

HN

Eugenie H. Eaton, 76

Eugenie H. Eaton, 76, Columbia Falls, died in Brendan House on June 17 of natural causes. 1991

She is survived by several children and other relatives.

No public services are planned. Cremation and arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

X

Anna Edwards, 88

Anna (Lee) Edwards, 88, died Thursday at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby 21 Nov 1991

Survivors include four daughters, including Millie Dutton of Libby; three sons; five sisters, including Catherine O'Rourke of Libby; two brothers; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren; and great-great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be Monday from 1-9 p.m. at Vial Funeral Home

Services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Libby Christian Church.

D1

Robert Arthur Eayrs

Mr. Robert Arthur Eayrs, 67, of Kalispell, died at his home on Friday, July 19, of natural causes. He was born December 3, 1923 in Stryker, Montana, a son of Charles and Ethlynn Eayrs. He attended school in Troy and moved to Kalispell as a young adult. He was a heavy equipment operator on the Hungry Horse Dam and also worked as a heavy equipment operator in woods work. He settled in Oregon for a few years then moved to Idaho, then Washington before returning to Kalispell, where he lived with the Gary and Jerry Young family. In the early 1970's he retired due to his disablement. He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, Jean Johnson; and one brother, Jimmy Eayrs. Survivors include two daughters, Deveda Eayrs and Roberta Eayrs, both of Wisconsin; a nephew, Mike Day of Fairbanks, Alaska and numerous other nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held on Wednesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Bishop Jerry Sommers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints officiating. Burial was in the Spring Creek Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

D1

Julia F. Krantz Elderkin, 93

Julia F. Krantz Elderkin, 93, of Kalispell, died of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital Thursday. 18 April 1991

She was born July 22, 1897, in Kalispell, to Amanda and John Johnson. She was a native of the Flathead Valley.

She farmed and ranched most of her life in the Smith Valley area, cooking for her family, and gardening. She especially loved to hunt and fish, and treasured family activities and conversations with friends.

She was a member of Epworth United Methodist Church, Eastern Star and Gold Star Mother, VFW Auxiliary.

She was preceded in death by three husbands, Herman Krantz, Richard Dickey, and Hank Elderkin; three brothers; five sisters; four children, Tootsie Krantz, Edward "Buddy" Krantz, Elmer "Babe" Krantz, and Earlean Shepard; and a grandchildren, Sherry Sykes Buchanan.

Survivors include a daughter, Jewel Sykes of Kalispell; seven grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Monday at 11 a.m. at Epworth United Methodist Church with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Friends and family may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation today from 1-4 p.m.

The family suggests memorials to Epworth United Methodist Education Loan and Grant Fund.

WP

5 Dec 1991

Syble Adelle Egtvedt, 72

Syble Adelle Egtvedt, 72, of Columbia Falls, and a former Washington state resident, died Thursday at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane, following heart surgery.

She was born Oct. 17, 1919, in Bauxite, Ark., to Joe and Adelle (Arnold) Davidson. At a young age, she moved with her parents to Leola, Ark., where she grew up and attended school.

In March 1936, she married John W. Gelvin. They moved to Okanogan, Wash., in the early 1940s. They had four daughters and a son. They divorced in 1962.

On Jan. 22, 1964, she married Arthur P. Egtvedt in Okanogan. They moved to Longview in 1965, and the to Whitefish in 1972.

Mrs. Egtvedt was an accomplished seamstress and tailor. She was able to look at a picture and create the outfit. She loved to fish and even caught herself and her dog once.

She was a member of Happy Valley Missionary Baptist Church near Whitefish.

Survivors include her husband, Arthur, at home; a son, John Douglas Gelvin of Whitefish; four daughters, Mrs. Doyle (Inetta) Workman in Cashmere, Wash., Yola Dell "Dody" Gelvin and Thracia Jo Harris, both of Wenatchee, Wash. and Mrs. Duane (Donna) Kinyon of Tampa, Fla.; two stepsons, Curt Egtvedt of East Wenatchee and Terry Egtvedt in Germany; a step-daughter, Cindy Deisher of Seattle; a brother, Travis Davidson of Moses Lake; two sisters, Edra Nunnally of East Wenatchee and Elzora Lee of Mobile, Ala.; and 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley in East Wenatchee.

Funeral services will be conducted at Telford's Chapel of the Valley on Tuesday, Dec. 19, at 10:30 a.m. with Pastor Sean Haller officiating. Concluding interment services will follow in Evergreen Memorial Park. Those who wish may make memorials to the Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch.

KN

Rose Engelking

Rose Engelking, 87, Kalispell, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on March 21 of natural causes. 1991

She is survived by her husband, Fred Engelking at the family home; one brother, Ed Reed, Columbia Falls; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were March 23 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Rev. Darold Reiner of Trinity Lutheran Church officiating. Burial followed at Woodlawn Cemetery.

