

Arlene Elva Maddux, 76

Arlene Elva Maddux, 76, of Libby died on natural causes on Wednesday, March 27, 1996, at Libby Care Center. She was born Sept. 5, 1919, at Whitefish, Mont., to Fred and Shirley Chase. She attended school in Libby and Whitefish. She married Glen T. Maddux on Jan. 29, 1937. They moved to Troy in 1941. The two worked together for many years, buying Christmas trees every year. They also owned and developed the Fairview Heights area. She loved bowling, needle work and reading.

Survivors include one daughter, Kay Collogan of Libby; one son, Rodney Maddux of Troy; one sister, Evelyn Maddux of Whitefish; one brother, Earl Chase of Troy, five grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Glen T. Maddux, in 1980 and a son, Robert, in 1964.

Services will be Tuesday, April 9, 1996, at 11 a.m., Nelson and Vial Funeral Home in Libby. Interment will be at the Troy cemetery. Memorials may be given to the Alzheimer's Disease Research, 15825 Shady Grove Rd., Suite 140, Rockville, MD 20850-4022.

Robert L. Maddox, 89

Longtime resident of the east lakeshore at Bigfork, Robert L. Maddox, 89, died in Burnet, Texas, on Tuesday, July 9, 1996.

He and his wife, Margaret, came to the east shore in 1959, and resided there in the summers and after retiring from teaching in Odessa, Texas.

He served on the board of the Flathead Cherry Growers Association, supported the Bigfork Playhouse and shared his musical expertise with many of the area schools and students.

He and his wife attended Swan Lake Chapel.

He was band director of Odessa High School from 1947 to 1960, at which time he became the supervisor of music for the Ector County Independent School District. His involvement in music was far-reaching as indicated by being president of the Texas Music Educators' Association; life member of the Texas Band Association; TBA Band Master of the Year; member of American Bandmasters Association; member of Phi Beta Mu, Kappa Kappa Psi; Who's Who in Music; and executive secretary of Region VI, UIL. In 1991, he was inducted into the Phi Beta Mu Hall of Fame.

He is survived by his son, Robert L. Maddox III, of Charlotte, N.C.; daughters, Virginia M. Hankins and her husband, William J. Hankins, of El Paso, Texas, and Carolyn M. Johnson and her husband, Bill M. Johnson, of Burnet; five grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be in Ballinger, Texas at 2 p.m. on Saturday. He will be buried next to his wife who died in 1976.

Clements-Wilcox Funeral Home in Burnet is handling the services. Memorial contributions may be made to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation, American Cancer Society or Bigfork Summer Playhouse.

Betty Mae MaGuire, 71

Betty Mae MaGuire, 71, died Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1996, at her home in Swan Lake.

She was born May 29, 1924, in Great Falls to Harlow and Ruth Liesenfeld. She attended schools in Great Falls, graduating from Great Falls High School.

She married Kevin MaGuire in 1942 in Fort Benton.

She was fond of the Swan Lake area, where she and her husband owned a cabin for the past 32 years. They lived full-time there since November of 1994.

She loved her family; they always came first with her. She was a longtime member of the Ladies VFW Auxiliary Post 1087.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

She is survived by her husband, Kevin, of Swan Lake; five daughters, Judi Cooper of the Marshall Islands, Connie Hangen of Spokane, Kathy Welsch of Coram, Pat Fraser of Cascade and Karan Sislo of Great Falls; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial services will be in Great Falls at a time and date to be announced in a few days. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements and cremation.

Thomas MacCary, infant

Thomas Roy-Allen MacCary, 2 1/2-month-old son of Patty Taylor and Kevin MacCary of Kalispell, died at Kalispell Regional Hospital on Saturday, April 6, 1996.

He was born Jan. 22, 1996, in Kalispell.

He was preceded in death by his great-grandmother, Minnie Geldrich; grandfather, Charles R. MacCary; and great-grandfather, Louis Bernard.

He is survived by his parents, Patty Taylor and Kevin MacCary, and two brothers, Devin Andrew Leim and Robert J. Taylor, all at home in Kalispell; grandparents, Ann MacCary, Bob and Jenny Taylor, and Ralph and Cheryl Turley, all of Kalispell, and Glenn Allen and Norma Wenrick of Spokane; aunts and uncles, Karen and Tim Simpson, Jamey Taylor, Bobbi J. Taylor and Robby and Susan Eickert, all of Kalispell; great-grandparents, Ralph Geldrick of Arizona, Viola Wenrick of Spokane and Helen Bernard and Howard and Sally Taylor, all of Kalispell; and a cousin, Robert Eickert.

Graveside services will be held at 6 p.m. Thursday at Glacier Memorial Gardens. Friends may call at Johnson Mortuary on Wednesday and on Thursday for visitation.

Donald MacKenzie, 71

Donald W. MacKenzie died Monday evening, Jan. 22, 1996, in St. Mary's Hospital at Kankakee, Ill.

He was born to George and Mary Larsen MacKenzie in Bradley, Ill., on Sept. 8, 1924, the youngest of seven children. He graduated from Bradley schools and when he was 18 entered the U.S. Army during WW II. He was wounded in action on the Island of Leyte in the Philippines and was awarded the Purple Heart for his injuries, from which he never fully recovered.

He worked for a freight company for 32 years and was a member of the teamsters union.

He married Violet Nardini in Franklin Park, Ill., on March 31, 1951, and she died June 6, 1976. He was also preceded in death by a sister, Alice, in infancy; a sister, Marion M. Spires and her husband, Virgil T. Spires; and a brother-in-law, Donald V. Weakly.

He is survived by a brother, Edwin MacKenzie and his wife, Mary, of Ladd, Ill.; sisters Edith Phillips and her husband, Leonard, of Oak Lawn, Ill., Norma Faford and her husband, Paul, of Bourbonnaise, Ill., and Shirley Weakly of Kalispell; a niece, Sharon Miller and her husband, Alvin, of Kalispell; a nephew, James B. Weakly of Kalispell and Bradley, Ill.; and several nieces and nephews in Illinois, Montana, Texas and Oregon.

