Phillips John

11 Oct 1971 pg 1

MISSOULA (AP) — A Whitefish man was killed and two Missoula men injured Sunday when their four-wheeled drive vehicle rolled on a forest trail about three air miles south of Missoula in Lolo National Forest.

Missoula County officials identified the man as John Phillips, 19, of Whitefish.

The two injured men, reported in good condition at a Missoula hospital, were James Lee Miller, 20, and Leroy H. Fox, 22, the driver of the pickup truck.

Missoula County sheriff's deputies said the truck was going up a slide trail that was apparently too steep for it to maneuver. The driver attempted to turn and the truck rolled over, throwing the Whitefish man out.

All three were University of Montana students.