Arrangements were under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

KN

George Burton 'Burt' Enos, 58

George Burton "Burt" Enos, 58, died Thursday, Sept. 19, at his Lakeside home. 1991

He was born Aug. 15, 1933, in Weaverville, Calif., to Marvin and Esther Enos. He lived in Junction City, Calif., until moving to New Meadows, Idaho, in 1976.

On March 26, 1984, he married Sue Morris in Elko, Nev., and they have made their home in Lakeside since 1985.

Burt was a lifelong cowboy. He was currently employed as a range rider for Big Meadow Grazing Association at Little Wolf Creek, near Libby.

He loved his horses and dogs and the outdoors. He was an enthusiastic hunter and fisherman.

Surviving family members include his wife, Sue, and step-daughter, Misty Smithson, at the family home; a stepson and step-daughter, Jim Norvell and Sheila Waininger, both of Somers; his sister, Lois Mikkola, and her husband, John, of Junction City; five stepgrandchildren; a nephew, Mike; a niece, Susie; and numerous other relatives in California.

An open house in Burt's memory will be held at the family home in Lakeside on Sunday, Sept. 23, at 2 p.m.

Arrangements and cremation are by the Weatherford Funeral Home & Crematory in Kalispell.

WP

Margret M. England

Margaret M. England, age 81, a resident of Whitefish, died Sunday October 20, 1991 at the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. She was born July 9, 1908 in Beresford, South Dakota a daughter of Gilbert and Eva Hofland.

She was married to Noah Guymon and they had lived in various places, moving to Whitefish in 1942. In 1952, she married Jack England in Whitefish and he preceded her in death in 1970.

Margaret is now survived by two sons Richard Guymon of Whitefish and Pat Guymon of Baker City, Oregon. Two sisters Mildred Raines of Shelby, Montana and Veda Stokes of Helena, Montana. One brother Jack Hofland of Tacoma, Washington. 12 grandchildren and a number of great grandchildren and other relatives.

Funeral services were Thursday at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Darrell Newby of The Assembly of God Church in Columbia Falls officiating. Burial followed in the Whitefish Cemetery.

The family has suggested memorials to the Whitefish Senior Citizens Center or to the Charity of the donors choice.

X

Jack Erkkila 13 Dec 1991

POLSON — Jack Erkkila, 84, of Polson, a former longtime high school teacher in Polson, died Friday along with his longtime friend Della LaRock from injuries sustained in a automobile accident near Polson.

A joint memorial service will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. Burial of his ashes, with masonic rites and military honors, will follow at the Lake View Cemetery.

He was born May 15, 1907 in Hamilton. His family moved to Milltown in 1920 and he graduated from Missoula County High School in 1925. He got a bachelor's degree in education from the Montana State University.

In 1938, he married Ruth Howe in Missoula. They lived in Loneline where he taught school.

He joined the Army in 1941 and served in the European theater of World War II until his discharge as a lieutenant colonel in 1946.

He taught at the Polson High School for many years, retiring in 1968.

His wife preceded him in death.

Survivors include two daughters, Beth Gembus of St. Louis, Mo., and Lynda Blake of Eureka; a son, John of Albuquerque, N.M.; and five grandchildren.

DI

Russell Evenson, 73

Mr. Russell W. Evenson, 73, of Bigfork, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on Friday, July 12, of cancer. 1991

He was born Sept. 11, 1917 on the family homestead in Hinsdale, Mont., a son of August and Helen Evenson. He had received his education in Hinsdale having graduated from high school there in the class of 1935.

He then moved to Bigfork, where he did woodwork until entering the U.S. Army at Missoula on Oct. 12, 1941.

He served in England, North Africa and Italy and received his honorable discharge on Aug. 20, 1945 at Fort Lewis, Wash.

He then returned to the Flathead Valley and was employed with Broeder Brothers Lumber Co. for 25 years when it closed. He was then employed with Kalmont and Forest Products until his retirement in 1979.

On May 15, 1946, he was married to Janette Bunyea in Kalispell and is now survived by her at the family home in Bigfork. He is also survived by two sisters, Alice Ream of Bigfork, and Lillian Atteberry of Kalispell; one brother, Carl Evenson of Palermo, Calif.; and a number of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, great-grandnieces and great-grandnephews.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Herb Knutsen, pastor of the Bethany Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery where military honors will be conducted by the United Veterans Organization.

Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 1-4 p.m. today and until 6 p.m. on Monday.

DI

1991 George F. Everaert, 60

George F. Everaert, 60, died Friday morning at his home near Columbia Falls.

He was born Aug. 21, 1930, in Chicago, Ill., to Julius and Magdalene Everaert. He was raised and educated in Havre, where he graduated from high school.

He served in the Navy for four years on submarines.

He attended Northern Montana College in Havre after his discharge and later attended Ball State College in Indiana. He was recalled into the service and was discharged as a lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps as a photo reconnaissance pilot.

