LOUIE PARKER

POLSON — Funeral services for Louie Parker, 40, Proctor have been set for 11 a.m. Friday with requiem high mass at the Jocko Catholic Church and interment in the Jocko Cemetery.

Parker died early Tuesday morning at the Kalispell General Hospital from an abdominal gunshot wound from a 22 caliber rifle. Lake County authorities are continuing investigation of the shooting which Sheriff Bill Phillips says came at the hands of Parker's 14-year-old son defending his mother, Mrs. Mary Lou Parker, following a family altercation at the Parker home.

No action has yet been taken by Lake County Atty. Cal Christian. He feels whatever action is taken will be through juvenile court rather than open court. Working closely with Phillips and Christian in the investigation is John Corbett, head of law enforcement on the Flathead Reservation.