Funeral services will be in Bradley with burial in Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Chicago, Ill. with military rites accorded by the VFW of La Grange, Ill.

Alice V. MacRae, 92

Alice V. MacRae, 92, died Wednesday, Dec. 11, 1996, in Kalispell.

She was born May 24, 1904, in Philipsburg, the fifth of nine children of Douglas and Christine Grant Smith. As a child she enjoyed sneaking out with her sister to watch the adults having fun in the dance hall. She played the piano and she and her dad, who played the fiddle, entertained together. After graduating from Flathead High School, she attended teacher's college in Dillon. She taught all grades in rural schools.

She met Donald MacRae, a carpenter and building contractor, at a dance. They married in 1930 and moved to Browning where they lived for many years. In addition to substitute teaching, she was busy helping in their businesses, which included a lumber yard, mill, store and gas station.

She assisted her husband in Shriners and was active in the Episcopal Church and the Republican party, attending the Governor's Ball more than once.

The couple moved to East Glacier and took many pack trips into Glacier Park. She liked riding the bucking broncos.

She was preceded in death by her husband; two brothers, Jimmy and Oliver Smith; and two sisters, Margaret Orr and Amber Collier.

She is survived by three sisters,

Christene Dean, Ada Felsman and Vivian Managhan, all of Kalispell; one brother, Robert Smith of Ronan; as well as many nieces, nephews and friends.

Visitation will be today until 6 p.m. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. on Saturday at the Immanuel Lutheran Home with the Rev. Joe Wagnon officiating. Private burial will be in the C.E. Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary & Crematory.

Francis W. Major, 73

Francis W. Major, 73, of Polson, died on Feb. 4, 1996, at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

He was born on Nov. 11, 1922, in Hirdland, Mo., to Ralph and Grace Major. He grew up and attended schools in Missouri and Basin, Wyo. He moved to Kalispell as a teen-ager.

He joined the U.S. Army during WW II and served in the Pacific Theater. He returned to Kalispell following his military service. He worked as a bartender in Kalispell for 20 years and at the Swan River Tavern (Liquid Louie's).

He married Dorothy Lentz Thompson in Reno, Nev., on Sept. 7, 1966. He moved to Portland, Ore., and worked at the Santry Tire Co. until 1984. They moved back to the Swan Valley until moving to Polson in 1994.

He was an avid outdoorsman and was proud to have a lake in the Swan Valley named after him, Fran Lake.

He was active in several community activities including gun clubs, turkey shoots and the Seeley Lake VFW.

He is preceded in death by his parents; one son, "Smokey" Major; and two brothers, Lawrence and Julius.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy, of Polson; a son, Scott Major and his wife, Jacqueline, of Shepherd; two stepsons, Robert Thompson of Redmond, Ore. and Dale Thompson of Square Butte; a stepdaughter, Betti Ann McCuaig of Frenchtown; 14 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a sister, Nina McCracken of Deer Park, Wash.

There will be an entombment on Friday in Portland at the Riverview Abby Mausoleum. A memorial service will be held at a later date in Condon. Arrangements are by Mosley-Shrider Funeral Home in Polson.

Gary Lee Mallo, 55

Gary Lee Mallo, 55, of Essex, died Saturday, Feb. 10, 1996, of a heart attack.

He was born Feb. 25, 1940, in Kalispell. He attended Cut Bank High School and served in the U.S. Navy from 1956 to 1960.

He was employed as a cook for the last 25 years and was a member of Eagles and was active in the Moose Lodge. He liked hunting and fishing.

Survivors include daughters, Cheri Moench and Stephanie Dagenias, both of Shelby, and DeLee Kobelski of Lewistown; sons, Rory Mallo and H.J. Mallo, both of Sheridan, Wyo., and Stewart Mallo of Lewistown; brothers, Harold Mallo of Livingston and Don Mallo of Cut Bank; aunts and uncles, Maybelle Stingle of Moab, Utah, Violet Wagner and Ferral Wagner, both of Brown-ing, Verna Baily of Heyburn, Idaho, and Vic Connolly of Cut Bank; and 15 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Damon Mallo.

Funeral services will be held 10 a.m. Wednesday at Riddle Funeral Home in Cut Bank. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery. Reception will follow services at Moose Lodge. Riddle Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Henry 'Hank' Joseph Maloney, 81

Henry "Hank" Joseph Maloney, 81, died Wednesday at Libby Care Center.

He was born Nov. 7, 1914, in Wolcott, Colo., to Joseph Henry Maloney and Henrietta Marie Myers Maloney. He went to school in Scobey and worked as a ranch hand for Spear's Ranch.

He entered the U.S. Army on Nov. 28, 1940. He fought in World War II and was awarded a service medal in the Asiatic Pacific and European African Middle Eastern theaters. He was also awarded the American Defense Service Medal with Bronze Star and received an honorable discharge on Oct. 12, 1945.

After the war he went to work for Hanson Implement and then with the state highway department in Wolf Point.

He moved to Whitefish in 1957, and worked for Treasure State Equipment in Kalispell. He moved to Libby in 1976, and continued to work with Hamilton Construction in Whitefish until his retirement.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Elizabeth "Betty" Ann Maloney, and a great-granddaughter, Josianne Dawn Lauer.

Survivors include two sons, Joe H. Maloney of Whitefish and John Berkheimer of Libby; a daughter, Henrietta Marie Crook, of Gillette, Wyo.; 10 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be Monday at 11 a.m. at the City of Libby Cemetery with military honors. Arrangements are by Nelson & Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

Shannon Managhan, 27

Shannon Managhan, 27, of Salem, Ore., died Tuesday, June 7, 1996.

Born in Claridon, Ohio, he moved to Salem from Kalispell in 1983. He attended Sprague High School and worked as a tree climber for Hile's Tree Service. He loved the outdoors.

