1992 Margaret Galligan

Margaret Galligan "Peg" Truman, 85, died May 1 at Kalispell Regional Hospital of cardiac arrest.

She was born December 20, 1906, to Theresa and Patrick Galligan in Bayfield County, Wisc.

In 1934 she married Harry Vern Truman, a botanist and University professor from Chagrin Falls, Ohio. For five years they resided in Havre, where he taught at Northern Montana College. They spent several summers in Yellowstone National Park, where Dr. Truman was a ranger-naturalist. They moved to Granville, Ohio, in 1948, where Dr. Truman was with the Biology Department at Denison University. He preceded Margaret in death in 1978.

Margaret earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Southwestern College in Winfield, Kans. and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Wyoming. For many years she was art supervisor in the public school system of Grandville, Ohio. Margaret was active in community affairs and after her retirement served 1000 hours as a hospital volunteer. She taught weaving and other crafts at the Granville senior citizen's center. She was a member of St. Edwards Church in Granville, and St. Matthew's in Kalispell. She enjoyed traveling throughout North America and abroad. Peg loved her family, friends, and relatives in the midwest and elsewhere, and had developed a special fondness for friends at Kalispell's Buffalo Hill Terrace, where she resided. She is survived by her daughter Patricia, and son-in-law Riley McClelland of West Glacier, her twin sister Marian Galligan of Kalispell; grandchildren Mary, Kevin, Jane, Kerry, and Terence; one great-granddaughter; and 13 nieces and nephews.

A graveside service is planned this summer at Ashland, Wisc.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Alzheimer's Care, Immanuel Lutheran Home, Buffalo Hill, Kalispell, MT 59901.

May 1992

Daniel McCall George, 38

Dan George was a life-long New York Mets fan. He was an avid collector of baseball cards and paraphernalia. He also had a deep love for music, in particular the blues.

This was a man that touched the hearts of many people in this community and made a huge difference in the care of individuals with mental illness. Dan was a leader and a role model in the way he lived his own life.

As the director of the Lamplighter House for 10 years, Dan pioneered the modern movement for the progressive care of the mentally ill in northwestern Montana. He was honored by the National Association of Social Workers in 1987-88, receiving the Social Worker of the Year Award. He was actively involved with various community and state organizations, boards and committees.

Dan was born and raised in South Dakota, and his family moved to Washington, D.C., where he attended high school. He graduated from the University of Montana and earned a master's degree in social work from Eastern Washington University. He began his social-work career at the Evergreen Club in Spokane, Wash.

In 1982, Dan came to Kalispell and spearheaded the project which resulted in the creation of Lamplighter House.

Dan is survived by his parents, Jean and Boyd George of Tempe, Ariz.; two sisters, Ashley and Tamlin; several nieces and nephews, Douglas, Matthew, Hayley, Carmen, and Ryan; special friends, Rachel and Kathy Leahy; and his cat, Mariah.

A memorial service will be held at 5 p.m. Monday at the Lone Pine Visitors Center. A potluck gathering will follow.

In lieu of flowers, please send contributions to the American Diabetes Association. 24 May Inter Lake

1992 Beverley J. Ghrames, 48

Beverley J. Ghrames, 48, born Beverley Jean Meyer on Nov. 8, 1943 to Otto W. and Louise Chapman Meyer, in Williston, N.D., died July 31 in Spokane, Wash., after a lengthy battle with cancer. She was with loving friends and relatives at the end of her journey on earth.

She was raised in the Temple, Ray, Williston area until the end of her sophomore year of high school when the family moved to Thompson Falls, where she finished high school, graduating in 1961.

In June of 1961, she met James M. (Mike) Ghrames in Kalispell. They were married at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Kalispell on September 22, 1962. Bev traveled extensively for the next 18 years with her husband until they retired from the U.S. Air Force in January, 1981, making their home in Kalispell.

She is survived by her husband and youngest daughter, Michelle, at the family home; oldest daughter, Kelley Sikes, of Libby; a son, Dean, of the U.S. Air Force, stationed in California; an older sister, Sandy Cooper of Dillon; younger sisters, Betty Meyer of Spokane, Wilma Weingart of Polson, Irene Patrick of Santa Maria, Calif., and Kay Mooney of Hanford, Calif.; younger brothers, Bruce Davis of Nipomo, Calif., Danny Meyer of Helena, Otto Meyer Jr. of Orcutt, Calif., and Glen Davis of Santa Maria; her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis of Polson; two granddaughters; a grandson; numerous sisters and brothers-in-law; and many, many friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Otto Sr. in June, 1964.

Bev was confirmed in the Lutheran faith, and was a member of Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary, the Retired Enlisted Association, National Auxiliary, Women of the Moose of Kalispell, and two bowling leagues.

A memorial service will be held Aug. 23 at Eidsvold Lutheran Church in Somers at 1 p.m. with refreshments at the Kalispell Moose Lodge, starting at 2:30 p.m.

She will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her. The void created by her passing can never be filled.

Sleep peacefully, my darling, and continue to give your assistance and support when I need it.
