

Alma K. Fauley, 85

OCT. 18 1986

POLSON — Alma K. Fauley, 85, died Thursday at her home in Polson.

She was a lifelong resident of Montana, born on Sept. 7, 1901, in Arlee, to John and Elise Kiernan. As a young girl, she worked in Glacier National Park for the Glacier Park Hotel Co. at the Sun Camp chalets on St. Mary's Lake.

She was educated at the St. Ignatius Ursuline Convent in St. Ignatius, and later attended a Misoula business school.

In 1929, she married Francis X. Guardipee of Browning, a member of the Blackfeet Tribe, who served as a Glacier National Park ranger from 1932-1947. After Mr. Guardipee's retirement, the couple resided in Browning until his death in 1970.

In 1974, she married Clyde C. Fauley, who was also an early-day Glacier Park ranger from 1922-1938. They made their home in the Polson area since 1981.

She was a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Polson and the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribe.

Survivors include her husband, Clyde Fauley of the family home in Polson; a son, Francis X. Guardipee Jr. of Gloucester Point, Va.; a brother, James Gird of Spokane, Wash.; four grandchildren; four stepgrandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Christian Wake Service will be held at 7:30 tonight at Mosley Funeral Chapel in Polson.

Mass of the Resurrection will be held 2 p.m. Tuesday in Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Polson with the Rev. Bruce Plummer and the Rev. Leonard Jensen as concelebrants.

Burial will take place in St. Ignatius Cemetery in St. Ignatius at 11 a.m. Thursday.

John Fedor, 40

20 DEC 2 1986
John Jack Thomas Fedor, 40, died at his home in Kalispell on Dec. 20. He moved to the Flathead Valley about four years ago and was employed in construction work.

He was born May 26, 1946, in Greenwich, Conn., a son of Joseph and Isabel Fedor. He was educated in Southern California and served two tours of duty with the U.S. Navy in Vietnam. He then received practical nurse training in Elko, Nev.

He was preceded in death by his father, and is now survived by his mother, Isabel Hutchinson of Kalispell; four brothers, Joseph of Marion, James of Bozeman, Jerry of Marion, and Jeffery of Manchester, Conn.; and several nieces and nephews.

Cremation has taken place and no public services are being planned. Private burial of ashes will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary. 26 Dec. 1986 - Interlake

30 Apr 1986

Thomas Feenan, 69

Thomas M. Feenan, 69, Columbia Falls, died Wednesday at North Valley Extended Care.

He was born Sept. 29, 1916, in Columbia Falls to Frank and Nora Feenan. He was raised and educated in Columbia Falls.

He enlisted in the National Guard in September 1940 and later served in the Army during World War II, where he served on a patrol boat in the Alaskan waters. After his discharge in 1945, he returned to Columbia Falls, where he worked on the family farm for many years.

He managed the Montana State Liquor Store in Columbia Falls from 1969 to 1979.

He was a life member of the VFW Post 5650 in Columbia Falls.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, William, Frederick and John.

Survivors include a brother, Bob Feenan of Columbia Falls; a sister, Mary Cavanaugh of Englewood, Colo.; one nephew and three nieces.

A rosary will be recited at 7:30 tonight at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Richards Catholic Church in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Bernard Sullivan officiating. Burial will follow in St. Richards Catholic Cemetery with military graveside honors.

28 Dec 1986

Frank Feist, 76

LIBBY — Frank T. Feist, 76, of Libby, died of natural causes Wednesday in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Fort Harrison.

A self-employed woods worker, he had made his home first in Troy, then in Libby, since settling in Lincoln County in 1960.

He was born Oct. 3, 1910, in Browerville, Minn., to Frank and Antonia Feist. He was reared in Minnesota and Montana, and had lived in Chester and Chinook.

In the 1940s, he first came to Lincoln County, but then returned to eastern Montana for a time.

He was served in the U.S. Army during World War II, and was a member of the Disabled American Veterans.

He married Dorothy Daniels in November 1960 in Sandpoint, Idaho, and is survived by her. Also surviving are three stepdaughters, Pat Kenworthy, Helena, Nancy Schikora, Libby, and Betty Decheine, New Brighton, Minn.; a stepson, Joseph Daniels, Libby; a sister, Colleen Bertzyk, Wautoma, Wis.; nine nephews; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home in Libby, with the Rev. Charles Roman officiating. Burial with military honors will follow at the City of Libby Cemetery.

Horace Feezell

31 - A49 - 1986

Horace Feezell died Sunday, August 31, 1986, in Great Falls' Columbus Hospital.

He was 81.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Sept. 3, in the First Methodist Church with Pastor Ira Robison officiating. Music was provided by Cory Carlson and Irene Smith. Burial was in Highland Cemetery with Bell Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Serving as pallbearers were Rick Stellflug, L. O. Honrud, Courtney Carlson, Mark Fauth, Clarence Fuhrman and O. E. Markle.

He was born October 22, 1904 in Wildwood, Tennessee, the son of Sam and Maude Feezell.