Following his discharge, he returned to Havre, where he owned and operated an Exxon station for 20 years July

He moved to Columbia Falls in 1980.

He loved the outdoors, camping, and fishing.

He was a member of the Eagles Club in Havre.

He is survived by two daughters, Cheryl Pedersen of Kila and Amy Everaert of Great Falls; a son, Edward Everaert of Billings; his mother, Magdalene D'Hooge Everaert of Great Falls; a sister, Marie Betts of Great Falls; a brother, Maurice Everaert of Casper, Wyo.; two grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be Monday at 10 a.m. at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

X

Briana Rose Evans

Briana Rose Evans, newborn daughter of Randy and Vickie Evans, formerly of Kalispell, died March 5 at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby. The family currently lives in Libby.

She is survived by her parents and two brothers, Sean and Jordan, of Libby; four grandparents; and a great-grandfather.

Services will be Friday at 5:15 p.m. at Vial Funeral Home in Libby. Services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Kalispell. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

WP

Hazel M. Eveland, 68

Hazel M. Eveland, 68, Whitefish, died Nov. 5 at North Valley Hospital Extended Care in Whitefish of natural causes.

She is survived by one son; one brother; one sister and a number of other relatives.

No services are being planned at this time. Cremation has taken place under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish.

HAN

Romaine Evenson

Mr. Romaine K. Evenson, 68, of Kalispell, died in the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls Monday evening, April 29, of heart disease.

He was born April 15, 1923, in Kalispell, a son of Gusav and Matilda Evenson. He had attended Kalispell schools and graduated from Flathead County High School. He then served in the U.S. Army Air Force and was awarded the Purple Cross and Air Medal with Cluster.

He returned to the Flathead and was a mail carrier for the U.S. Postal Service for a number of years. In 1976, he was employed as a boiler operator for the Montana State Hospital in Boulder, where he worked until becoming disabled and retired in 1986. He then returned to Kalispell and has resided here since that time. Mr. Evenson was a member of the V.F.W. and D.A.V.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Matilda Grina. On May 12, 1975, he was married to Mary Logsdon in Kalispell and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by a daughter, Sandra Kaye Jones of Kalispell; a stepdaughter, Joette Hartly of Kalispell; two brothers, Gordon T. Evenson of Bozeman and Duane D. Evenson of Cincinnati Ohio; his stepfather, Alfred Grina of Kalispell; two grandchildren and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives. Graveside services and burial of urn were held Thursday in the Glacier Memorial Gardens with Rev. James Huff, Pastor of the Bible Presbyterian Church officiating.

WP

Lillian Everhart

Lillian Hrabik Everhart was born April 20, 1919, in Peerless, Montana, near Scooby. She died August 11, 1991, in Blythe, California, after a long illness. She is survived by her husband, Howard C. Everhart of Whitefish and Quartzsite, Arizona; one sister, Edith Hawbaker of Glasgow, Montana; one brother, Raymond Hrabik of Amity, Oregon; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Billie, as she was called by family and friends, came to the Flathead Valley in 1935 with her parents, Joseph F. and Lona Machart Hrabik, four sisters, and two brothers. Another brother had died as a child before they moved. They settled in the Foy's Lake area where her parents ranched and farmed.

She married Howard Gary Everhart on October 19, 1940 at Poison, Montana. They resided principally in Whitefish with brief periods elsewhere, including several years in Texas during Howard's U.S. Air Force duty there in World War II. Their primary home was a ranch on the Stillwater River west of Whitefish, where

A memorial service will be held at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish on Saturday, August 31, at 11 a.m. Dr. David Kauffman of Whitefish, a family friend, will conduct the service. Cremation

KN

Arthur H. Evjen, 83

Arthur H. Evjen, 83, Poison, died of natural causes Saturday, June 1, at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

Born April 13, 1908, in Kalispell, he was raised in the Kalispell area. He worked in the timber industry and later was employed by O.J. Muller Tire Co. He then bought a tire shop in Poison.

After selling the business in 1962, he built a home on the west shore of Flathead Lake. He later moved into Poison.

Survivors include his wife, Loina, at the family home; five children and their spouses, Mildred and Tom Fetch, Poison, R.D. and Sheila Evjen, Missoula, Myrna Evjen and Sonja Hampton, both of Sparks, Nev., and Wayne and Juanita Evjen, Pablo; two brothers, Clayton, Albuquerque, N.M., and Walter, Missoula; four sisters, Beatrice Turp, in Washington, Eleanor King, Portland, Ore., Sylvia Zuniack, Kalispell; and Elizabeth Fleming, Wickenburg, Ariz.; 11 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding him in death were a son, Lyle, his parents, a brother and a sister.

Graveside services will be 2:30 p.m. today at Lakeview Cemetery with the Rev. Bill Putman officiating.

The family suggests memorials to the Christian Missionary Alliance Church in Poison.

Cremation and arrangements were under the direction of Bayview Funeral Chapel.