Car Roll Kills Boy

CONRAD (AP) — A 18-year-old Conrad boy became the state's 170th highway fatality in 1971 early Sunday when his car left a gravel road six miles southwest of Conrad and rolled twice in the borrow pit.

The victim was identified as Russell W. Aakre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Aakre of Conrad.

Investigating authorities said the wreckage was noticed at about 7 a.m. by a passing motorist, who notified the Highway Patrol. The patrolman said the car apparently went headside into the ditch and rolled.

Aakre apparently was alone in the car. He would have been a junior at Conrad High School, where he was active in football and band, this fall.

Libby Baby Dies In Head-On Crash

BIG TIMBER (AP) — More than 1,000 highway deaths last year were on the state's main highways, but a four-month-old baby from Libby died in a head-on crash on the state's main highway.

Montana Highway Patrol officials identified the accident victims as Eugene T. Allen, 45, of Mullan, Tenn., and Sarah Cougiff, four months of Libby.

A spokesman for the patrol said the two died Saturday in a two-car accident on the east side of the Park County line in Sweet Grass County on U.S. 10.

The spokesman said an automobile driven by Walter Moore, also of Mullan, apparently went out of control on a patch of icy, slick highway and collided head-on with an automobile driven by Gerald Cougiff of Libby.

Hospitalized in Billings in undetermined condition were Moore and Edward Sims, also of Mullan. Cougiff's wife, Donna, was hospitalized in Big Timber in undetermined condition. Two other Cougiff children escaped injury.

The deaths boosted the state's fatality toll to 18 more than last year on this date. The toll, however, was two less than