Horace, along with his family moved to Montana in 1913 to the Opheim area near the Baylor community where his family farmed. In 1931 Horace married Gerda Asleson and they moved to Phoenix, Ariz., where he managed a gas station. They returned to the Opheim area where he again farmed and then in 1934 he began delivering mail from Opheim to Avondale and back. He bought a 700 acre ranch that he worked till 1958 at which time he bought another place and worked it until his retirement in 1985. He and Gerda moved into Glasgow at that time. He and Gerda would have been married 56 years next month. He was a member of the Masonic Blue Lodge for over 50 years, being past master of the Northern Border Lodge in Opheim.

He married Gerda Asleson on October 22, 1931.

Survivors include his widow, Gerda, of Glasgow; two grandsons, Don and Sam Feezell of Glasgow; eight great-grandchildren; and one sister, Dixie Jennings of Glasgow.

He was preceded in death by one son, Sam Feezell in 1986 and one grandson, Jerry Feezell in 1979.

Violet J. Fiman

23 Dec 1986
Violet J. Fiman, Whitefish, died Tuesday at North Valley Hospital.

She was born in Searles, N.D. to William and Katherine Friske and moved to Montana at an early age.

She married Stanley Fiman in 1925 in Polson and the couple moved to Spokane, where they lived for more than 20 years.

Mr. Fiman died in 1965.

Mrs. Fiman returned to Montana and had lived in Whitefish for the past 21 years. She was an honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi and a member of the Holy Nativity Episcopal Church in Whitefish.

She is survived by one daughter, Lorraine Bronson of Whitefish; two brothers, Willis Friske of Rolla, N.D., and Herbert Friske of Rollins; three sisters, Pearl Winter of Payson, Ariz., Margaret Gwinn of Polson, and Min Wilson of Kent, Wash. She was preceded in death by two brothers.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Holy Nativity

Episcopal Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Wendell R. Phillips officiating. Burial will be at Whitefish City Cemetery under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. There will be no public visitation.

Memorials to Holy Nativity Episcopal Church are suggested.

Phillip Fisher 65

2 Apr 1986
TROY — Phillip Fisher, 65, Troy, died of respiratory failure Wednesday at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born July 7, 1920, in Kalispell to Henry and Mabel Fisher. He spent most of his early life in the Flathead Valley, having been reared and educated in Columbia Falls.

He enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1942 and served during World War II in the Pacific theater. Following his honorable discharge in 1945 he returned to Montana.

Mr. Fisher worked in lumber camps in Rexford and was employed by the J. Neils Lumber Co., later St. Regis Paper Co., for many years. He retired in 1981. He had made his home in Troy for the past 16 years.

He was an avid hunter and fisherman, and was a member of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union and the American Legion. He also was a life member and past commander of John E. Freeman VFW Post 5514, and a life member of the Libby Trap Club.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters.

He married Joyce Filiatreau McCully on March 18, 1952, in Missoula, and is survived by her at the family home in Troy. Also surviving are two sons, Phil and Bill Fisher, both of Troy; three stepsons, Charles McCully, Ocoee, Fla., Vernon "Jumbo" McCully, Libby, and Sam McCully, Troy; a stepdaughter, Frances Stanton, Troy; two brothers, Fred and Harry Fisher, both of Libby; two sisters, Ida "Ike" Gehring and Margaret Miller, both of Libby; 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at the Troy Church of God with the Rev. Gene Bushnell officiating. Burial with military honors will be at Milnor Lake Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

G.A. Fitzpatrick, 89

George Arlin Fitzpatrick, 89, died Thursday morning in Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls where he had resided for a number of years.

He was born June 11, 1897, in Butte, a son of Henry A. and Jennie L. Fitzpatrick. He received his education in Butte and graduated from high school there.

He served in the Army during World War I.

He returned to Butte and spent his life working as a mine shaft man for the Anaconda Co.

He was a member of World War I Barracks 679.

On Jan. 6, 1937, he married Mona Richardson in Helena and she survives him.

11 Sept 1986

He is also survived by two sons, Kenneth Fitzpatrick of Tooele, Utah, and Raymond Fitzpatrick of Butte; two sisters, Laura Nelson of Butte and Marian Abbott of Kalispell; seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be 2:30 p.m. Saturday in Montana Veterans Home Chapel in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Howard Hunter of United Methodist Church of Columbia Falls officiating. Burial of remains will follow in the Montana Veterans Home Cemetery where military honors will be conducted by local veterans organizations.

Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

5 Aug 1982
K. Fitzpatrick, 75

Kenneth L. Fitzpatrick, 75, died Tuesday evening in Immanuel Lutheran Home where he had resided since September 1979.

He was born June 12, 1911, in Sourlake, Texas, a son of John and Jennie Fitzpatrick. He moved to various places with his family working in the oil fields. When he was 10 years old, he moved to Parkerton, Wyo., where he received his education, and following his high school years, he began work in the oil fields.

On June 22, 1933, he married Wilma Mae Goff. In 1934, they moved to Montana and Mr. Fitzpatrick retired from oil-field work in 1974.

He enjoyed fishing, golfing and dancing, both square and round dances.

He attended the Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Wilma, of Tucson, Ariz.; two sons, Adrian Fitzpatrick of Redding, Calif., and Bernard Fitzpatrick of Cut Bank; five grandsons and several other relatives.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Monday in Immanuel Lutheran Home Chapel with the Rev. Marshall Moen, chaplain, officiating.

