Columbia Falls Man Hit, Killed On LaSalle Road

COLUMBIA FALLS — James Great Falls on the old Vaughn L. Ladenburg, 43, Columbia Falls, was killed in a Cascade County accident at 8:30 Sunday on LaSalle Road. His death was the third traffic fatality in the Columbia Falls area in less than a week. He was struck by a northbound vehicle operated by Mrs. Nadine Jean Renton, 30, Rt. 1, Libby, about half a mile south of Montana 40 and a quarter mile north of his home. According to the Montana Highway Patrol, the pedestrian was lying in the roadway. Mrs. Renton told officers she saw what appeared to be a man on the roadway. At that moment Ladenburg apparently sat up. Mrs. Renton attempted to stop the car and avoid striking the pedestrian.

His body came to rest under the vehicle. Ladenburg was pronounced dead at the scene. Deputy County Atty. Dean Jettison said it is possible there could be an inquest but a decision on that proceeding is still pending. Death was attributed to massive, multiple injuries. Ladenburg, son of a pioneer Flathead family, is survived by four children: five brothers, John and Martin, Columbia Falls; Tom, Bigfork, French, Tacoma, Wash., and Mike, Priestee, Ariz., and a sister in Washington. Funeral arrangements are being made at Van Loewen Funeral Home. Saturday Mrs. Palma Johnson, 53, Columbia Falls was killed in a car-truck crash at Columbia Heights. Mrs. Linda Martin was killed a week ago on LaSalle Road near Glacier Park International Airport. These other persons died over the weekend in Montana from traffic mishaps. Early Sunday morning, a young woman died in a car-pedestrian collision one mile west of

Swan Lake Girl Dies In Creek

POLSON — Laurie Lynn Lawrence, 6, of Swan Lake, was drowned Thursday afternoon when she fell off a foot bridge near her home into a baneful creek.

Lake County Sheriff Bill Phillips said the girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence, had crossed the footbridge, at her riding or pushing her tricycle. He said she had apparently gotten off the tricycle and walked back onto the bridge when she fell into the stream.

Her father found her body about 100 yards downstream, Phillips said.

He said there will be no inquest into the death.

East Glacier Woman Killed In Accident

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two Montana women, from Missoula and East Glacier, have died in traffic accidents over the weekend, bringing the 1971 toll for the state's roadways to 283.
Montana Highway Patrol officers identified the victims as Darlene Smith, 85, of Missoula and Lorreine Little, 27, of East Glacier.
A spokesman said Mr. Smith died Monday following a two-vehicle collision the previous day five miles west of Missoula on Mont. 890. He said the Smith vehicle was pulled over the highway from a side road when it collided with a pickup truck driven by Bob Manning of Great Falls.
Another woman in the vehicle, Florence Moore, 80, also of Missoula, was reported in serious condition in a Missoula hospital Sunday.
Missoula County acting Coroner John Bremer said an autopsy would be performed.
Patrolmen said the East Glacier woman died when she was struck by a vehicle driven by Don Hilding of Butte, who said he did not see her while passing another car.
The accident occurred late Saturday about two miles west of East Glacier on U.S. 2.
On this date last year 271 persons had died on the state's highways.

Lynde Larry C

18 Jul 1971 pg 1

Lake County authorities report success Friday in recovering the body of Larry C. Lynde, 28, Missoula. His body was spotted by two St. Ignace youths swimming in Mission Reservoir.

Sheriff Bill Phillips made the recovery with a casting line in 15 feet of water and about 50 feet out into the reservoir. He is believed to have drowned July 9 while on an outing with a group of young people.

Phillips said a follow up investigation is being continued to ascertain the exact date. There had been reports Lynde, a Vietnam veteran, had been seen in Missoula on July 8. Phillips says there is no indication whatever of foul play but he is working with Flathead Tribal Police and the FBI in pinpointing the exact time.

Funeral services for Lynde will be at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Ignace Catholic Church with the Rev. Edmund Robinson officiating. Interment will be in St. Ignace Catholic Cemetery with military graveside rites.