Survivors include his parents, Jerry and Susan Managhan of Salem and John and Nancy Prunty of Tucson, Ariz.; sons, Sean and Gage, both of Salem; brothers, Sean Managhan of Salem and Elton Prunty of Tucson; sister, Erin Prunty of Tucson; grandparents, Dorothy Phinney of Tucson, Edward and Florence of Marietta, Ga., and Marguerite Managhan of Kalispell; and great-grandmother, Effie Slagle of Tucson.

Services have been held. Howell-Edwards-Doerksen Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

William 'Bill' Managhan, 76

William L. "Bill" L. Managhan, 76, a resident of the Kootenai valley for the past 46 years, died Monday evening, Sept. 30, 1996, at St. John Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born at Somers on March 17, 1920, to William and Mary McBride Managhan. He was raised and educated in Kalispell, graduating from Flathead County High School in 1938. He married Charlotte Redpath in 1940 at Kalispell.

He was employed as a sheet metal worker in Alaska in the 1940s. He moved to Libby in June of 1950. He owned and operated the Libby Sheet Metal Shop for 14 years until selling it to Clifford Bucher. He worked for C & L Plumbing & Heating and later, Rucker's Plumbing & Heating until his retirement.

In 1990, he and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

He was active in the Libby Little League program for many years as a coach. He also was an avid outdoorsman, enjoying hunting and fishing.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and Elks Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Charlotte, at home in Libby; two sons, Larry Managhan and Mike Managhan, both of Kalispell; two daughters, Linda Smith of Spokane and Marcia Stegman of North Augusta, S.C.; a sister, Margaret Thompson, of Lewistown, Idaho; uncle Ray Managhan of Kalispell; and seven grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Joyce Sikes, in 1986.

Friends may call at Nelson & Vial Funeral Home from 3-8 p.m. Wednesday and until noon Thursday. Services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at Nelson & Vial Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Derf Berman officiating. Memorials may be made to Kootenai Volunteer Hospice, P.O. Box 781, Libby, MT 59923.

1996 Wilson Managhan, 83

Wilson H. Managhan, 83, of Kalispell, died at the Heritage Place on Friday, Sept. 27.

He was born June 24, 1913, in Kalispell, to Robert and Minnie Managhan. He was raised and lived his life in Smith Valley. He attended Kalispell schools. During his earlier years, he operated a dairy farm.

He continued farming, raising beef cattle and crops. He served 34 years as president and/or director of the Federal Land Bank Board. He was periodically a member of the ASC Board. He also worked in the Flathead County Assessor's office for a few years. He helped build and served as a master of the Smith Valley Grange. He served his community whenever he was asked to or when he was needed.

He was happiest when he was tending his cattle.

In 1934, he married Virginia May Lester, of Kila. He was preceded in death by her in 1956. He was also preceded in death by brothers Carl and Robert and sisters Edith, June and Alberta, plus a stepdaughter, Barbara.

On May 22, 1957, he married Vivian J. Kinshella in Missoula. He is now survived by her at the home in Smith Valley.

He is also survived by a son, Wilson L. Managhan and his wife, Linda, of Fairfield, Calif.; brother Ray Managhan Sr., of Kalispell; sister Nellie Dishno, of Thousand Oaks, Calif.; stepdaughters Dorothy Joplin, of Sacramento, Calif. and Nancy Wagnon, of Kalispell; 12 grandchildren; several great grandchildren and one great grandchild.

A funeral will be 2 p.m., Tuesday, at Johnson Mortuary Chapel, Rev. Larry Gaylord, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Visitation is 1-4 p.m., today, and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday, at Johnson Mortuary.

Miriam Moore Manley, 92

Miriam Moore Manley, 92, died Wednesday, Oct. 9, 1996, at Kalispell Regional Hospital. She maintained residences in Kalispell and on the east shore of Flathead Lake for 65 years.

She was born Aug. 20, 1904, in New Plymouth, Idaho, to William and Olive Wayman. She attended high school at Jennings Seminary, a girls boarding school in Aurora, Ill., and graduated with a bachelor of science degree in journalism from the University of Montana in 1925.

She worked as a correspondent for the Great Falls Leader and then wrote advertising for the Great Falls Gas Co. In 1931, she married Tom B. Moore, M.D., who was practicing in Great Falls and they moved to Kalispell. After his death she married Clifford A. Manley.

With a lifelong interest in music and dancing, she ran a dance school from 1954 to the early '80s and is remembered fondly by her many former students. She was also active in the PTA and involved with the Girl Scouts of America, serving as a troop leader for many years in Kalispell.

An avid hiker, she led numerous expeditions in Glacier Park with the Girl Scouts and continued hiking in the park until the early '80s. She was a supporter of Friends of Glacier Park, a member of the League of Glacier Orchestra and Chorale and a member of The Humane Society of the United States.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Moore, in 1973, and Clifford Manley in 1994.

She is survived by three daughters, Marilyn Reynolds Bacon of Kensington, Calif., Diane Moussiaux of Las Vegas, Nev., and Suzanne Crocker of Palo Alto, Calif.; four grandchildren, Tom Reynolds of Portland, Ore., Laura Reynolds of Columbia Falls, Patrick Crocker of San Francisco and Kathleen Crocker of Boston; and one great-grandchild, Lucas Reynolds.

A memorial service will be held Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at Buffalo Hills Terrace in Kalispell. Memorials may be sent to the Friends of Glacier Park, Box 5001, Kalispell, MT 59903 and the NW Montana Human Society, P.O. Box 221, Kalispell, MT 59701. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.

Paul Marcoff, 62

<sup>to Feb 1996</sup>
Paul E. Marcoff, 62, of Columbia Falls, died Tuesday in Parker, Ariz.

In 1964, he and his wife, the former Mary Mears, moved to Columbia Falls, where he worked for Plum Creek lumber company. He later owned and operated an electrical company.

He was a life member of the VFW and belonged to the Masonic Lodge and Shriners.

Survivors include his wife, Mary, of Columbia Falls, a son, a daughter, his mother, Violet Marcoff, of Columbia Falls, two brothers, including Pete of Columbia Falls, a sister, and five grandchildren.