The family suggests memorials to Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Lauretta Flagg, 90

29 Oct 1986
Lauretta Alice Flagg, 90, Kalispell, died in Brendan House Tuesday morning.

She was born Feb. 14, 1896, in Pine City, Wash., a daughter of John C. and Emma R.

Bodinus Biggs. When she was 8, she moved to Canada for a time, returning to Spokane, Wash., where she completed her schooling. She was a graduate of Kinman Business College there.

She then trained in Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane before moving to Casper, Wyo., to work.

In 1925, she married William M. Wise in Casper, where they lived until moving to Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. Wise died in 1946, and she moved to Flathead area and established a dressmaking shop which she operated for a number of years.

On Dec. 23, 1948, she married Fred A. Flagg and they made their home in Kalispell.

Mrs. Flagg was preceded in death by her husband, Fred, on March 8, 1980; three brothers, three sisters, and two stepdaughters.

Survivors include a son, Bill Wise of Kalispell; three stepsons, Fred and Stan Flagg, both of Kalispell, and Bob Flagg of Sacramento, Calif.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Don (Margaret) Kramer of Sandpoint, Idaho; two brothers, Henry Biggs of St. Ignatius, and Walter Biggs of Spokane, Wash.; 25 grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be 1:30 p.m. Friday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. H. Peder Waldum officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for services.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until Friday noon.

The family suggests memorials to Brendan House.

Myrtle Flanagan, 78

Myrtle Flanagan, 78, died of natural causes Monday morning at Colonial Manor.

She was born Dec. 6, 1907, in South Dakota, a daughter of William H. and Mary Shearson.

She was a former resident of Lewistown and for the past 12 years resided at Colonial Manor.

Survivors include two sisters, Helen Fogle of Seattle, Wash., and Lucille Hildahl of Puyallup, Wash.

Graveside services will be 9:30 a.m. Friday at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Jack Hunthausen of St. Charles Catholic Church of Whitefish will officiate.

Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish is in charge of local arrangements.

2 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

Don Flowers, 72

16 Jan 1986
Don M. Flowers, 72, died Thursday evening at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Dec. 24, 1913, in Corning, Iowa, to Clinton D. and Myrtle O. Flowers. He grew up in Corning and worked in a drug store there. During World War II, he served in the Army.

He worked as a pharmacist in California for several years, and later moved to Salt Lake City, where he worked for the Kennecott Copper Co. He also worked for the Home Owners Emporium in Los Angeles, and later as a salesman for Hawk Electric in Great Falls.

After his retirement he moved to Whitefish, and since 1984 had lived at the Montana Veterans Home.

Surviving are two brothers, Ira, in Corning, and Ora, in Creston, Iowa. Two other brothers preceded him in death.

A graveside service will be conducted Monday at 10 a.m. at the Montana Veterans Home Cemetery in Columbia Falls with military graveside honors. Lt. Bill Hathorn of the Salvation Army in Kalispell will officiate. Friends may meet at the cemetery for services. Visitation is today, 1-5 p.m., at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

Ray Fleming, 62

^{21 Mar. 1986}
BUTTE — Ray Fleming, 62, a former Kalispell resident, died Friday in the Butte hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Butte Feb. 9, 1924, to Harold and Mable Fleming. He attended Grant School and Butte High School, and was a outstanding football and track competitor.

He served in the Marine Corps during World War II, and had lived in Bozeman and then in Kalispell until recently returning to Butte. He enjoyed golfing and belonged to the Butte Elks Lodge and the Butte Bartenders Union.

He married Margaret Walsh in Butte on Aug. 2, 1947.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret; two sons, Pat Fleming of Rochester, N. Y., and the Rev. Raymond Fleming of Butte; a sister Hazel Mooney of Butte; and one grandson, Patrick Fleming of Butte.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Harold "Bud" Fleming.

Mass of the Resurrection will be Tuesday, at 11 a.m. in St. Ann Church of Butte with his son, the Rev. Raymond Fleming, as celebrant. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Butte.

Memorials to the Butte Central Catholic Education Fund are suggested.

Duggan Dolan Mortuary of Butte is in charge of arrangements.

Lloyd E. Flesjer

^{28 Mar. 1986}
Lloyd E. "Slim" Flesjer, 78, died Friday, March 28 at his son Lorin's home in Glendive, Montana. Services were held on Tuesday, April 1, at the First Lutheran Church with Pastor Robert Nilsen officiating. Vocalist was Joe Goulet and organist was Marge Thogersen. Pallbearers were Harold Eide, Perry Jon Kolstad, Robert Molvig, Floyd Nelson Jr., John Kirkland, and Dr. Paul Melvin. Burial was in the Highland Cemetery and Bell Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

He was born in Halstad, Minnesota, the son of Bernhard and Mamie Flesjer. He moved with his parents to Medicine Lake at an early age and later to Grenora, North Dakota, where he attended school. He worked for the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) and then moved to Fort Peck where he owned and operated a service station. While at Fort Peck he sponsored a bowling team. He then served in the Army in World War II.

On May 20, 1943 he married Gladys Stensland in Glasgow. They lived in Bellevue, Washington and Kalispell before returning to Valley County in 1952.

