

Elgie Sager 18 NOV 1993

Elgie Sager, 96, of Rollins, died in the Brendan House on Thursday, Nov. 18, of natural causes. He was born Oct. 20, 1898, in Gordon, Neb., son of Israel and Anna Sager. He was the youngest of 10 children. Elgie arrived in the Flathead Valley in 1906 where his father purchased land in Rollins and where Elgie has resided for 87 years. His occupations included farming, lumberjack, wood cutter and he also worked on the clearing of the Hungry Horse Reservoir. He left the Valley for a few months to work in the ship yards in Tacoma, during World War II. He had been a member of the Rollins School Board for 14 years. Elgie enjoyed the out of doors, fishing, hunting, hiking and photography.

He was preceded in death by one granddaughter. Survivors include his wife, Emma of the family home in Rollins; one son, Gary Sager of Lakeside; three daughters, Una Thomas, Erva Sager and Oma Howard all of Polson; ten grandchildren; sixteen great grandchildren; and many other relatives, friends and neighbors. Funeral services were held Saturday, Nov. 20 in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with Rev. David Driskell of Lakeside Baptist Church officiating. The family suggests memorials may be made to the Multiple Sclerosis Society, Montana Chapter, Box 2802, Great Falls, MT 59403.

22 MAR 1993
Dewey J. Sandell

Mr. Dewey J. Sandell, 94, of Bigfork, died in the Lake View Care Center on Monday, March 22, of natural causes. He was born September 26, 1898, in Fort Worth, Texas, a son of William and Stella Sandell. He spent his early years in Riverton, Wyoming where his parents homesteaded. IN 1920 he was married to Elma Pointer who preceded him in death in 1971. He was married to Dorothy Martin in 1973. Mr.s Sandell had a long career in the oil industry. He worked in Elk River, Wyoming and in Montana in Gallup City, Sunburst and other areas where he was field superintendent for the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil. He was later based in Odessa, Texas with the Sun Oil Co. when he retired in 1963. Following his retirement he returned to Kalispell and had resided in the Flathead Valley since. He was preceded in death by his son, Dewey, Jr. Survivors include his wife, Dorothy o Bigfork; his daughter-in-law, Bertha Sandell of Fayetteville, New York; three granddaughters, Carolyn Tseou of Rochester, New York, Sheryl Hawkins of Newport News, VA and Palma Horsley of Lisle, Illinois. Graveside services were held on Thursday in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with Rev. Larry Gaylord pastor of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Arrangements were under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

Jennifer Sarasua, 14 20 OCT 1993

Jennifer Sarasua, 14, died at her home in Somers on Wednesday, Oct. 20, 1993.

She was born Dec. 30, 1978, in San Francisco, to Joseph and Janet Sarasua.

She was an active member of the Girl Scouts of America for six years. She was a member of the sophomore class at Flathead High School at the time of her death.

Survivors include her mother, Janet Sarasua, in Somers; her father, Joseph Sarasua of Pacifica, Calif.; a brother, J.J. Sarasua in California; her grandmothers, Helene Stockinger of San Bruno, Calif., and Marie Sarasua of Daly City, Calif.; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives.

Christian wake services will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday at Johnson Mortuary Chapel. Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Wednesday at St. Matthew's Catholic Church with the Rev. Robert Noonan as celebrant.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary from 4 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday for visitation.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Flathead CARE program.

Cordelia Sauerbier, 79

Cordelia Sauerbier, 79, of Bigfork, died in Lake View Care Center in Bigfork on Saturday, April 24, 1993.

She was born Jan. 28, 1914, in Spaulding, Neb., to John and Cordelia Meyer. She attended schools in Nebraska. On Jan. 28, 1934, she married Lynus Sauerbier in Chadron, Neb.

As a young woman, she trained race horses. During World War II, she worked in the shipyards in Portland, Ore., where she also owned and operated several restaurants.

Later the couple lived on the family farm in Bigfork, where they raised large gardens.

Mrs. Sauerbier was active in 4-H work, home extension club work and the Bigfork Senior Citizens.

She was preceded in death by a son, Daniel, in 1969; her husband, Lynus, in 1982; one granddaughter; and two brothers, Ray and John Meyer.

Survivors include her daughter, Bernice Root, and her son, Roy Sauerbier, both of Bigfork; one brother, Eldred Meyer of Bigfork; two sisters, Marie Lecher and Eileen Hebert, both of Kalispell; five grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Jim Holman, pastor of the Bethel Chapel officiating. Burial will be in Lonepine Cemetery near Bigfork.

Thomas C. Savage, 84

Thomas Clayton Savage, 84, of Polson, died at St. Joseph Hospital on Monday, ~~Nov 1993~~ 37 Dec 1993.

Surviving family members include his wife, Eulela Savage of Polson; a daughter, Mary Jane Carlson of Polson; a son, Richard D. Savage of Belton, Texas; three sisters; a brother; 10 grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be Friday at 2 p.m. at Polson Christian Missionary Alliance Church with the Rev. Bill Putnam officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery in Polson.

Arrangements are by Mosley-Shrider Funeral Home of Polson.

Edith Scammahorn

Edith Scammahorn, 84, of Kalispell, died in the Brendan House on Wednesday, Nov. 10, 1993. She was born March 18, 1909, in Somers, to Albert and Anna Erickson. She worked as a bookkeeper for the Somers Lumber Company, Monarch Lumber Company, Geddes Insurance Agency and Bitney Furniture until her retirement in 1974. On July 1, 1933, she married Nel Scammahorn. They lived in Somers until 1942, when they moved to Kalispell. Mrs. Scammahorn was preceded in death by her husband, Neil, in 1972; her parents and two brothers. She is now survived by her daughter, Joan Anderson and her husband Ronald of Kalispell; two grandsons, Roger and John Anderson of Kalispell two great grandsons; two great grandsons; two step great granddaughters; a step great great granddaughter and her sister, Sally Slocombe of Kalispell. Graveside services were held on Saturday in the Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. H. Peder Waldum officiating. The family suggests memorials be made to the charity of donors choice.