A funeral will be Monday at 2 p.m. at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Columbia Falls with the Rev. Ron Paulson officiating. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery. Visitation will be Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m. at Columbia Mortuary in Columbia Fall.

1996 Robert Marantette

Robert J. Marantette, 69, a lifelong Columbia Falls resident, died June 14 at his home of natural causes.

He was born Jan. 14, 1927, in Columbia Falls. He was the fourth child of Edward and Josephine Marantette. He graduated from Columbia Falls High School in 1945 and later was stationed in San Francisco with the U.S. Navy. He obtained a degree in industrial engineering from Montana State University. Following his college graduation, he spent six months in Anaconda as a radio announcer and manager. He then worked for Boeing in Renton, Wash.

Robert Marantette

In 1951, he married Mary J. McDonald and together they had five daughters. In 1953, he and his family moved to Columbia Falls where he took over the family business "Park Mercantile."

He served the community for many years by holding a position on the board of directors for Bank of Columbia Falls, being a fire and ambulance volunteer, serving on the school board, belonging to the Knights of Columbus and being an active member of St. Richard's parish.

He retired in 1982 and enjoyed spending time with his family, playing golf and woodworking. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend.

He is survived by his wife, Mary J. Marantette, at the family home; his daughters, Joan Paulson, Terry Hetman, Patty Gemberling, Lynne Jenko, Jan McGuigan; 12 grandchildren and three brothers, Jim, Lou and Bill and their families.

A Christian wake service was Tuesday at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. A Mass of the Christian burial was Wednesday at St. Richard' with Rev. Joe Pat Sullivan officiating. Burial followed at the St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery in Columbia Falls. HH

Henry Charles Marquardt

WP 22 Aug 96

Henry Charles Marquardt Sr., 81, died Aug. 6 at the Life Care Center in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

He was born in Buffalo, N.Y., and graduated from South Park High School.

He lived and worked in the upstate New York area; in Miami, Fla., Winchester, Ky., and Whitefish. In his retirement years, he worked in Jackson Hole, Wyo.

During World War II, he flew as a test pilot for Curtiss Wright. After the war he also flew as a pilot for American Airlines, bought and sold C-46 aircraft to third world countries, built executive aircraft for L.B. Smith Aircraft, and worked for Bell Aerospace on projects for the Navy.

He then shifted his work focus to the construction and management of hotels for Holiday Inn.

In Jackson Hole he was assistant to the airport manager during the expansion of the Jackson Hole airport in 1990.

He spent the last few years of his life in retirement living at the Pioneer Homestead in Jackson Hole.

Marquardt was divorced and is survived by Ida Mae Johnson; three children: Joan of San Francisco, Henry of Jackson Hole, and John of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands; one sister, Eva Mitchell; and two grandchildren, Daniel and Hilary.

His remains were cremated and will be spread as he requested in the Snake River in Jackson Hole.

Lois Irene Maroney, 63

Lois Irene Maroney, 63, of Kalispell, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital on Friday, May 10, 1996.

She was born Nov. 18, 1933, in Kalispell to Howard and Elfrieda Ramsey. On May 18, 1952, she married Jack L. Maroney in Shelton, Wash. They returned to Kalispell in 1953, shortly after the birth of their first child.

She enjoyed gardening on their three-acre ranchette on Reserve Drive in Evergreen, where she raised their two children, Gregg and Dewey. She was the office manager of the Kalispell Community Federal Credit Union from January, 1975 to March 1981, when the office was merged with the Flathead Government Employees' Credit Union.

She was preceded in death by an infant son, Teddy, and by her mother and her father.

She is survived by her husband, Jack, at the family home in Kalispell; sons Gregg Maroney, of Kalispell and Dewey Maroney and his wife, Colleen, of Lake Elsinore, Calif.; sister Margaret Howard, stepmother Patricia Ramsey and stepsister Michaellee Duelfer, all of Kalispell; grandchildren Laud, Amanda, Arette, Scott and Bryan Maroney; great grandchildren Cohanna, and Shannon and nieces Pam Broad, Debbie Sullivan, and Glenda Brown.

Visitation is 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday at Johnson Mortuary. Private family graveside services will be on Tuesday at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Ron Martin, 54

Ron Martin, 54, of Swan Lake, died Sunday, Feb. 11, 1996, while snowmobiling in the mountains of Montana he loved so well.

He was born Sept. 29, 1941, in San Francisco, to Howard and Ilma Martin. He moved with his parents and sister, Mayme Diane, to Swan Lake, April 1, 1952.

A 1959 graduate of Bigfork High School, he attended Whitman College in Walla Walla, Wash., where he met his future wife, Carol Piper. They later divorced.

He worked briefly for Boeing in Seattle before returning to Swan Lake where he worked with his father developing Martin's Peat, Inc., a major supplier of peat and potting soil in Montana and the surrounding states.

In addition to snowmobiling, he enjoyed hiking, fishing, boating and, particularly, "waterskiing the colors" when the glow of the sunset would light up the waters on Swan Lake in hues of gold and red.

He is survived by his mother, Ilma, in Swan Lake; his children, Kristi of Swan Lake and Mike of Kalispell; and his sister, Mayme Diane, of Shelby.

Funeral services are Thursday at 11 a.m. at New Life Alliance Church (Little Brown Church) in Bigfork with burial to follow at Lone Pine Cemetery.

Johnson Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials may be given to the Swan Mission Search and Rescue, Swan Lake Library, Montana Snowmobilers Association or the Ferndale or Swan Lake fire departments.

Beatrice Arvilla Marshall, 68

Beatrice Arvilla Marshall, 68, died of heart failure at her home in Kalispell on Wednesday, March 6, 1996.

She was born June 28, 1927, in Bigfork, the eldest of 14 children.

She married Wayne A. Marshall on Nov. 24, 1946, at the military base in Scottfield, Ill. They traveled the world for 20 years while he served in the Army.