He was a former Valley County farmer and also worked for the Valley County Road Department. He was a member of the Tampico Farmers Union Local for several years. He was a member of the First Lutheran Church in Glasgow and Glasgow Senior Citizens. In 1959 he went to work for the Civil Service working at the Glasgow Air Force Base and in 1968 worked at the Radar Base in Somers. He retired in 1970 and then drove school bus for the Glasgow School System for several years.

He enjoyed hunting, bowling, playing whist with his freinds, playing in whist tournaments, and playing pinochle with his family.

Survivors include his widow, Gladys; two sons, Gail L. (wife Edina, and daughters Taryn and Darci) and Lorin L. (wife Lilla, and daughter Lisa and son Larry), all of Glendive. Five sisters, Thelma Sonstegaard and Hazel Schwope, both of Apache Junction, Arizona; Grace Larson of North Bend, Washington, Marjorie Grodt, Bellevue, Washington, and Lucille Murphree of Van Nuys, California; and four grandchildren. Lloyd was preceded in death by his parents, Bernard and Mamie (Larson) Flesjer and one sister, Olive Melvin.

Relatives and friends attend funeral

¹⁹⁸⁶
Relatives and friends coming from a distance for the April 1 funeral of Lloyd E. "Slim" Flesjer were Marjorie Grodt, Bellevue, Wash. and Grace Larson, North Bend, Wash., sisters; Mr. and Mrs. Mason Melvin, Great Falls, Mt., brother-in-law; Mrs. Rollin Pederson, Billings, Mt., neice; Dr. and Mrs. Paul Melvin, Great Falls, Mt. nephew; Mr. and Mrs. Engvald Stensland and

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Matteru, all of Mohall, N.D., relatives of Gladys; and close friends: Mr. and Mrs. Elden Jones, Lewistown, Mt.; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Grimsrud, Colstrip, Mt.; Mr. and Mrs. John Krause, Bill Fouche, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thogersen, Sidney, Mt.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goulet, Malta, Mt.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meyers, Glendive, Mt.; and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Arnold, Hinsdale, Mt.

Obituary 2 Oct. 1986 Sanders C. L.

Marie Flores

ST. IGNATIUS--Rosary was recited Monday evening and Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Tuesday at the St. Ignatius Catholic Church for Marie Antoinette Flores, 46, of St. Ignatius, who died Thursday at the University Hospital in Seattle of cancer. Interment was in the St. Ignatius Catholic Cemetery.

Mrs. Flores was born April 20, 1940 in St. Ignatius to Anthony and Clara Plant. She attended the Ursuline Academy in St. Ignatius.

In July 1964, she married William Flores in Hamilton. They were later divorced.

She was accomplished in traditional beadwork and enjoyed sewing.

Surviving are three sons, Jay Flores,

Omak, Wash., and Billy and Frankie Flores, both of Spokane; three daughters, Sharlene Day, Spokane, Connie Flores, Brewster, Wash. and Karyn McClung, Omak; four brothers, Jack, Chuck and Albert Plant, all of Arlee, and Joe Plant, Orondo, Wash.; three sisters, Glenrose Bird, St. Ignatius, Vickie Fisher, Hot Springs, and Darlene Flores, Okanogan, Wash.; seven grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews and her companion, Jerry Martin of Seattle.

Pall bearers were Danny Vollin, Floyd Nicola, Clark Matt, Francis Stanger, Bud Barnaby and Charles "Scottie" Gardopee. Honorary pallbearers were Brandley Brazil and Gordon Songer.

J.C. Foote, 35

J.C. Foote, 35, of Libby, died Thursday as a result of a two-car accident near Happy's Inn.

He worked in the woods as a sawyer and later in construction. At the time of his death, he was a gypo logger in the Libby area.

He was born June 26, 1951, at Tensed, Idaho, to Joe and Rose Foote. He came to Libby as a young child and graduated from Libby High School in 1969.

He married Donna Shuck Dec. 7, 1968, at Libby. He is survived by her at the family home, along with a son, Ricky, and a daughter, Melissa. He is also survived by his parents, Joe and Rose Foote of Libby; two brothers, Rocky Foote of Florida and Bill Foote of Libby; and his grandparents, Bill and Rhoda Kyle of St. Maries, Idaho.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at the Vial Funeral Home in Libby, with the Rev. Michael Flannery officiating. Burial will follow in the City of Libby Cemetery.

Etta A. Fox, 80

Etta A. Fox, 80, died Wednesday morning at Immanuel Lutheran Home where she had resided since 1979.

She had worked as a camp cook in the South Fork with her husband until 1969, and also had cooked for other outfitters in the Bob Marshall Wilderness Area.

She was born Dec. 19, 1906, in Somers, a daughter of Carl and Ingaborg Anderson.

In 1926, she married Russell T. Fox, and was preceded in death by him in 1969. She also was preceded in death by a son, Gene, in 1983, and one brother.

She is survived by a son, Rodney Fox of Swan Lake; two sisters, Helen Brist and Anna Harmon, both of Missoula; three brothers, Vernon and Mark Anderson, both of Milltown, and Arthur Anderson of Condon; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday in Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Ron Pierce of Swan Chapel officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

The family suggests memorials to Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Vesta May Flynn

15 MAY 86

Vesta May Flynn died Monday, May 12, 1986 in Valley View Nursing Home.