Helen M. Schaeffer, 83

Helen M. Schaeffer, 83, of Whitefish, died at Colonial Manor in Whitefish.

Survivors include her husband, Joseph, at the family home; a daughter, Luella Smith in Elkhart, Kan.; and eight grandchildren.

Graveside services will be at 10 a.m. on Wednesday at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls with the Rev. David V. Kauffman officiating. A reception will follow the services at the Whitefish V.F.W. and friends and family are invited to attend.

Arrangements are under the direction of Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. 307 Nov 1993

Paul P. Schafer, 44

Paul P. Schafer, 44, of Kalispell, died on Monday, Jan. 18, 1993, from injuries in a downhill skiing accident at The Big Mountain.

He was born March 11, 1948, in Great Falls, to Phil and Lois Schafer, longtime wheat farmers there.

He was the first graduating class of C.M. Russell High School in the class of 1966. He was a state champion wrestler, the first all-state athlete from CMR and the first inductee to the school's hall of fame. In 1966, he was most valuable player in the East-West Shrine Game.

As a running back at Montana State University, he still holds the school record for most carries in one game — 58. He was twice on the All-Big Sky football team. In 1971, he signed to play for the Calgary Football League but was cut that summer.

For a short time, he returned to the Great Falls area and farmed.

In recent years, he made his mark in the bow-hunting world. He was a world-class bow maker and hunter. In 1986, he became the third bow hunter in the world to get the Grand Slam by collecting all four species of the wild sheep in America — dahl, bighorn, desert bighorn and stone. What set his accomplishment apart was that his sheep were all world class — each ranking at least in the top 10 in the world. It seemed he had hunted everything at least once.

18 JAN 1993

With the Schafer Silver Tip bows he made in his shop in the foothills of the Swan Mountains east of Kalispell, he had taken big grizzly and black bear, elk, deer and antelope.

He is survived by his parents, Phil and Lois Schafer, of Great Falls; two brothers, Fred and Dale, both of Great Falls; three sisters, Joan Simonetti and Ann Schafer Wankel, both of Great Falls, and Peggy Schafer of Whitefish; a daughter, Laurie Evans of Townsend; a 2-year-old son, Hunter, of Minneapolis; and two grandchildren.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 4-8 p.m. today.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday at Epworth United Methodist Church with the Rev. Marvin Northcutt officiating. Cremation will follow the services.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Hunter Schafer Trust Fund, Piper Jaffry, c/o Mike Carter, P.O. Box 229, Great Falls 59403.

Arrangements and cremation are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Ellis Schanck, 68

Ellis Schanck, 68, a resident of the Troy area, died of cancer Saturday at his home near Troy. 30 Feb 1993

He is survived by his wife, Jean; a son, Mark Schanck of Libby; a daughter, Meg Boggess of Troy; a sister, Delvina Overholt of Libby; three grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be from 1-9 p.m.

Wednesday at Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at Troy Church of God.

George Schmidt, 83

30 Dec 1993
George Schmidt, 83, a longtime resident of Whitefish, died Thursday, Dec. 30, 1993, at the Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Whitefish of natural causes.

George was born April 23, 1910, in Hague, N.D., to Michael and Katie (Lemmer) Schmidt.

He was married to Frances Hoerner on June 8, 1933, in Glendive. They moved to the Flathead Valley in 1937.

He was employed with Half-Moon Mill many years, and Royal Logging and retired from Plum Creek Lumber Co., where he had worked 18 years as a maintenance man.

George was preceded in death by his daughter, Vera; his parents; two brothers, Sam and Joe; and three sisters, Veronica, Mary and Theresa.

He is now survived by his wife, Frances, at the family home; his son, Raymond; three sisters, Kate, Frances and Margaret; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

George enjoyed his family, fishing, hunting and playing cards at the Vets Club in Whitefish.

His family will miss him very much.

Rosary will be recited at the Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish on Sunday at 7 p.m. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated on Monday at 10 a.m. at the St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Charles Roman as celebrant. Burial will follow at the Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Kalispell.

Bertha W. Schnaidt, 106

Bertha W. Schnaidt, 106, of Kalispell, died Sunday, Jan. 31, 1993, at Heritage Place in Kalispell.

She was born Jan. 9, 1887, in Parkston, S.D., to Frank and Amelia Wiedman. Her father opened Parkston's first general store in 1886. Bertha, known as Byrde, was the first child born in Parkston. She was in the first graduating class of Parkston High School in 1906.

In June of 1908, she married Henry J. Schnaidt, who owned a local drug store. Byrde was a charter member of the Progressive Literary Club, the Order of Eastern Star, and the Philharmonic Chorus. She studied voice, and sang at many functions. In addition, she studied art, producing many oil paintings.

Following the death of her husband in 1952, she moved to Kalispell, to be with her only son, Donald, and his wife, Kathryn. She again became active in Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile, Century Club, and First Presbyterian Church, as well as its women's groups. Byrde also loved to play bridge.

Byrde maintained her own home until over the age of 100. In the early summer of 1987, she became a resident of Friendship House in Kalispell, residing there for over a year-and-a-half. As her health declined, she then moved into Flathead County Care Center, which later became Heritage Place.

Byrde was the last of eight children in her family. Her survivors include her son, Donald Schnaidt, and his wife, Kathryn, of Kalispell; a grandson, Mark Schnaidt of Whistler, British Columbia; a granddaughter, Martha Wheeler, and her husband, David, of Moorhead, Minn.; and two great-grandsons, Daniel and Nicholas Wheeler, also of Moorhead.