She owned and operated a dog grooming business for eight years in Alaska and later in Kalispell. She enjoyed doing crafts. She bowled for 35 years. The couple had been snow birds for the past 10 years. She was a wonderful wife, mother and friend.

She was preceded in death by her son Jack A. Marshall in October 1979, and nephew Danny Wayne Rogers in February 1983.

Survivors include her husband, Wayne, at the family home in Kalispell; daughter Linda Thompson of Spokane; son David of Fairbanks, Alaska; stepdaughter Brenda Wilson of Columbia Falls; adopted daughter Rosalie Kelly of Sierra Vista, Ariz.;

five sisters, Marjorie West of St. Regis, Nancy Jo Lewis of Eureka, Judy Bruce of Kalispell, Wilma Tietje of Nevada, and Rosalie Kelly of Arizona; six brothers, Wayne Fox and Tom Guinard of Idaho, Kenny Guinard of Troy, Larry Guinard of Canada, Jerry Guinard of Dillon, and Bill Guinard of Hamilton; nine grandchildren, Terri, Jason and Steve Thompson, Tammy Perlinger Johnson and Shonna Johnson, Katrina and Wells Marshall, Bobbie Jo Rogers and Christopher Kelly; and three great-grandchildren, Carsyn Volpe Thompson, Alexander Perlinger and Christopher Marshall.

The family suggests memorials to the Montana Heart Association, c/o Lavonne Aikin, 623 Second Ave. E., Kalispell, MT 59901.

Visitation will be Sunday 1-4 p.m. and Monday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Monday at the Johnson Mortuary Chapel, Pastor Ron Pierce officiating. Burial will follow in Glacier Memorial Gardens. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary.

Gary Wynn Mateka, 48

Gary Wynn Mateka, 48, father of Terry Joseph and son of Elwyn and Ann Mateka, died Saturday, Oct. 5, 1996, at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula from complications of injuries received in an accident on Sept. 11.

He was born Sept. 17, 1948, in Whitefish. He spent his growing-up years in Columbia Falls and lived most of his adult life in Whitefish. He graduated from Columbia Falls High School in 1966 and attended the University of Montana and Flathead Valley Community College.

He was employed by Burlington Northern Railroad the summer he graduated from high school and went on to become a full-time employee in May of 1968. He enjoyed his work as a brakeman and conductor until he sustained a work-related injury and retired.

He was an avid outdoorsman, taking pleasure in many horseback riding and pack trips, snowmobiling, hunting, fishing and especially motorcycling.

He was a member of A.B.A.T.E., Flathead Valley Clay Target Club, Whitefish Rifle Club, and the N.R.A.

Survivors include his son and daughter-in-law, Terry and Cynthia Mateka, of Grand Forks Air Force Base in North Dakota; granddaughter, Melissa Mateka, of Derrick City, Pa.; parents Elwyn and Ann Mateka, of Columbia Falls; and his sister and brother-in-law, Bonnie and Greg Ratterman, of Evanston, Wyo.

The family suggests memorials in his name to Little League Whitefish Baseball Inc. in care of Loraine Mace or Bob Rupp or to The Montana Head Injury Association. Contact person for Flathead Valley is Rhea Hatfield.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Austin Funeral Home in Whitefish with the Rev. Ray Davis, pastor of United Methodist Church of Columbia Falls officiating. Burial will follow at Glacier Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Kalispell.

James E. Mathiason

James E. Mathiason, 57, of Kila, died Saturday, Nov. 23, 1996, following a courageous battle against the disease scleroderma.

He was born June 9, 1939, in New York Mills, Minn., to Marvin and Clara Mathiason. The family moved to Kalispell when he was 7.

He married Florence Fredericks of Kalispell on Nov. 3, 1956 and they have made the Flathead Valley their home.

He worked in the timber industry all his life. On Nov. 15, 1970, he hauled his first logs working for F.H. Stoltze Lumber Co., and continued as a log-truck driver until his disability. Following his disability, he received the Big Sky Logging Truck Driving contest, the Maurice J. Conley Memorial Award.

He devoted his life to family, work and all who needed a helping hand.

He was preceded in death by his father.

He is survived by his wife, Florence, at home in Kila; four children, Jim and wife, Peggy, of Kalispell, John and wife, Paula, of Kila, Debbie and husband, Craig Irish, of Kalispell, and Justin and wife, Amy, of Spokane; two sisters, Marcella Bartley of Mossyrock, Wash., and Marion Schoening of Belfair, Wash.; two brothers, Glen of Marion and Roger of Moses Lake, Wash.; 12 grandchildren, Beau, Ben, Jason, Travis, Elizabeth, Sarah, Dustin, Kasey, Kelly, Kyla, Derek and Mackenzie; his mother, Clara Mathiason, of Kila; and numerous other relatives.

A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at Northridge Lutheran Church with the Rev. Dan Heskett officiating. Cremation has taken place. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.

28 June Herbert Mathis, 83

1996

Herbert Mathis, 83, of Eureka, died Friday at Mountain View Manor in Eureka.

Survivors include two stepdaughters, several grandchildren, including Walter Sweet of Libby, and several nieces and nephews, including Roger and Maurice Bernhard of Eureka, and Allen Bernhard and Beverly O'Brien of Libby.

Visitation will be from 4-8 p.m. today at Nelson & Vial Funeral Home in Eureka. Services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Tobacco Valley Cemetery with the Rev. David Hopper officiating.

Glenn Martinson, 67

Glenn Martinson passed away Dec. 1, 1996, at the age of 67, after a long battle with cancer.

He was born Sept. 15, 1929, in Terry. The family moved to Creston. He attended Creston School and Flathead High School.

He retired from the Air Force after 20 years; he was discharged as master sergeant. He worked for Boeing, becoming a FAA radar tech in electronics. He was an avid golfer.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Elsie and Nels Martinson; brother, Lloyd Martinson; and son, Donald Martinson.