She was 80.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, May 15 at 2 p.m. in Burns Funeral Home in Shelby. Burial will be in Mountain View Cemetery in Shelby with Burns Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

She was born in Westgate, Iowa on May 15, 1905, the daughter of Robert Walker and Alice Emma Lickiss.

She homesteaded in Montana with her parents at an early age. They later moved to Alberta, Canada to homestead.

On December 26, 1923 in Lethbridge, Alberta, she married John Henry Flynn, Sr. He died in 1965.

They moved to Montana and lived in Sweetgrass Hills, Oilmont and then in Shelby in 1944 where she resided for many years before moving to Glasgow two years ago to the Valley View Home.

Survivors include two sons, Brice William Flynn of Sequim, Wash., and Joseph Sidney Flynn of Vaughn; two daughters, Irene Luella Flynn and Mrs. Robert (Dorothy) Speer of Glasgow; two sisters, Esther Clark, of Choteau, and Myrtle Chevalier of Dutton; three brothers, Ray Lickiss, Gordon Lickiss and Newton Lickiss of Alberta; 18 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

22-OCT-1986
SIGURD FORSETH 1986

Sigurd J. Forseth, 94, died in Immanuel Lutheran Home on October 22. He was born May 13, 1892 in Fiedstad, Norway, a son of Christian and Agneth Forseth. In 1906 his family moved to Minnesota and then Montana. In 1930 he married Edith Jorgenson in Dunkirk, MT. They ranched in the Sweet Grass Hills area, lived in Galata, and then moved to Kalispell in 1970. He was a resident of ILH for the past eight years.

Survivors include two sons, Robert of Fairfield, MT and Cliff of Portland, OR; one daughter Evelyn Sutton, Kalispell; a sister, Magnhild Jeppesen, Shelby; fifteen grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Edith, in 1984.

Funeral services were held October 25 in St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Shelby, with burial in Shelby Cemetery. Local arrangements were by Johnson Mortuary.

Maurice F. Funk

6-JULY-86

Maurice F. Funk, 63, who was born in Malta and worked at Fort Peck died July 6, 1986 at Long Branch, N.J.

A Requiem Eucharist was conducted at St. James' Memorial Church, Eatontown, N.J. on July 10. Funeral services were conducted July 12 at Adams Memorial Chapel in Malta with the Rev. John Sexton of St. Mary's Catholic Church officiating. Burial was in the Malta Cemetery.

Funk was born March 25, 1923 in Malta. He married Clarice Hanson on Aug. 20, 1956 at Baltimore, Md.

He was educated in Malta and at Montana State University in Bozeman. He was employed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers as an electrical engineer. He worked in Fort Peck, Baltimore, Iran, Italy, Japan, the Republic of Korea, Okinawa, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Eatontown, N.J., where he resided for the past 11 years.

Funk is survived by his widow of Eatontown; a brother, Owen Funk of Hinsdale; a sister, Joan Schanzabach of Spearfish, S.D.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Frank Feist, 76

^{34 Dec 1986}
LIBBY - Frank T. Feist, 76, of Libby, died of natural causes Wednesday in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Fort Harrison.

A self-employed woods worker, he had made his home first in Troy, then in Libby, since settling in Lincoln County in 1960.

He was born Oct. 3, 1910, in Browerville, Minn., to Frank and Antonia Feist. He was reared in Minnesota and Montana, and had lived in Chester and Chinook.

In the 1940s, he first came to Lincoln County, but then returned to eastern Montana for a time.

He was served in the U.S. Army during World War II, and was a member of the Disabled American Veterans.

He married Dorothy Daniels in November 1960 in Sandpoint, Idaho, and is survived by her. Also surviving are three stepdaughters, Pat Kenworthy, Helena; Nancy Schikora, Libby; and Betty Decheine, New Brighton, Minn.; a stepson, Joseph Daniels, Libby; a sister, Colleen Bertzyk, Wautoma, Wis.; nine nephews; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home in Libby, with the Rev. Charles Roman officiating. Burial with military honors will follow at the City of Libby Cemetery.

16 Oct. 1986

Sanders Co Ledger

Mae A. Fifield

CORVALLIS - Funeral services were to be conducted Wednesday morning at the Daly-Leach chapel in Hamilton for Mae A. Fifield, 96, of Corvallis who died Monday of natural causes in the Marcus Daly Memorial Hospital in Hamilton. Pastor Richard Kiessling officiated and burial was to follow in the Riverview Cemetery.

Mrs. Fifield was born May 17, 1890 in Milford, Iowa to Irvin and Margaret Rafenberger Fifield. She received her primary education in Iowa and then moved to Valley City, N.D. She earned a teaching certificate in Valley City and was graduated from the University of Montana with a degree in education.

For most of her 45-year teaching career, Miss Fifield taught primary education in the Miles City schools. She retired in 1961 and moved to Corvallis in 1967 to be near her family.

She was a charter member of the Miles City Methodist Church and attended Corvallis Methodist Church. She belonged to the Corvallis Woman's Club and was a member and former treasurer of the Retired Teacher's Assn. She was known for her skill at crocheting and knitting.

Survivors include three nieces, Marie Clements, Lakeside; Lois Brown, Darby; and Mildred Mathew, Trout Creek; and two nephews, Charles Fifield, Darby, and Louis Fifield, Great Falls.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Edgar; a niece and two nephews.