Memorial services will be held in Parkston, S.D., at a later date. Arrangements are by Weatherford Funeral Home & Crematory in Kalispell.

The family suggests memorial contributions to Friendship House, 606 Second Ave. W., Kalispell.

George Alton (Al) Schooley, 60

George Alton (Al) Schooley, 60, of Whitefish, died of pulmonary fibrosis complicated by Legionnaires' disease on Jan. 27, 1993, at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

Al was born Aug. 3, 1932, in Whitefish, to Harold H. and Lena Schooley. He was raised and received his education in Whitefish and was a graduate of Whitefish High School.

During the Korean War, Al served in the U.S. Air Force from 1951-1955. Following his active service, Al was a member of the Whitefish National Guard for four years.

He was employed with the Great Northern Railway and at the time of his death, was an employee of the Burlington Northern Railroad with 32 years of service.

Al married Elizabeth (Betty) Ann

Howke on Aug. 29, 1951, in Dillon and is now survived by her at their home in Whitefish.

He is also survived by two daughters, Crystal Morgan of Whitefish and Carol Rogers of Kalispell; two granddaughters, Wendy Rogers and Heather Morgan, both of Whitefish; a grandson, Dustin Rogers, of Kalispell; a sister, Shirley Hamberlin, of Whitefish; two brothers, Burton C. Schooley of Whitefish and Harold Schooley of Cody, Wyo.; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at Austin Funeral Home with the Rev. Jerry Bechtle of United Methodist Church of Whitefish officiating. Private interment will take place at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

William Scholl, 57

William J. Scholl, 57, of Martin City, died Wednesday at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

A graveside service is scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday at the Marion National Cemetery in Marion, Ind., with military graveside rites.

Columbia Mortuary is in charge of local arrangements.

Marie M. Schrankel, 68

Marie M. Schrankel, 68, died Thursday, Jan. 14, 1993, in West Glacier.

She was born July 8, 1924, in Chicago, Ill., to Henry and Mary Schrepfer. She was raised and educated in Chicago.

She married Robert L. Schrankel on Jan. 28, 1944, in Connecticut. They lived in Carpentersville, Ill., until moving to West Glacier nine years ago.

She was a member of the Senior Citizens Center in Columbia Falls and St. Richards Catholic Church.

She is survived by her husband, Robert L. Schrankel, of West Glacier; three children and their spouses, Jim and Linda Schrankel of Spokane, Wash., Donna and Michael Mapes of Carpentersville, and Nancy and Roberto Rodriguez of Carpen-tersville, a sister, Rita Morrison, of Arlington, Texas; a brother, Henry Schrepfer, of Oak Lawn, Ill.; and nine grandchildren, Michael Schrankel of Corvallis, Ore., Sam Schrankel of Spokane, and Michael Mapes Jr., Matthew Mapes, Cheyne Hanoski, Carol Anne Hanoski, Bryan Rodriguez, Chad Rodriguez, and Kevin Rodriguez, all of Carpentersville.

A wake service will be held today at 6:30 p.m. at Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls. Mass of the Christian Burial will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. at St. Richards Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Patrick McGurk will officiate.

The family has suggested that memorials be made to Columbia Falls Senior Citizens Center or to St. Richards Catholic Church.

Timothy Schuldheiss, 49

Timothy Schuldheiss, 49, of Kalispell, died of lung cancer on Thursday, Aug. 12, 1993, at Brendan House.

He was born Feb. 26, 1944, in Minneapolis, to the Rev. Allen and Leona (Oster) Schuldheiss. He moved to the Flathead where he graduated from Flathead high School in 1962.

He attended the University of Montana for two years and then graduated from Kinman Business University in Spokane, with a degree in business administration.

He also served in the U.S. Army.

In 1964, he was married to Shiela Landwehr by his father at Trinity Lutheran Church in Kalispell.

He worked for the Daily Inter Lake as circulation manager for 9 1/2 years. He also owned and operated Bea's Boys Shop, the Pant Shack, and Children's Alley for 14 years in downtown Kalispell. He was in the convenience store business and had Tim's Exxon on Idaho up until the time of his illness. He was well-known for his hard work and kindness.

He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and was associated with different downtown business organizations for more than 25 years. He loved to hunt and fish and spent many years bowling.

He was the anchor to his family and was loved by them all. He will be deeply missed.

He is survived by his wife, Shiela, of the family home; two sons, Darren, of the family home and Tim Jr. and his wife, Christine, of Kalispell; a daughter, Amy Beth Bennett, and her husband, Grady Bennett, of Kalispell; his parents, the Rev. Allen and Leona Schuldheiss, of Kalispell; his mother-in-law and father-in-law, Leonard and Lee Landwehr of Kalispell; a brother, Stephen Schuldheiss, of Portland, Ore.; a sister, Mary Beth Osborne, of Denver; his grandmother, Ethel Johnson, of Kalispell; and three grandchildren, Katie and Logan Schuldheiss, and Reegan Bennett, all of Kalispell.

Memorial services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church with the Rev. Darold Reiner officiating. Private burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday.

Betty Lou Burns Schroeder, 71

Betty Lou Burns Schroeder, 71, of Missoula, died Monday, Feb. 1, 1993, at St. Patrick Hospital.

She was born Aug. 12, 1921, in Bovill, Idaho, to Robert and Velma Jean Burns. She graduated from the University of Montana and attended the University of Washington in Seattle. 1 FEB 1993

She met her husband who was in the Air Force while she was employed by the Army as a job analyst in Anchorage, Alaska.

On Sept. 2, 1945, she married Robert A. Schroeder in Kilgore, Texas. They couple ranched near Whitehall for 23 years until moving to Bigfork in 1970.

She is survived by her husband Robert A. Schroeder; two daughters, Michele McCoy of Summerville, Ore. and Samantha Schroeder of Helena; a son, Jeff Schroeder, of Missoula; a sister, Bobbie Lee Ward of The Dalles, Ore.; two grandsons; and a niece and two nephews.