He is survived by his wife, Joanne, at home in Auburn, Wash.; daughter, Connie Osborn, of Enumclaw, Wash.; son, Bob Martinson, of Enumclaw; brothers Elfred Martinson of Couer d'Alene, Carl Martinson of Polson, Bill Martinson of Spokane; sisters, Elnora Stricker of Kalispell, Opal Larson of Shelby, Ann Lucas of Polson and Della Dooley of Oklahoma City, Okla.

He was buried in Enumclaw on Dec. 6, 1996.

Louie S. Marty, 77

Louie S. Marty, 77, of Columbia Falls, died Thursday morning, Nov. 7, 1996, at North Valley Hospital in Whitefish.

He was born Jan. 7, 1919, in Grey Eagle, Minn., to George A. and Elizabeth Mary Marty. He was raised and education in Grey Eagle.

He married Gretchen B. Jacobs on July 1, 1941, in Grey Eagle. They farmed in the area until they moved to Bimidji, Minn. He worked for the railroad and farmed there for many years.

They moved to Columbia Falls in 1959 and he worked for Plum Creek Lumber as a millwright until his retirement in 1986.

He was preceded in death by his parents, six brothers and sisters, a daughter and a granddaughter.

He is survived by his wife, Gretchen, of Columbia Falls; four daughters, Isabelle Allen of Columbia Falls, Iona Marty of Chicago, Ileen Marty of Columbia Falls and Inez Marty of Wells, Nev.; five brothers and sisters, Rose McDermond, Margaret Prozinski, and Charles Marty, all of Grey Eagle, Hubert Marty of Elk River, Minn., and Eugene Marty of Bemidji; five grandchildren; a great-granddaughter; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A rosary will be recited today at 5 p.m. at Columbia Mortuary. Mass of the Christian burial will be celebrated Saturday at 10 a.m. at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. Inurnment will follow the service at St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery. The Rev. Joe Pat Sullivan and the Rev. Cornelius Ravlic will officiate. Visitation will be today until 5 p.m.

Robert E. Matteson, 72

Robert E. Matteson, 72, of Columbia Falls, died Friday, Aug. 23, 1996, at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born April 20, 1924, in Spokane, to Elvin R. and Lois M. Matteson. After attending high school in Spokane, he served as a radioman and operator during World War II in central Europe. He married Ruth V. Thomas in Spokane on Jan. 24, 1948.

He worked for Kaiser Aluminum in Spokane and Newark, Ohio, before moving to Columbia Falls in 1955. He worked for Anaconda/Arco Metals for the next 28 years in the casting department, ending as casting general foreman.

After he retired in 1983, he worked on his many hobbies including travel, gemstones and jewelry, coin collecting, reading and his family.

He belonged to the Moose, the Eagles and Arco Retirees. He was a member of United Methodist Church in Columbia Falls.

He was preceded in death by his father, Elvin R. Matteson.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth, and his mother, Lois, of Columbia Falls; his sons, Gene of Monks Corner, S.C., Gerry of Tacoma, Wash., Jeff of Melbourne, Australia, Jay of Kalispell and Jon of Fort Collins, Colo.; his daughter, Janice Keltner, of Kalispell; his sister, Maryann Morice, of Seattle; 11 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at United Methodist Church with the Rev. Ray Davis officiating. Burial will follow at Woodlawn Cemetery. Visitation will be Tuesday at Columbia Mortuary from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The family has suggested memorials to United Methodist Church or to Kalispell Regional Hospital.

Robert William Maxwell WP 2 May 96

Robert William Maxwell, 76, of Whitefish, died Thursday, April 25 at the North Valley Hospital Extended Care Center.

He was born Oct. 20, 1919 to Clayton and Nellie Maxwell in Whitefish.

He was raised and educated in Whitefish and graduated from Whitefish High School in 1937. He then attended the Butte School of Mines and spent time with the Civilian Conservation Corps. He also attended school in Havre for two years before receiving his law degree at the University of Montana-Missoula in 1952.

He served with the U.S. Army during World War II.

He married Betty Kroog on Oct. 11, 1952 in Livingston.

He retired from the railroad after working for 39 years as a conductor.

He was a member of the Moose Lodge in Whitefish and the United Transportation Union.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Jack Maxwell; and two sisters: Jean Groth and Jesse Campbell.

He is survived by his wife, Betty in Whitefish; a son, Andrew Maxwell in Nebo, Ill.; a grandson, Stephen; and a granddaughter, Rachel.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 29 at the North Valley Hospital Extended Care Center. Burial with military honors took place at the Whitefish Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home.

Charles Leonard Maycumber, 43

Charles Leonard Maycumber, 43, of Kalispell, died May 20, 1996, as a result of a drowning accident.

He was born Oct. 16, 1952, in Spokane, to Guy E. and Eileen G. Maycumber. He was the third of five children. After graduation from Flathead High School in 1970, he entered Flathead Valley Community College where he was enrolled in the apprentice electrician program.

He loved to collect Jeeps and Jeep parts.

He was preceded in death by his father, Guy, in 1993.

He is survived by his mother, Eileen, of Kalispell; brothers Frank and Steven of Kalispell; and sisters Marcia Ballowe of Missoula and Sharon Simons of Colorado Springs, Colo.

No services are planned. Arrangements and cremation are by Buffalo Hill Funeral Home and Crematory in Kalispell.

Warren L. McAllister, 54

Warren L. McAllister, 54, died at his home in Kalispell on May 31, 1996.

He was born Dec. 22, 1941, in Naperville, Ill., to Perry and Helene McAllister. He was raised in Naperville and LaGrange, Ill., moving to California in 1966 and then to Montana in 1981.

He served in the U.S. Navy and was retired on disability. While in California, he owned and operated a successful full-service automotive repair business. He became active in and dedicated to foster care and shelter care with the Flathead County Youth Court Services while living in Creston.

For the past two years he followed his lifelong dream of living in his recreational vehicle full-time, seeing much of the United States and making wonderful new friends.

He was a Fourth Degree Knight; a member of Big Brothers, sheriff's posse, a life member of the Good Sam Club, the SMART Travel Club and life member of the Disabled American Veterans.

