TROY - David Ole Satermo, and Satermo was utilizing the headlights of her car while driving in the Troy-Tank area, chasing up his vehicle. However, she was killed when struck by a heavy snow had apparently stalled. Satermo observed the tail light of her vehicle. The death, Lincoln County's 14th of the year, occurred about an hour west of Troy at about 10 miles on the foot of Tank Hill.

The Montana Highway Patrol did not see the two standing vehicles until the last moment because of the driving snow and do not foresee any necessity for an inquiry. Following the crash, the truck driver tried to pull out to pass the two standing cars, overturned spilling its load on U.S. 2. It was bound for Lincoln County. There have been 14 road deaths in Lincoln County, 18 in Park County and 21 in Lake County since the 1971. Both Lake and Lincoln counties have new all-time highway fatality records.