Services will be held Friday at 3 p.m. at Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church in Missoula.

The family suggests memorials to the University of Montana Sociology Department.

Aimee Reed Saling, 84

Aimee Reed Saling died of causes related to multiple sclerosis on Tuesday, May 4, 1993, in a Portland, Ore., convalescent center. She was 84.

She was born Aimee Florence Reed on Sept. 3, 1908, in Kalispell. She attended Flathead County High School and Billings Normal School. She taught school in Saco.

She married Henry D. Saling on Nov. 28, 1935, in Kalispell, where she was employed at Anderson Style

MAY 1993
Shop. She moved to Portland in 1942 with her husband. She was a home provider.

Mrs. Saling is survived by her son, John Saling, of Portland; her daughter, Nancy Graham, of Los Angeles; and three grandsons.

Disposition was by cremation.

The family suggests that remembrances be contributions to the Multiple Sclerosis Society, Oregon Chapter.

Fred Schweigert, 72

Fred Schweigert, 72, of Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital on Sunday, April 25, 1993, of natural causes.

He was born Aug. 18, 1920, in Plevna, Mont., to Phillip and Katherine Schweigert. He had received his education in Montana, and on Sept. 26, 1954, he was married to Florence M. Walworth in Billings.

In 1968, they moved to Kalispell where Mr. Schweigert worked for the Arco Co. until his retirement. He shared his wife's dedication to work with the Flathead Industries.

He had enjoyed stock car races, playing cards and his grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Florence, on Feb. 20, 1993, and is now survived by six children, Tana Greene, Brian Wray, Val Schweigert, Bob Schweigert and Ken Schweigert, all of Kalispell and Billie Wray of Billings; one brother, Phillip, of Baker; three sisters, Lydia Christman and Betty Christman, both of Plevna, and Katherine Leno, of Tuttle, N.D.; a sister-in-law, Tillie Quincer, of Plevna; numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and other relatives.

Memorial services will be held at 4 p.m. on Thursday in St. Peter Lutheran Church in Whitefish with the Rev. Vernon Sandersfeld officiating. A potluck dinner will follow the services at the church.

The family suggests memorials be made to the St. Peter Lutheran Church.

Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Florence 'Flo' Margaret Schweigert, 75

Florence "Flo" Margaret Schweigert, 75, of Kalispell, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital Feb. 20, 1993.

She was a retired teacher and had dedicated her life to working with Flathead Industries for the Handicapped.

On Sept. 26, 1954, she married Fred Schweigert and is survived by him at the family home.

She is also survived by daughters

Tana Greene, of Kalispell, and Billie Wray, of Billings; sons Brian Wray and Val Schweigert, both of Kalispell; stepsons Bob Schweigert and Ken Schweigert, both of Kalispell, plus many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and other relatives.

A memorial service is scheduled at 4 p.m. Tuesday at St. Peter Lutheran Church in Whitefish with Rev. Eldon Martens officiating. A potluck dinner at the church will follow the service. The family suggests memorials to St. Peter Lutheran Church.

Cremation and arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Margaret Elizabeth Casey Schwennesen, 76

Margaret Elizabeth Casey Schwennesen, 76, died Dec. 23, 1993, at Immanuel Lutheran Home in Kalispell.

She was born Aug. 31, 1917, in San Francisco to Ralph I. and Mabel Robertson Casey. She was raised in Elizabeth, N.J., and in Chicago, where she graduated from Senn High School.

In 1941, she married Donald O. Schwennesen. He was an electrical engineer and an executive in specialty metals and steel production.

They lived in Chicago and Skokie, Ill., Haverford, Penn., and Crystal Lake, Ill. They divorced in 1967.

In later years she lived in San Francisco, suburban Dallas, and Colorado Springs.

For many years she was a member of the Baptist church (American Baptist Assembly), was active in PEO, and served in elected offices as a school board chairman in Skokie and as town clerk in Lakewood, Ill. She was fond of travel and made several trips to Europe, Japan and South America.

She is survived by a son, Donald, of Bigfork; daughters Jean Rothe of Colorado Springs and Joan Amideo of Alpharetta, Ga.; eight nieces and nephews; and nine grandchildren.

A brother, Larry Casey, of Chicago, preceded her in death.

Memorials should be sent to the Alzheimer's Association.

Private family services are being planned for a later date.

Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

James R. Scriver

Aug 26 1993
James R. Scriver, 51, Kalispell, died in the Brendan House on Thursday Aug. 26, of cancer. He was born June 8, 1942, in Browning, a son of Robert and Alice Scriver. He was a wildlife artist and sportsman. He served his country as a U.S. Marine in Viet Nam. On July 9, 1967, he married Jacqueline Snodgrass in El Monte, Calif. and is now survived by his wife "Jackie" at the home in Kalispell. He is also survived by two daughters, Jann Scriver of Whitefish and Jenifer Scriver at home; his father, Bob Scriver and his wife, Lorraine, of Browning; three sisters, Joann Svendsen of Yakima, Wash., Carrie Rodda of Pendleton, Ore. and Cheryl of Yakima; his brother, John Skogen of Yakima; his good buddies, Gene, Gerhard, Mary and Ron and others. He fought the good fight and is now in the arms of Jesus.

Graveside services were held at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27 in the Glacier Memorial Gardens. Military honors were conducted by the United Veterans organization. The family suggests memorials be given to the family in lieu of flowers.

Lila 'Riley' Sells, 62

30 Mar 1993
Lila M. "Riley" Sells, 62, of Troy, died of respiratory failure Saturday at Community Hospital in Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

She is survived by her husband, Ernest, of Troy; two daughters; a brother, Hilton (Johnnie) Cook of Libby; four sisters, including Betty Morkeberg and Ruth Rogge, both of Troy; her stepmother, Marjorie Cook, of Columbia Falls; a half-sister, Helen Lahr, of Rexford; a half-brother, Harvey Cook, of Columbia Falls; and two grandchildren.