He enjoyed tinkering, fixing anything broken and sometimes things not broken; woodworking; camping and traveling in his R.V.

On Aug. 13, 1970, he married Kathy Bruce in Reno, Nev., and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by a son, Kevin McAllister, of Kalispell; daughters Michelle Aregood and her husband Sam and their children Zachary and Caleb, of Anchorage, Alaska, and Yvonne Hader and her husband, Mark and their children Melissa, Bo John, Derek, Jacob and Mark T., of Columbia Falls; stepfather Tom Murphy, of Kalispell; brothers Bob McAllister, of Florida, and Tim Murphy, of Spokane; sisters Kim McAllister, of Florida, and Colleen Clark, of Seattle; foster sons John Trainer and family of Kalispell and Warner Blake and family in Ohio.

He touched the lives of all who knew him and will be missed by many friends and extended family.

Litany services will be 7 p.m. Monday at Johnson Memorial Chapel. A funeral will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Johnson Mortuary Chapel, Rev. Paul Taylor officiating. Burial will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery, with military honors by the United Flathead Veterans. The family suggests memorials be made to Big Brothers and Sisters of Kalispell, 137 Main Street, Kalispell.

Hannah McCafferty, infant

Hannah Marie McCafferty, stillborn daughter of Jim and Ruth McCafferty, was born August 7 at North Valley Hospital. 1996

She is survived by her parents, brothers Shaun and Jesse, sister Lyndi, and grandmother Linda Tedeschi, all of Columbia Falls; grandparents, and numerous other relatives.

A private graveside service was conducted Saturday at Woodlawn Cemetery in Columbia Falls. Arrangements were by Columbia Mortuary.

20 July 1996
Lucille McClintock

Lucille McClintock, 82, died Saturday at St. John's Nursing Home where she had resided since 1992.

She was born Dec. 8, 1913, in Joliet, Mont. to Floyd and Emma Roberts. She graduated from Joliet High School in 1932 and married Ralph McClintock on Dec. 24, 1936 in Billings.

They lived in Rockvale, moved to Columbia Falls in 1947 and retired to Palm Springs in 1979.

In 1965, she served as worthy matron of Eastern Star in Chapter 68 at Columbia Falls.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph, in 1992.

Survivors include two sons, Ron McClintock of Billings; and Harold McClintock of Fountain Valley, Calif.; seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren; two brothers, Wayne Roberts of Joliet and Raymond Roberts of Loveland, Colo. and one sister, Jessie Connelly of San Jacinto, Calif.

Cremation has taken place and a private service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. John's Alzheimers Care Unit, 3940 Rimrock Road or a charity of your choice. H H

1996 James 'Jim' Alan McDonald, 71

James "Jim" Alan McDonald, 71, passed away on Oct. 30.

He was born Feb. 2, 1925, in Polley, N. D., to Ernest and Olive McDonald.

He married Ruth Torkinson in Proctor, on Dec. 2, 1946. They had seven children: Becky, Vicki, Clay, Steve, Josie, Casey and Carrie.

He worked at the Swan Island shipyards in Portland before joining the service. He served in the U.S. Navy in the South Pacific for three years. He returned to Montana after serving his country and purchased a logging truck. He logged for Mel Menli, of Proctor, and American Timber, of Olney. For a short time he worked on the pipeline in Alaska.

They moved to Helena, where he lived for many years and worked for the school district. He spent his last years at the Livingston Convalescent Home.

He was preceded in death by brothers Angus and Art and sisters Marion, Blodwyn and Elsie.

He is survived by his sister, Helen Hutchin, his children, Becky, Vicki, Clay, Steve, Josie, Casey and Carrie; their mother Ruth Jones and five grandchildren, Michael, Maggie, Ashley, Charlie and Luke.

Cremation has taken place. In spring, there will be a gathering at the Ponderosa Pine in Proctor, where his ashes will be placed.

James McDonald, 77

James D. "Doug" McDonald died Tuesday, March 19, 1996, in San Diego, Calif.

He was born Aug. 27, 1918, to John Dougal and Anna McDonald. He was raised on the homestead near Winifred, Mont.

In 1942, he moved to Seattle and met and married his beloved wife, Elna Nelson McDonald, on Aug. 15, 1942.

He was drafted into the U.S. Army where he served in the South Pacific during World War II from 1942 until 1945 when he was honorably discharged.

After his discharge, he and his wife moved to the Flathead Valley where he worked as a heavy equipment operator throughout the valley. He later worked at Hungry Horse Dam as an operator until his retirement in 1975.

He and his wife spent their retirement years camping, fishing, hunting and watching their grandchildren play baseball.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Elna, in 1993; his parents; a brother, Donald A. McDonald; and two sisters, Hazel and Ethel McDonald.

He is survived by his sons and their wives, John and Lynn McDonald of Seattle, Dan and Jean McDonald and Jerry and Kay McDonald, all of Columbia Falls, and Dr. Donald and Barbara McDonald of San Diego; his sisters, Helyn Deal of Wadsworth, Ohio, and Mavis Darko of Cascade; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Cremation has taken place and services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Columbia Falls.

The family has suggested that memorials can be made to a nonprofit cancer organization called Wings, c/o Kalispell Regional Hospital, 310 Sunnyview, Kalispell, MT 59901.

Annetta McDowell WP 8 Aug 96

Annetta Aurelia (Zell, Meech) McDowell, 86, formerly of Shelby died Aug. 4 at the North Valley Hospital Extended Care Center.

She was born July 22, 1910, to Henry and Celia (Alinder) Zell in Warner, S.D.

She was raised in Shelby and graduated from Shelby High School as class valedictorian in 1928. In high school she participated in the Dunster program, becoming qualified to teach in rural schools, which she did for several years in the Sweetgrass area.

In 1933, she graduated from Billings Normal after two years with a lifetime teaching certificate.

In 1964 she received a bachelor's degree from Northern Montana College in Havre.

