Wash.; one daughter, Mrs. James (Diana) Thompson of Kalispell; two sisters, Helen Warren and Jeannette Bossart, both of Auburn, Wash.; two sisters-in-law, Gladys Ellenburg and Jennie Cowan, both of Kalispell; two nieces, Sandra Lindlie and Sherry Baker, also of Kalispell; five grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be Saturday, Feb. 24, at 10 a.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home, with the Rev. Jon Pomeroy, pastor of Northridge Heights Church of God, officiating. Private urn burial will take place at C.E. Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family suggests memorial contributions to Brendan House or Northridge Heights Church of God.

Omer S. Twet, 72

1990
Omer S. Twet, 72, Kalispell, died Wednesday, July 4, of a heart attack at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born April 8, 1918, at Westby, the son of Jacob and Thea Twet. The family later moved to Comertown, Mont., where he attended grade school and graduated from high school in 1936. Mr. Twet later moved to Seattle, working there until he entered the armed forces.

On Dec. 2, 1941, he married Evelyn Vincent in Seattle, and left for the U.S. Army shortly after that. He spent five years in the military, a large part overseas in the South Pacific.

Following his honorable discharge, the Twets spent the next 22 years in Billings. His father and he were partners in a grocery business for five years, and he then went into construction on his own. He came to Kalispell in 1971.

After retiring in 1975 due to heart surgery, Mr. Twet kept busy restoring antique cars. He was a member of the Flathead Pioneer Auto Club.

He is survived by his wife, Evelyn at the family home in Kalispell; one son, Steven Twet, and his wife, Diana, of Kalispell; one daughter, Lois Savard, and her husband, Fred, of Mesa, Ariz.; one sister, Gladys Johnson of Portland, Ore.; two brothers, Lincoln Twet of Portland, and Jalmar Twet of Spokane, Wash.; four grandsons and two great-granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Truman.

Memorial services will be Saturday, July 7, at 3 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Marshall Moen, chaplain of Immanuel Lutheran Home, officiating. Private urn burial will take place at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Shelly Marie Clark Tweet, 25

17 July 1990
Shelly Marie Clark Tweet, 25, died at her home in Kalispell on Tuesday evening.

She was born May 16, 1965, in Whitefish, a daughter of Vern Clark and Margaret Galyan.

Shelly attended schools in Kalispell, Stevensville and Libby, where she graduated with honors in 1983.

In 1984 she attended Northwest Schools at Portland, Ore., where she studied for a career as a flight attendant.

She worked several years as a mixologist (bartender) and also as a retail sales clerk.

On Oct. 29, 1988, she married Marty J. Tweet.

Shelly enjoyed bowling and was on several leagues in high school and several since then.

Survivors include her husband, Marty, and two sons, Robert and Jason at home; her father, Vern Clark of Fairbanks, Alaska; her mother Margaret Galyan of Columbia Falls; two brothers, Bernie Clark of Kalispell and Ray Proffitt of Arlington, Wash.; her grandparents, Anna Johnson of Kalispell, and Louis and Vi Clark of Columbia Falls.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Dr. David Kauffman officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 3-8 p.m. today and until noon on Friday.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Education Fund for Robert and Jason Tweet, P.O. Box 596, Kalispell, Mt. 59901.

Arrangements by Johnson Mortuary.
