Find Man Dead In Apartment

Falloon County authorities are probing the death of Clement Holmquist, 21, 528 Second St. W. Neighbors called Kallispell police at 3 p.m. Monday reporting they thought he might have died.

Police responding to his apartment found him slumped across his bed. Coroner/Chief Curtis Snyder was called to assume jurisdiction. Snyder has ordered an autopsy to pinpoint the cause of death.

He said, "We know this man has a medical history and had been under a doctor's care. We feel fairly certain the death was from natural causes. We expect the autopsy to confirm those findings."

He was last seen alive about 11:30 a.m. by neighbors while he was preparing lunch. When he failed to reappear from his apartment, they became concerned.