She taught school in Shelby for 22 years, retiring from Shelby Junior High School in 1971. She also taught dancing for many years and had been a member of Toastmasters, 4-H, Delta Kappa Gamma, Eastern Star, and the Community United Methodist Church of Shelby.

She married Don Meech, divorcing after 28 years of marriage. She married Clarence "Bud" McDowell in 1971 and he preceded her in death in 1980.

She is also preceded in death by her parents, a granddaughter, four brothers, and a sister.

She is survived by a daughter, Deanna Thielman of Columbia Falls; two sons: Russell Meech and Tom Meech, both of Great Falls; two brothers: Raymond Zell and Rawlin Zell, both of Shelby; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Aug. 7, at the Community Methodist Church in Shelby with the Rev. Dennis Reese officiating. Burial followed in the Mountain View Cemetery in Shelby.

Waddy Frank McFall, 79

Waddy Frank McFall, 79, of Corning, Calif., formerly of Kalispell, died Tuesday in Willows, Calif. <sup>5 Nov 1996</sup>

He was born in Pickens, S.C. He attended The Citadel Military Academy and Clemson College in South Carolina prior to moving to New York where he studied sculpture and later worked for the American Museum of Natural History. Following military service during World War II, he returned to South Carolina and served with the State Wildlife Resources Department.

He operated taxidermy studios in Florida, Montana, Alabama and South Carolina and authored a book on taxidermy sharing his years of experience as a museum and commercial taxidermist.

Survivors include his wife at the family home; sons; daughters, including Cynthia Dobler of Kalispell; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a sister.

Arrangements for memorial services and burial at Sunrise Cemetery in Pickens are pending.

<sup>1996</sup> Shirley McFarland

Shirley F. McFarland, 84, of Wayzata, Minn. died Aug. 21 in Wayzata, Minn.

She was born Nov. 21, 1911, and lived in Great Falls many years before moving to Minnesota in 1952. She was considered an ardent Montanan with a special love for Glacier National Park. She and her husband had a home on Lake Five near West Glacier. She was a past member of the Junior League, P.E.O. Sisterhood, and Lake Minnetonka Garden Club.

She is survived by her husband, James P. McFarland, former chairman and CEO of General Mills, her daughter Jill L. Wilburn of San Jose, Calif.; her son, Jeffrey J. McFarland of West Hollywood, Calif. and her grandchildren, Sara and B.J. Wilburn, San Jose, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Claire L. Loftus.

Private services were at St. Martin's by the Lake, Minnetonka Beach, Minn. following a private interment at Lakeview Cemetery. Memorials may be made to St. Martin's by the Lake church, the C.M. Russell Museum, Great Falls, or at charity of the donor's choice. H H

Elva 'Betty' McGriff, 75

Elva Beth "Betty" McGriff, 75, died Saturday, Feb. 17, 1996, at Colonial Manor in Whitefish.

She was born Aug. 8, 1920, in Salt Lake City to James and Losena Andersen.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Thelma Schano; and a brother, Jim Andersen.

She is survived by her husband, Charles McGriff of Pinnacle; one son, Charles McGriff Jr., of North Dakota; two grandchildren; and two brothers, Jay and Bill Andersen, both of Salt Lake City.

Private family services will be held. Buffalo Hill Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements and cremation.

Gladys Mae Lawrence McGovern, 87

Gladys Mae Lawrence McGovern, 87, died at her home in Kalispell, on Feb. 21, 1996.

She was born Oct. 1, 1908, in Houghton Lake, Mich., to Lorena and William Lawrence. They came to the Flathead when she was a young child, living in Kila and Swan Lake.

She married Carl L. Pearson and from this marriage there were three children, Donald, Colleen and Carl.

On Feb. 14, 1942, she married Tom McGovern. They lived in Washington, Idaho, Montana and Alaska, then returned to the Flathead in the late 1970s. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in February 1992.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Tom; four brothers, Arnie, Erling, Lester and Vernon Lawrence; two granddaughters, Carlene Lori Whitehead and Leanna Whitehead Moore.

She is survived by her son, Don and his wife, Carol Pearson, of Sarasota, Fla.; daughter, Colleen Wise of Kalispell; grandchildren, Jerry, John, Gary and Debbie Pearson of Florida and Sherry Lynn Hills, Michael Hills and Brock Whitehead; nieces Gail Ann, Kitty and Sally Lawrence; nephews, Tom, Dick, Denny, Doug and Joe Lawrence and Tommy Loran; 14 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 6 p.m. today. Graveside services will be held at 1 p.m. on Tuesday at the Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Ron Pierce, pastor of the Swan Chapel, officiating. Friends will meet at the cemetery for the services. Arrangements are under the direction of the Johnson Mortuary.

Robert James McIntyre, 73

Robert James McIntyre, 73, died Monday, Oct. 14, 1996, in Kalispell.

He was born Nov. 16, 1922, in Somers, to William and Edith McIntyre.

He graduated from Flathead High School in 1939. He entered the U.S. Army in December of 1941, and was honorably discharged in October 1945.

In January of 1960, he and Wilhelmine "Willie" Stenton were married.

He enjoyed fishing, hunting, gardening and crossword puzzles.

He was employed by Forest Products and Plum Creek until his retirement in 1984.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William and Edith McIntyre; brothers, Lawrence, Ray and Harry McIntyre; and sister, Margaret McIntyre.

He is survived by his wife, Willie McIntyre, of Running Springs, Calif., Kenny and wife, Elaine McIntyre, of Mt. Vernon, Wash., Randy and Michelle Nyman of Lompoc, Calif., Linda and John Norton of Post Falls, Idaho, Paula and John Williams of Kalispell, Sandra McIntyre and Eric Hammer of Bozeman, Kelly and Diana McIntyre of Missoula, Mark McIntyre and Donna White of Kalispell; and numerous grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

The family suggests memorials to Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 4, P.O. Box 2314, Kalispell, MT 59903. No services are planned. Arrangements are by Johnson Mortuary and Crematory.