Friends may call at Vial Funeral Home in Libby from 2-9 p.m. on Wednesday and until noon on Thursday.

Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at Troy Church of God with the Rev. Gene Bushnell officiating. Burial will be in Troy Cemetery.

Robert Clinton Semlek, 36

27 Mar 1993
Robert Clinton Semlek, 36, the son of Major Robert Semlek and Rebecca Semlek Steed, died Saturday, March 27, 1993, in Whitefish. He was born in Stuttgart, Germany.

In Columbus, Ga., Robert graduated from Hardaway High School, in the National Honors Society. He also graduated from Columbus College affiliated with the University of Georgia with a degree in finance and graduated from the Gemological Institute of America in Los Angeles, Calif.

Surviving family members include his mother, Rebecca Semlek Steed, and stepfather, Carlee Steed, of Columbus; his grandmother, Mrs. B.J. Hawkins, of Columbus; a sister, Deborah Crawford, of Fort Mead, Ma.; a brother, Dean Fatuch, of Anchorage, Alaska; aunts and uncles Walter Hawkins of East Palatka, Fla., B.J. Hawkins of Augusta, Ga., Bill Semlek of Gillette, Wyo., Heartha Larson of Gillette, and Erna McCaughin of Cascade; and three nephews and one niece.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish. Cremation will follow the services.

Marilla Shales, 89

Marilla Shales, 89, died Monday, Aug. 30, 1993, in Immanuel Lutheran Home, where she has resided for the past number of years.

She was born July 13, 1904, in Genesee County, Mich., to Jesse and Lillie Shales. She had received her education in Michigan and been employed in housework.

During World War II she worked as a blueprint inspector and folder in Detroit. Following the death of her father in 1946, she stayed at home with her mother and worked at the Romeo Orchard's packing house.

Following the death of her mother in 1967, she came to Somers to live with her brother, Earl. She also lived in Hamilton for a short time returning to the Flathead in 1977. She has been a resident of the Immanuel Lutheran home since that time.

She had been an active member of the Central Bible Church of Kalispell.

She was also preceded in death by her brother, Earl in 1978, and is now survived by several cousins in Missouri and the Eastern states.

Graveside services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery with the Rev. Ron Youde, pastor of the Central Bible Church, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 6 p.m. on Wednesday.

David Shank, 77

David Shank, 77, of Kalispell, died at his home on Jan. 27, 1993, of natural causes.

He was born April 2, 1915, in Cincinnati, Iowa, to John and Frances Shank. He received his education in Iowa, graduating from high school in 1933. He worked for the railroad for a number of years before moving to Miles City, where he taught at the Pine Hills School for Boys.

In 1959 he moved to Kalispell to become the town's first juvenile probation officer, a job he held until he retired at age 63. He encountered hundreds of youngsters during those years as a probation officer and tried to help them in every way possible.

Being a friend was his primary principle, but he believed in being fair. He attended schools, seminars and workshops by the score, sometimes as a participant, many times as an instructor. He instituted the VIP program — Very Intensive Probation — a one-on-one situation to try to help the youngster over the rough spots. He was one of the first to work for a foster home placement program.

His hobbies included gardening, flowers, traveling, boating, cooking and his tropical fish. He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his sisters and a brother.

Survivors include a niece, several nephews and their families and many local friends who loved him.

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church in Kalispell, with Rev. Kenneth Mottram officiating. Coffee hour will be held at the church following the service. The casket will be closed for the service and cremation will take place following the service. Graveside services and burial of urn will be held later at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation 1-4 p.m. Sunday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday. Memorials may be made to Flathead Industries, designated for Youth Projects, 305 Third Ave. E., Kalispell. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Robert E. Shaw, 62

31 Dec 1993
Robert E. Shaw, 62, died of natural causes at the Montana Veteran's Home in Columbia Falls on Friday, Dec. 31, 1993.

He was born Feb. 15, 1931, in Great Falls, to Henry and Alice Shaw.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1949 until 1955 in Panama and Korea. Following his honorable discharge, he worked as a firefighter with the Forest Service in the Flathead Valley for two years until he retired due to illness.

He loved to play pinochle. Robert had resided in the Veteran's Home since 1990.

He is survived by three sons, Gerald and Bill Shaw of Kalispell and Clayton Shaw of Missoula; a daughter, Rockanna Arneson, of Kalispell; two brothers, Merle of Oceanside, Calif., and Bill of Kalispell; a sister, Marlene Freeman, of Whitefish; 14 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Military graveside services will be held at 1 p.m. on Wednesday at the Montana Veterans Home cemetery in Columbia Falls. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Robert E. Shaw 194

31 Dec 1993
Robert E. Shaw, 62, died in the Montana Veteran's Home in Columbia Falls on Friday, Dec. 31, of natural causes. He was born February 15, 1931 in Great Falls, a son of Harry and Alice Shaw. He served in the U.S. Army from 1949 until 1955 where he served in Panama and Korea. Following his honorable discharge, he worked as a fire fighter with the Forest Service in the Flathead Valley for two years until he retired due to illness. He loved to play Pinochle.

Robert had resided in the Veteran's Home since 1990. He is survived by three sons, Gerald and Bill Shaw of Kalispell and Clayton Shaw of Missoula; a daughter, Rockanna Arneson of Kalispell; a sister, Marlene Freeman of Whitefish; 14 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Military graveside services were held on Wednesday in the Montana Veterans Home Cemetery at Columbia Falls. Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

Harold Shenefelt, 77

Harold Shenefelt, 77, died Monday at his home in Libby of natural causes. 20 Dec 1993

Survivors include his son, Robert Shenefelt of Eureka; three sisters, Esther Paul, Myrtle Richmond and Helen DeLong, all of Kalispell; seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Services will be Monday at 10 a.m. at Tobacco Valley Cemetery in Eureka with the Rev. David Hopper officiating.

