LINDA LEE COYLE

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Coyle of Kallispell have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Linda Lee of Seattle, to Gary Lee Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Edwards of Seattle.

Miss Coyle, a graduate of Central Valley High School in Spokane, attended Washington State University in Pullman and University of Washington in Seattle. She is employed by Boeing in Seattle.

Her fiance, a graduate of Nathan Hale High School in Seattle, is a student at Seattle Community College.

The wedding is planned for Sept. 7 in Spokane.

MR. AND MRS. GARY LEE EDWARDS
(Linda Lee Coyle)

Coyle-Edwards

Miss Linda Lee Coyle and Gary Lee Edwards, both of Seattle, were married Sept. 7 in Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in Spokane.

The Very Rev. Richard Coombs officiated at the double-ring service in candlelight. Dr. C. Harold Fincke was organist for the nuptial rite. Decorating the sanctuary for the occasion were altar bouquets of yellow gladioli and bronze chrysanthemums and carnations.

Mrs. Kenneth Oatli was matron of honor and the Misses Sarah Edridge and Nancy Fackelst were bridesmaids. James Burns, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man. The bridegroom's brother, Duane Coyle of Kallispell, and Kenneth Oatli of Seattle were ushers. John Scott was ring bearer.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of silk organza and rose point lace in skimmer style. The bodice of lace was accented with seed pearls and crystals. It was styled with a portrait neckline and elbow-length sleeves with wide ruffles. Her redingote swept into a chapel train. Her veil of silk tulle was caught to a cluster of roses and leaves. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis with ivy accents.

The reception for the young couple was in Jewett House of the cathedral where assisting were grandmothers of the couple, Mrs. C. F. Webster, Mrs. D. Burns and Mrs. R. Murray. Others were Mrs. Harold Scott and Miss Sheila Scott.

The bride is employed at Boeing. The bridegroom is completing his education in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards are residing at 1883 NW 61st, Seattle.

MISS VINCENT ERHARD EGAN
(Nancy Anne McLeod)

Miss Nancy Anne McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. McLeod Jr., of Kallispell, and Vincent Erhard Egan of Billings, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stephens Sr., of Winfield Farms, Juntura, Minn., exchanged vows on Saturday in a service in Church of the Holy Spirit in Missoula.

Officiating at the 8 p.m. service was Dr. Claude Bookston. Lawrence Perry was organist and played accompaniment for trio numbers sung by Edith Hackett Johnson of Billings.

Best man, Groomsmen were Don Larson and Del Johnson, both of Missoula. Ushers were the bride's brothers, W. Wayne McLeod of Tallahassee, Fla., John M. McLeod of Portland, Me., and Stephen J. McLeod of Washington, D.C.; and the bride's cousin, Duane Kihlquist of Missoula and Myron Pith of Helena.

The bride's gown was of white peas a' lunge and bodice and sleeves of Alençon lace. The heart-shaped neckline and sleeves were embroidered with seed pearls. Her cathedral train fell from a back bow. Her lace cap caught her tulle and veil. She wore a crescent of pearls, a gift from Mrs. George Campbell, on the shoulder of her gown; a diamond heart-shaped pendant, a gift from the bridegroom; a sapphire ring belonging to her great-grandmother; and carried a borrowed lace handkerchief and a cascade bouquet of gardenias, lilies of the valley and heather.

The reception and wedding dance was in the McLeod and Governor's Room of Hotel Florence. The bride was piped into the reception rooms by music played by Willard Wylie orchestra.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Rhoda Richardson, Mrs. Pearl Prinson, Mrs. J. Gray Edmiston, Mrs. A. A. Dodson, Mrs. George Chaffee, Mrs. H. D. Higgins, Mrs. Mor-