The family has suggested memorials to the Corvallis Methodist Church or the Hamilton Library Building Fund, 306 State Street., Hamilton 59840.

Lucile M. Foot, 64

^{26 Jan 1986}
POLSON - Lucile M. "Lucy" Mahan Foot, 64, died Sunday of cancer at St. Joseph Hospital in Polson.

She was born April 8, 1921, in Bozeman, to John W. Mahan Sr. and Iola Morgan Mahan. She graduated from Helena High in 1938 and attended Montana State University, where she was the first third-generation student to graduate from MSU. Her grandfather, Oliver P. Morgan, had been with the first graduating class.

In 1942, she married Loren Foot in St. Peter's Episcopal Cathedral in Helena. The couple moved to Polson in 1978 after living in Seattle, Anchorage, Oklahoma City, Indianapolis, Alexandria, Va., Minneapolis, Great Falls, and Eureka.

She was preceded in death by her father; her brother, Tom; and a grandson, Cameron York.

She was a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority, Daughters of the Nile, a life member of the VFW Auxiliary, a life member of the DAV Auxiliary and a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Survivors include her mother,

Iola; Helena; a brother, John W. Mahan Jr.; Helena; her husband, the Rev. Loren Foot, Polson; two daughters, Corey York, Kalispell, and Sharon Payne, Wayne, Pa.; a son, Michael Foot, Albuquerque, N.M.; and several grandchildren.

A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Polson with the Rev. James Reeves and the Right Rev. Jackson Gillam officiating. Cremation will precede the services and ashes will repose in the church columbarium.

At the request of Mrs. Foot, memorials are suggested to the American Cancer Society or St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, P.O. Box 1112, Polson 59860.

Arrangements are by Mosley Funeral Home in Polson.

30 Sept 1986
Alene Ford, 81

Alene Ford, 81, Kalispell, died Monday in Immanuel Lutheran Home.

She was born June 25, 1905, in Kalispell, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Cutler. She attended local schools and was a 1924 graduate of Flathead County High School.

On Nov. 11, 1924, she married James Marion Ford in Kalispell. Mr. Ford became the business manager and co-owner of Miller-Ford Electric. During World War II the couple worked in the war industries in Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Ford was a soloist and sang in the choirs at Bethlehem Lutheran Church and Central Christian Church.

She was a member of the Hospital Volunteers, Study Club and was a Red Cross volunteer.

She belonged to several bridge clubs and enjoyed golfing.

Following the retirement of Mr. Ford in 1969, the couple spent their winters at their home in Apache Wells, Ariz., and their summers at their summer home on Swan Lake. They spent winters in Arizona until Mrs. Ford suffered a stroke in April 1981.

Since then they had stayed in the apartment in uptown Kalispell. In August after a hospital stay, she stayed first at Brendan House, then at Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Mrs. Ford is survived by her husband, Marion, at home; a son, Robert "Bob" Ford of Kalispell; a brother, Erwin Cutler of Bigfork; two grandsons, David Ford of Kalispell and Rob Ford of Des Moines, Wash.

She was preceded in death by a brother, David Cutler.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Thursday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Eugene Mockabee of Central Christian Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

25 July 1986
Fredrick Forkin, 40

Fredrick W. Forkin, 40, formerly of Columbia Falls, died Monday morning in Helena.

He was born Oct. 13, 1945, in Great Falls, to James and Doris Forkin. He was raised and educated in Martinsdale and Columbia Falls. He graduated from high school in Columbia Falls and attended Northern Montana College. He graduated from Helena Vo Tech in automotive mechanics. He also took courses from Carroll College in Helena and Flathead Valley Community College.

He worked in the maintenance department at Carroll College for a time and then worked for Mountain Bell until 1980 where he retired due to ill health.

He was an avid sports fan.

He was preceded in death by his father in 1974 and a sister in 1963.

Survivors include his mother, Doris Forkin in Columbia Falls; three aunts; one uncle; and several cousins.

A rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Thursday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Mass of the Resurrection will be 11 a.m. Friday at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. Burial will be in St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery. The Rev. Bernard Sullivan will officiate.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday at Van Leuven Funeral Home.

The family suggests memorials to the Montana Heart Association, 435 Second St. W., Kalispell, or to the charity of the donor's choice.

20 Feb 1986
Marlow Foy, 59

Marlow E. Foy, 59, of Kalispell, died Thursday afternoon of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was a contract log hauler for 27 years and had raised horses since the mid-1970s.

He was born Oct. 23, 1926, in Kalispell, the son of Leslie and Twila Daley Foy. He was raised in Kalispell, graduating from Flathead High School in 1945. He served in the U.S. Navy at the end of World War II, and then attended the University of Montana in Missoula. He lived the rest of his life in the Kalispell area.

He was interested in sports, and coached the FHS tennis team for six years.

He married Myrna Myron in October of 1953 and she survives him at the family home. Also surviving are a daughter, Darby Foy of Lander, Wyo.; three brothers, Bus Foy, Virgil Foy, and Leslie Foy, Jr., all of Kalispell; and a number of other relatives.

The family will conduct private memorial services. Arrangements and cremation were by the Weatherford Funeral Home in Kalispell.