Arrangements are by Vial Funeral Home.

Mary Maude Sherman, 70 6 JAN 1993

Mary Maude Sherman, 70, of Kalispell, died of heart failure at her home on Wednesday, Jan. 6, 1993.

She was born Jan. 7, 1922, in Milwaukee, Wis., to Harrison Falley and Hilda (Nygard) Brayton.

On Nov. 3, 1945 she married to Boyd W. Sherman. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Mary Maude's parents homesteaded in the North Fork in 1923. She attended school there for two years before her family moved to Kalispell. She graduated from Flathead High School in 1940. The homestead still exists and she enjoyed her frequent visits there with her family.

Mary Maude was a very loving and giving woman and was mom to more than her family. She enjoyed the outdoors, traveling and getting together with family and friends.

She was a member of Adah Chapter #17, Order of Eastern Star, Good Sams Club, and the Eagles Auxilliary. She had attended the "Class of 40" and Flathead Christian Women's Federation luncheon monthly.

She was preceded in death by her parents and a son, Warren, who died in 1966.

Survivors include her husband, Boyd, of Kalispell; a son and daughter-in-law, Myron and Gail Sherman, of Kalispell; a daughter and son-in-law, Randy and Mary E. Winter, of Kalispell; three grandchildren, Jason and Blake Sherman and Kyle Winter, all of Kalispell; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday at Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Robert Nilsen, pastor of Calvary Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Friends may call for visitation at Johnson Mortuary from noon until 6 p.m. today.

The family suggests memorials may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Leo Wayne Shepherd, 66

Leo Wayne Shepherd, 66, of Kalispell, died Thursday, Nov. 4, 1993, in Brendan House. Leo was a dedicated Montana educator, coach and administrator.

He was born June 20, 1927, on the family farm south of Chester. He was the youngest of five children born to Liberty County homesteaders Glen and Lottie Mitchell Shepherd. He graduated from Chester High School in 1945.

Following graduation, he served in the U.S. Navy as a seaman first class, and returned to attend Northern Montana College in Havre, where he earned his elementary education diploma.

After teaching and coaching for several years in Chester and Kalispell, Leo earned his bachelor of arts degree in secondary education and his masters degree in educational administration in 1961 from the University of Montana. He was a longtime member of the University of Montana Alumni Association and an avid Grizzly fan.

Mr. Shepherd touched the lives of thousands of Montanans through his professional and personal life. He taught and coached boys and girls basketball in several Montana communities and served as superintendent of schools in Superior, Winnett and Rapelje.

In 1958, Leo was elected as Flathead County Superintendent of Schools. Later he became the first business manager and registrar for Flathead Valley Community College. Leo was instrumental in establishing LASER (alternative high school) as the project's home school counselor.

Gov. Tim Babcock appointed him to the Montana Milk Control Board for a five-year term. Leo was also employed as a bank loan officer at First National Bank in Kalispell from 1964 to 1967.

He was active and enjoyed helping others. He liked to visit, travel, camp, carpenter, dance, play cards, shoot pool, and most of all, spend time with his loving wife and family. Leo spent several years as a tour boat captain in Glacier Park and enjoyed many winters in Mesa, Ariz.

Leo is survived by his wife, Arlene Tutvedt Shepherd, his high school sweetheart, whom he married 45 years ago. Other survivors include a son, Glen, and his wife, Debra, of Kalispell; daughters, Lottie, and her husband, Dan Eggen, of Billings, and Lynda and her husband, John Baker, of Great Falls.

Leo was the proud grandfather of seven grandchildren, Shawn and Dan Baker, Tara and Darci Eggen and Josie, Jennie and Jaime Shepherd. He is also survived by his brother, Neil Shepherd of Chester; his stepmother, Ava Shepherd Siderius of Kalispell; two stepsisters, Mary Anna Zauner of Kalispell and Dixie Tye of Duluth, Minn.; and numerous other relatives.

Leo was blessed with many friends and a large caring family.

At his request, cremation has taken place and no funeral services will be held. A memorial gathering will be in Chester at a later date.

Memorials may be given to the school of your choice or to Flathead Hospice, 1280 Burns Way No. 3, Kalispell, who along with many others gave loving support and care during his courageous battle with cancer.

Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

<sup>13 Sept 1993</sup> Verna Florence 'Toots' Shiflett, 68

Funeral services are to be held today for Verna Florence "Toots" Shiflett, 68, of Eureka, who died Monday at Colonial Manor in Whitefish.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a daughter, two brothers, and a sister.

She is survived by a son; four sisters, including Daisy Smith of Kalispell, Margie Cook of Columbia Falls, and Edith Nelson of Hot Springs; two brothers, Fred Nelson in Libby and John Nelson in Troy; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services are at 2 p.m. today at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with Dr. David Kauffman officiating. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens.

James H. Shima, 69

23 Nov 1993
James H. Shima, 69, of Whitefish, died Sunday at North Valley Hospital of a heart attack.

He was employed as a butcher in the Armour meat packing plant for 28 years.

He is survived by his wife, Joyce, at the family home; three daughters, Janice Hall in Minneapolis, Minn., Jody Foster in Mason City, Iowa, and Jill Bielefeld in Richfield, Minn.; two sisters; two brothers; and five grandchildren.

No services are planned. Arrangements are under the direction of Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish.

Frances H. Siemons, 75

26 April 1993
Frances H. Siemons, 75, of Kalispell, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital on Monday.

She is survived by one brother; one sister; and several other relatives.

