orchid. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Dick Walter was matron of honor and Miss Barbara Ann Jerrow, maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kormel Fagerland and Mrs. James Todd. Dick Walter attended his brother as best man and ushers were Rudolph and Raymond Bergstrom, brothers of the bride, Calvin Herzog and Robert Bruyer.

After the ceremony a reception for relatives and close friends was held in the church parlors. Before the lighted fireplace, the bride and groom cut their three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The bride's table, was covered with a beautiful linen tablecloth centered with a large bowl of pink and white peonies and tall white taper. Mrs. Rudolph Bergstrom, Jr., served the wedding cake and Mrs. Oscar Grovo and Mrs. William Jerrow, aunts of the bride and groom, postred.

After a wedding trip the bride and groom will make their home in Kallispell where the groom is employed with his father. Both are graduates of Flathead high school. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker of Seattle, Erick Fehberg of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Mrs. C. B.