16 Mar 1986
Gayle Franklin, 39

Gayle Franklin, 39, Kalispell, died Sunday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital. She had run her own childcare business on Kalispell's west side for the last 15 years.

She was born June 1, 1946, in Missoula, the daughter of Jack and Bernice Lee. She grew up in the Seeley Lake area and attended Missoula County High School.

On June 27, 1963, she married Terry Franklin in Wallace, Idaho. The couple lived in Seeley Lake and Hot Springs until coming to Kalispell about 15 years ago.

Survivors include her husband, Terry, at the family home; five sons, Rick of Cascade, and Marty, Brad, Jason and Steven, all at the family home; two daughters, Patti and Heidi Jo Franklin, both at the family home; a granddaughter; her mother, Bernice Bishop of Stevensville; three brothers, David Lee of Vancouver, Wash., Harris and Morgan Lee, both of Missoula; four sisters, Beverly Steele and Tami Lee of Stevensville, Teri Iverson of Sunburst, and Sheri Evans of Charlo; and a number of other relatives.

The family will receive friends at Weatherford Funeral Home on Tuesday from 6-8 p.m. Graveside funeral services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

24 Sept. 1986 - 1st/1st/1st

Charles Frach, 73

Charles P. Frach, 73, Kalispell, died Monday evening in Kalispell.

He was born Jan. 27, 1913, in Nashua, a son of Phillip C. and Elizabeth Frach. He received his education in local schools and was a 1932 graduate of Flathead County High School.

On Jan. 27, 1933, he married Margaret Curtis in Kalispell and was preceded in death by her on July 6, 1968.

Mr. Frach served with the National Guard. On April 20, 1945, he enlisted in the U.S. Army at Fort Douglas, Utah. He served in the South Pacific until receiving his honorable discharge on June 25, 1946, at Fort Lewis, Wash.

He worked at the Coca Cola plant for a time before operating the North Side Texaco Station. He then operated the Frach & Son Conoco Station on Idaho Street until selling to E.Q. Muffler in 1976. He was then employed with Roy Stanley Chevrolet for a short time and was distributor for Val Con at the time of his death.

He was a member of Kalispell Trinity Lodge No. 152 AF&AM; Kalispell Lions Club; Kalispell Eagles Lodge, and several other groups.

He was a square dance caller for a number of years.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Robert, and a sister, Alice Wisler.

On Feb. 23, 1973, he married Dorothy M. Taylor in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and is now survived by her.

He is also survived by a son, Dr. James P. Frach of Morrilton, Ark.; a daughter, Mrs. Norman (Carole) Willis of Montesano, Wash.; four stepchildren, Ernie Turner of Farmington, Minn., Sharon Miller of Dallas, Texas, and Betty Steger and Diana Bradley, both of Kalispell; a sister, Anna Crall of Kalispell; eight grandchildren, several great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Friday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

30 July 1986
M. Fredrickson, 92

Minnie I. Fredrickson, 92, died Wednesday evening in Flathead County Nursing Home where she had resided for a number of years.

She was born Sept. 7, 1893, in Hendrum, Minn., a daughter of Edward and Maria Iverson. When she was 12 years old she moved with her family to Bottineau, N.D., where she lived for a number of years. She later moved to Glasgow.

On Feb. 26, 1914, she married Oscar E. Fredrickson in Canada. In the 1950s she moved to the Flathead Valley and had lived here since that time.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Oscar, and a son, Myron.

Survivors include a son, Carl Fredrickson of Kalispell; two daughters, Edna Kappahn of Reno, Nev., and Dorothy Franzen of Deer Lodge; 16 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be 3 p.m. Monday in Lonestone Cemetery with the Rev. Kenneth Mottram of First Baptist Church officiating. Friends will meet at cemetery for the services. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Hope Freeman, 72

Hope Ilene Freeman, 72, Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Sunday evening.

She was born July 26, 1914, in Calderwood, Mich., a daughter of George and Beryl Kimes. As a child she moved with her family to Idaho, where she received her education. In 1928, she moved to Kila.

On May 20, 1930, she married Frank B. Freeman in Kalispell.

She lived in the Flathead most of her life since that time.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank, on April 2, 1973.

Survivors include a son, Frank D. Freeman of Kalispell; a daughter, Carol Waller of Fairbanks, Alaska; two brothers, Ben Kimes of Lakeside, and Glen Kimes of Tacoma, Wash.; eight grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Thursday in Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Barry Dawson of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services. Friends may call at Johnson Chapel for visitation until 8 p.m. Wednesday and until 1 p.m. Thursday.

Marjorie Frerich, 64

Marjorie "Peggy" Frerich, 64, Columbia Falls, died Tuesday morning in Pasco, Wash.

She was born Nov. 8, 1921, in St. Paul, Minn., to Nels and Martha Nelson. The family moved to Wolf Point when she was a child where she was raised and educated.

The family moved to Whitefish in 1936.

She married Loren "Bud" Frerich on March 22, 1941, in Kalispell.

She is survived by her husband, Loren, at the family home; one son, Wayne, Columbia Falls; three daughters, LaDonna Delbom, Columbia Falls, Vonzel Role, Spokane, Wash., and Vernell Frerich, Eltopia, Wash.; two brothers, Ed Nelson, Whitefish, and Ronnie Nelson, Kalispell; two sisters, Mary Choate, Columbia Falls, and Ella Severson, Jerome, Idaho; nine grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephew.