Memorial services will be held at a later date. Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Ellen M. Shuttlesworth

2 Feb 1993
Ellen M. Shuttlesworth, 81, Kalispell, died Tuesday morning (February 2) of natural causes at Heritage Place in Kalispell. 1993

She was born April 13, 1911 in Townsend, MT, the daughter of Myrtle and Walter Karn. As a young girl, she came with her family to St Regis, where she was raised and educated. She graduated as valedictorian of St Regis High School in 1929.

On June 19, 1931, she married Harold C. Shuttlesworth in Missoula. Except for a few years in WA state, they spent the rest of their lives in Western MT. Ellen had lived in the Flathead Valley for the past 20 years.

She was a very active member of the Jehovah's Witnesses.

Her husband passed away in 1972, and she was also preceded in death by her parents, a sister and a brother.

Survivors include two sons, Lyle K. Shuttlesworth of Kalispell and Monte H. Shuttlesworth of Coupeville, WA; one daughter, Ellen Marguerite Bass of Eagle, ID; 11 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and a number of other relatives and friends.

Memorial services were Saturday (February 6) at 2:00 p.m. at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 1414 Woodland Avenue in Kalispell. Officiating was Harvey Hawkins. Private urn burial took place at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls.

Arrangements were by the Weatherford Funeral Home & Crematory in Kalispell.

Stanley W. Shropshire, 55

17 Feb 1993
Stanley W. Shropshire, 55, died of pneumonia Wednesday, Feb. 17, 1993.

He was born Dec. 17, 1937, to Stanley and Emolene Shropshire. He graduated from Central High in Cincinnati, Ohio in 1954.

He spent the next 22 1/2 years in the Army. He served in the United States, Korea, Germany, France and Vietnam. He received numerous decorations, awards and citations. He retired as a staff sergeant in 1977.

He then moved to Kentucky for three years before moving to Whitefish in 1980. He enjoyed fishing, camping, boating, and playing cribbage and chess. His love for children was evident as he took children in to raise and enjoy.

Survivors include his wife, Lynette; his son, Jared; his sister, Mary Gill of Simi Valley, Calif.; and numerous nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his father, his mother and a sister in infancy.

Memorial services will be held Wednesday at 3 p.m. at the Nazarene Church. A gathering will be held after the services at the Whitefish Motel office.

Patrick S. Sibley, 25

Patrick S. Sibley, 25, died Saturday, June 19, 1993, from an accidental gunshot wound while camping at Spotted Bear Campground.

He was born Feb. 12, 1968, in Kalispell, to Roger and Marlene Sibley. He attended school in Kalispell and graduated from Flathead High School in 1986.

His hobbies included music, sports and the great outdoors.

In 1987, he married Kim Kiel. He had been employed at Kelly Main Street Furniture as a salesperson for the past six years.

He was a member of the Northridge Lutheran Church.

Patrick's greatest love was his son, Andrew. A true Montanan, he shared his zest for life with his friends and family. He was an inspiration and will be dearly missed by all those lives he touched. He was preceded in death by an infant twin sister; and his grandparents, Harold and Hazel Sibley.

He is survived by his son, Andrew, his parents, Marlene and Roger Sibley, and a brother, Daniel Sibley, all of Kalispell; a sister, Kelly Nelson, and brother-in-law, John Nelson, and niece, Nicole Nelson, all of Cardiff by the Sea, Calif.; grandparents, Art and Bea Rasmussen of Kalispell; and many extended family members and dear friends.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Thursday in Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Graveside services will follow at the Conrad Memorial Cemetery with a reception afterwards at the church.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. today and Wednesday.

In lieu of flowers, the family has established a trust fund, and memorials may be sent to the Andrew Roger Sibley Trust Fund, 383 N. Juniper Bay, Somers, 59932.

Vivian Slavens, 89

Vivian Slavens, 89, of Bigfork, died Thursday, Feb. 25, 1993 at Lake View Care Center in Bigfork.

She was born April 12, 1903, in Victor, where she lived until age 18. She then worked in Missoula, and later moved to Spokane. There she met her future husband, Ray Slavens. They were married in Spokane March 24, 1933.

The Slavens spent most of their married life near Seattle. Her husband died April 25, 1982, and she then came to Bigfork to be with her niece and nephew-in-law, Ann and James Boyette. After six months in Bigfork, she lived for many years at the Missoula Manor, returning to Bigfork two years ago.

She was a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Grants Pass, Ore., and was active in a number of civic organizations.

Surviving are brothers A.L. "Mutt" Mowatt, of Deer Lodge, and Clarence Van Blaircom, of Bremerton, Wash.; three nieces and one nephew. She was preceded in death by a brother, Bo Mowatt.

Public services are not planned at this time. Arrangements are by Bigfork Funeral Home, with cremation at Weatherford Crematory in Kalispell.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, PO Box 2472, Spokane, WA, 99210.

Helmer N. 'Bud' Sletvold, 82

Helmer N. "Bud" Sletvold, 82, died Friday evening, Sept. 10, 1993, at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born March 22, 1911, in Oakes, N.D. to Fred and Ida Sletvold. He was raised and educated in Oakes, where he graduated from Oakes High School in 1929. He attended North Dakota State University Agricultural College, where he studied geology from 1930 to 1931. He left school, came home, and worked for his dad, learning the business of well drilling until 1941.

He served in the Army from 1942 until 1945. He was an M.P. in the Army and was stationed in Alaska and the Asian Pacific. He returned to North Dakota after his discharge.

He married Gladys Wilke on Sept. 22, 1951, in Ellendale, N.D., and lived in the area until 1957 when they moved to Cut Bank. He worked on oil rigs and also ran a filling station.

In 1961, they moved to Deer Lodge, where he worked as a prison guard at the Montana State Prison. In 1963, they moved to Kalispell. He moved to his cabin at Houghton Creek near Happy's Inn where he solely parented his children for the next four years.

