Former Kalspell Man Dies In Vietnam Crash

Sgt. Dean R. Isaacs, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Isaacs, Missoula, has been killed in Vietnam.

The former Kalspell resident was a passenger in an aircraft on a military mission which crashed and burned June 1 according to information furnished Isaacs by the adjutant general. Funeral services are to be in Kalspell with arrangements awaiting the arrival of the young soldier's body.

He was born March 24, 1949, in Kalspell and attended schools here through the seventh grade when the Isaacs family moved to Missoula. He graduated from Sentinel High School in 1968 and enlisted in the U.S. Army.

He was assigned to West Germany and then began three duty tours in Vietnam. The family has requested memorials to the Missoula Optimist Club's scholarship fund. They may be sent to Kenneth Heidecker at the Western Montana Bank, Missoula.

Isaacs is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Isaacs, Missoula; a sister, Mrs. Henry (Louise) Wolf, Kalspell; and a brother, Jack, flying home from military duty in Berlin for the funeral. He is also survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Isaacs of Kalspell, and Mrs. Sena Bringer, LaGrande, and a number of other relatives.