Funeral services will be Saturday at Van Leuven Funeral Home at 10 a.m. Dr. David Kauffman and Glen Sparks will officiate. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Visitation is until 8 tonight at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

David A. Fry, 19

LIBBY — David A. Fry, 19, Libby, died Saturday at Fort Worth, Texas, of unknown causes. Cause of death is under investigation by the medical examiner in Fort Worth.

He was born Nov. 15, 1966, in Spokane, Wash., and moved to Libby as a small child. He was raised in Libby and attended Libby public schools. He moved to Fort Worth in 1984, where he was employed as a mechanic at the time of his death.

He is survived by his parents, Esther and Mike Parker of Libby, and Lamy Fry, address unknown; a sister, Mandi Parker, Libby; grandparents, Margaret Decker of Libby, Bonnie Shear of Fort Wayne, Ind., Lyman Fry of North Webster, Ind., and Richard Parker of Libby; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Libby with the Rev. Dewayne Price of the Church of the Nazarene officiating.

Burial will be in the City of Libby Cemetery.

DE
OCT. 22 '86

Jonas Froistad, 96

Jonas Froistad, 96, Kalispell, died Wednesday in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born April 25, 1890, in Breim, Norway, a son of Samuel and Magdalene Froistad. He received his education in Norway and in 1911 came to America. He lived in Michigan, N.D., for a short while before moving to eastern Montana.

He farmed in eastern Montana until 1955, when he retired and moved to the Flathead Valley.

He was a single man.

Survivors include several nieces and nephews included Bjarne and Matilda Egnash of Kalispell, and his friend, Anna Mork, who cared for him for many years.

The body is being forwarded to Fulkerson Funeral Home of Plentywood where funeral services will be conducted. Burial will be in Rock Springs Cemetery at Reserve. Local arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Thomas Funk, 65

^{19 June 1986}
Thomas Willard Funk, 65, died at his home in Kalispell Thursday afternoon.

He was born Aug. 3, 1920, near Pablo, a son of Edward and Lucy Funk. He grew up in the Lower Valley near Somers, and attended local schools, graduating from Flathead County High School in 1939.

In 1942, he entered the Army, serving in World War II. He was awarded the Philippine Liberation Medal with one bronze star, Asiatic Pacific Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal and a Victory Medal. He was honorably discharged Dec. 30, 1945.

On Oct. 30, 1946, he married Phyllis Miller in Kalispell.

He had worked many years in local sawmills, tire shops and for the Somers Tie Plant for 12 years prior to his retirement in August 1985.

He was a long-time member of the Kalispell Church of Christ and a member of the VFW Post No. 2252 of Kalispell.

He was preceded in death by a brother and a sister.

Survivors include his wife, Phyllis, at the family home; two sons, Richard of Kalispell and Robin of Fort Lewis, Wash.; a daughter, Mary Jo Sanford of Kalispell; two brothers, Adam Funk of Kalispell and Oscar Funk of Georgetown, Calif.; two sisters, Velda Huggins and Anna Johnson, both of Kalispell; eight grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Monday in Kalispell Church of Christ with the Rev. Lyle Newell officiating. Burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery with military honors conducted by local veterans organizations.

The family suggests memorials to Kalispell Church of Christ or to the Flathead Hospice.

Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

23 June 1986
James Funke, 61

POLSON — James H. Funke, 61, a longtime Polson businessman, died Monday of cancer at his home.

He was born Jan. 5, 1925, in Polson, a son of Edward Earl and Besse Mae Lyons Funke. He was reared in Polson and attended Polson public schools, graduating from Polson High School in 1946. He also had two years of on-the-job training in the family-owned department store.

In June 1943 he enlisted in the Army Air Corps and was discharged in February 1946 after serving in the Panama Canal Zone.

He married Eva L. Pollmann on Sept. 28, 1946, in Polson. He had lived his entire life in Polson.

Along with his father and brothers, he operated the Funke & Sons Department Store in Polson from 1946 until his retirement in 1977.

Mr. Funke was a member of the Polson VFW, the Polson Elks Club and had served for several years on the Polson City Council. He was also a member of the Polson Chamber of Commerce for many years.

He was a volunteer fireman for 22 years and was active in Scouting. In his spare time he enjoyed model airplanes.

He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Polson.

He was preceded in death by a son, Daniel Lee Funke; a brother, Richard L. Funke; and his father, Edward E. Funke.

Survivors include his wife, Eva, Polson; four sons, James Funke Jr., David E. Funke and Fred C. Funke, all of Polson, and Larry Funke, Anchorage, Alaska; his mother, Besse M. Funke, Polson; three brothers, Robert D. Funke, Huntsville, Ala., and Thomas E. Funke and William L. Funke, both of Polson; four sisters, Mary Ann LeBrun of Polson, Patricia Skogens of Ronan, Elizabeth Calbaum of Longview, Wash., and Carol Ruiz of Kalispell; and 11 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

A Christian wake service will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Mosley Funeral Home in Polson. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Polson with the Rev. Ernest Burns as celebrant. Interment will follow in the Lake View Cemetery in Polson under the direction of Mosley Funeral Home in Polson.

The family suggests memorials to the American Cancer Society.