He was considered remarkable for his ingenuity and tenacity. He was instrumental in founding the Crystal Community Church at the Manicke School site, even donating the family piano.

He ran a trap line and was an avid fisherman and hunter.

He was employed by the Forest Service at Raven Ranger Station on the trail crew until his retirement in 1973.

He is survived by a brother, Fred Sletvold of Spokane, Wash.; a twin sister, Helen Shirey of North Dakota, and sisters Lois Marie Ringquist of Minnesota and Grace Myers; his children, Linda Port Thompson of Kalispell, Fred Sletvold of Honolulu, Hawaii, Nels Sletvold of Columbia Falls, Dale Sletvold of Honolulu, Junell Berrett of Kalispell and Brenda Siefke of Troy; and numerous grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls.

Leonard V. Smith, 78

Leonard V. Smith, 78, died at his home in Bigfork on Saturday, Sept. 11, 1993.

He was born March 29, 1915, in Bigfork, to James D. and Jessie Rost Smith. He attended Swan River School.

On Aug. 9, 1933, he married Eva L. Kitzmiller in Polson.

He was a carpenter on the West Coast for a while and worked in the Butte mines for nine years, and also in the mines at Metaline Falls, Wash.

He was the carpenter foreman for several dam construction projects including Cabinet Gorge Dam, Nonon Rapids Dam, Hungry Horse Dam, Wanapum Dam, Boundry Dam and the Libby Dam. He then retired from construction work and in his later years engaged in farming, cattle and woodwork.

He enjoyed motorcycles and he best loved the Indian Chief motorcycle. He was a member of the carpenters union. 11 SEP 1993

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Lloyd Smith and Leo Smith.

He is survived by his wife, Eva, at home in Bigfork; his daughter, Shirley Ganz, and his son, Fred Smith, both of Bigfork; two sisters, Irene Crohn of Bigfork and Doris Stempin of Columbia Falls; a brother, Stanley "Doc" Smith, of Spokane, Wash.; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday at Lonepine Cemetery near Bigfork with the Rev. Ron Pierce, pastor of the Swan Chapel, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services.

Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary from noon to 6 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Tuesday for visitation.

31 July 1993
Robert Lee Smidl, 77

Robert Lee Smidl, 77, a Columbia Falls resident, died Saturday evening of natural causes.

He is survived by his wife, Dottie, at the family home in Columbia Falls; a son, Robert Smidl in Florida; two daughters, Judy Karen O'Connell in Denver, Colo., and Sherri Lynn (Thomas K.) Hughes in Columbia Falls; a sister; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial services will be at a later date. Arrangements are under the direction of Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls.

5 MAR 1993
Thomas B. Smith, 84

Thomas B. Smith, 84, a long-time Columbia Falls resident, died March 5, 1993, at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

He was born Nov. 29, 1908, in Columbia Falls to A.N. and Lottie Smith. He graduated from Columbia Falls High School in 1926 and then attended the Kinman Business College in Spokane. He then worked as an accountant at Fort Belknap and Fort Peck.

In 1939, he and his brother, Bob, established Smith Brother's Service Station and Bulk Plant, which they operated until 1955.

In 1961, Tom and Bob built Glacier Lanes and with their wives operated the bowling alley until 1968. Tom continued to bowl until two years ago.

He was a member of the Columbia Falls Fire Department for 17 years, and a charter member of the Ambulance Association and secretary of Woodlawn Cemetery for more than 20 years.

He enjoyed camping, fishing and being around young people. He was an avid basketball fan.

In 1947, he married Margaret Downes Benson and was preceded by her in death on Aug. 14, 1987. He was also preceded by two brothers, a daughter and a son.

Survivors include daughter Sandra Smith, of Kingman, Ariz.; stepdaughters Berna Jean Crowe and Elaine Countryman of Columbia Falls; brother Robert J. Smith of Columbia Falls; nine grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren and one nephew.

Cremation has taken place and a private service will be held later. Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Falls is in charge of arrangements.

1 NOV 1993
Ethel May Smith

Ethel May Smith, 70, of Whitefish, died Nov. 1, at the North Valley Hospital in Whitefish. She was born Aug. 28, 1923 in McGregor, Minn., daughter of Ed & Laura Kramer. The family moved to the Flathead Valley in 1929 and lived on the farm to Market Road. She received her education in the Bissell School and finished school at Flathead County High School in Kalispell. She married Harry Smith on Aug. 19, 1940, and they lived in the Whitefish/Columbia Falls area for many years working at logging camps in the North Fork of Lloyd Sauderson. After the death of her husband, she worked as a cook at the Soldiers Home in Columbia Falls, later moving to Snohomish, Wash., where she was employed at a local rest home. After her retirement, she returned to the Flathead Valley where she enjoyed her ten wonderful children and their families.

She was preceded in death by her husband Harry, a son Don, her parents Ed and Laura, a brother Eddie, a granddaughter Laurie and grandson Tyrell. Surviving members of the family include two sisters Myrtle Hutchens of Bissell and Caroline Fisher of Moses Lake, Wash.; a son Roger Smith, of Everett, Wash.; a daughter, Carol Dale of Seattle; a son Harry (Jim) Smith of Grand Rapids, Minn.; a daughter Pattyy McMurdo of Whitefish, a daughter Pam Brown of Olney, a daughter Sherry Pierce of Sacramento, Calif., daughter Sandy Clark of Lake Stevens, Wash.; son Mike Smith of Kalispell; daughter Michelle Truman of Eureka; 28 grandchildren and six great grandchildren; two sisters-in-law Jane Barnes and Louise LaBrie both of Whitefish and many other relatives.

Graveside Services and burial of the Urn is today at 2 p.m. at the Glacier Memorial Gardens cemetery near Kalispell. Dr. David V. Kauffman of the Whitefish Christian Church will officiate. A reception will follow the Graveside rites at the Whitefish Golden agers center.