O V Isaacs, 82

O V Isaacs, 82, a former resident of Kalispell, died Thursday in a Ukiah, Cal. hospital.

Mr. Isaacs was born April 26, 1893 in Downing, Mo. He moved with his parents to Kalispell in 1901 and attended local schools. On March 5, 1914 he was married to Grace Savage in Kalispell and is now survived by her at the home in Lakeport, Cal.

In his early life, Mr. Isaacs was in the sawmill business with his father and brothers. In 1929 he purchased a ranch west of Kalispell at Brown's Meadows and lived there until 1944, when they moved to California. He also was engaged in millwrighting there and constructed two sawmills near Porterville, Calif.

In 1949 Mr. Isaacs purchased the City Cab Co. of Turlock, Calif., and operated it with his son Merle until 1952. He retired in 1959 and moved to Lakeport, Calif. and had resided there since that time.

Mr. Isaacs was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Kelseville, Calif. and the Senior Citizens of Lakeport.

Surviving, besides his widow, are three daughters, Mrs. Laurence (Opal) Loveless, Polson, Mrs. Bob (Shirley) Slayden, Lakeport, and Ruth Foy, Kalispell; two brothers, Otha and Orle Isaacs, both of Kalispell; a sister, Mrs. Opal Brown, Missoula; 4 grandsons and 3 great-grandsons. His son Merle died in July of 1957.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. John L. Dutzar, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Polson, officiating. Burial will follow in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.
