

DI

Christina Helzer, 73

14 June 1986
Christina Helzer, 73, Columbia Falls, died Saturday evening in Livingston.

She was born Sept. 17, 1912, in Streeter, N.D., the daughter of George and Margaretha Ebel Klundt. She received her education in North Dakota. She moved with the family to various places before settling in Huntley.

On Dec. 1, 1930, she married Harold Davidson in Worden. The couple then settled in Butte.

On May 5, 1955, she married Adam Helzer in Polson. The couple lived in the Flathead Valley for many years before moving to Portland, Ore. Mr. Helzer died Dec. 31, 1967.

In 1968, she moved to Columbia Falls.

While in the Flathead Valley she worked for Kalispell Dry Cleaners and the City Cleaners of Columbia Falls for a number of years.

She was preceded in death by a son, Harold Davidson Jr.; five brothers and a sister.

Survivors include a brother, Heinrick Klundt of Spokane, Wash.; five daughters, Irene Tarpley of Kilgore, Texas, Margaret Marchington of Livingston, Iris Cantrell and Karen Martin, both of Columbia Falls, and Nora Jones of Portland, Ore.; 20 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Brad Brittsan, associate pastor of Christian Life Fellowship of Whitefish, officiating. Friends are asked to meet at the cemetery.

Friends and relatives may call at Johnson Mortuary for visitation until 8 tonight.

DI

Amber Henderson

23 Aug 1986
EUREKA — Amber Rose Henderson, 8-day-old daughter of Rodney and Renee Henderson of Rexford, died Saturday at Kalispell Regional Hospital from complications from birth.

She was born Aug. 15 in Whitefish.

Survivors include her parents; a brother, Lyle Henderson of Rexford; grandparents, Everett and Rosie Bloom of Lewiston, Idaho, and Bruce and Nancy Henderson of Hines, Ore.; great-grandparents, Edgar and Ada Dunn of New Meadows, Idaho, Harvey and June Bloom of Boise, Idaho, and Goldie Henderson of Red Bluff, Calif.

Graveside services were 1 p.m. today at Tobacco Valley Cemetery in Eureka.

Arrangements were under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Eureka.

DI

'Bud' Henderson, 91

8 Apr 1986
Gonhild — Bud Henderson, 91, a West Glacier resident for more than 70 years, died Tuesday at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born Dec. 30, 1894, in Telemark, Norway, to Tarjei and Signe Tollefson.

She immigrated to West Glacier in 1914 and worked as a telegrapher for the Great Northern Railroad. She later worked in the West Glacier Post Office as a clerk. Her husband, George Henderson, was postmaster.

Mrs. Henderson was an avid hiker and skier well beyond her 80th birthday.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George, and by a son, Foy Brock.

Survivors include two grandsons, Jeff Brock, a chief petty officer in the Navy, and Greg Brock, a teacher in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Memorial services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home with Rev. Matthew Cox of Bethlehem Lutheran Church officiating. Cremation has taken place. Interment will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

DI

R.F. Henderson, 64

8 June 1986
POLSON — Rollie F. Henderson, 64, Polson, died Sunday at his home, apparently of natural causes. A coroner's report is pending.

He was born June 29, 1921, to Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson in Alberton, where he was reared and educated.

He moved to Polson in 1965, and operated his own plumbing and heating business there until retiring due to ill health in 1975.

Mr. Henderson was a member of Harmony Masonic Lodge No. 49 of Missoula and Polson Elks Club. He enjoyed the outdoors, especially hunting and fishing.

Survivors include his wife, Hildur, at the family home on Black Point; a son, David Henderson, Seward, Alaska; a stepdaughter, Judy Payton, Polson; and a stepson, Larry Lang, Bainbridge Island, Wash.

Memorial services will be at a later date. Mosley Funeral Home in Polson is in charge of arrangements.

The family suggests memorials to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Spokane.

Lorraine Hendrix, 66

25 Apr. 1984
BREMERTON, Wash. — Lorraine Murphy Hendrix, 66, a former Flathead Valley resident, died April 25 at Harrison Memorial Hospital in Bremerton, Wash., following a lengthy illness.

She was born Nov. 27, 1919, a daughter of Lewis and Marie Bartlett Wulff, in Backoo, N.D. She was raised and educated in eastern Montana.

In 1935, she married Joseph E. Murphy in Malta. They were later divorced.

In 1955, she married Jack Hendrix in Kalispell.

She lived in the Flathead Valley from 1946 to January 1963, when she moved to Washington.

She was employed as a cook at Hennessy's Steak House in Kalispell for seven years.

She was Catholic. She was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Alex (Barbara) Velasco; three brothers, Orville Wulff, Joe August Wulff, and Nickolas "Bud" Schmitz.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Dale (Patricia) Sonsteli of Kalispell, Cathern Murphy of Duvall, Wash., Mrs. Norman (Sharon) Miller of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Mrs. Steven (Monica) Kelly, and Mrs. Brian (Jacquelyn) Milleson, both of Bremerton, Wash.; three sons, James E. Murphy of Sacramento, Calif., and Joseph E. Murphy and Michael C. Hendrix, both of Bremerton, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth (Charlene) Lee and Elsie Isakson, both of Kalispell; two brothers, Donavon Ellis of Dallas, Texas, and Walter Wulff of Salem, Ore.; 22 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial services were April 29 at St. Pauls Episcopal, Bremerton, Wash., with burial in Riverside Memorial Gardens in Riverside, Wash.

M. Henricksen, 68

Marian Brewer Henricksen, 68, a former Kalispell resident, died of cancer Monday at her home in Los Alamitos, Calif.

She was born Jan. 18, 1917, in Redwing, Minn., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brewer. She graduated from North High School and the University of Minnesota.

She was an English teacher and a Red Cross psychiatric social worker at Winter Hospital in Topeka, Kan., during World War II.

On Jan. 18, 1946, she married Howard S. Henricksen, a Kalispell native, at University Lutheran Church in Minneapolis. The couple lived in Kalispell for a time.

For the last eight years she worked for the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade in Long Beach.

She was a member of the New Life Church in Los Alamitos.

Survivors include her husband, Howard, at home; two sons, Scott in the Marines, stationed in Los Alamitos, and Raymond, Eureka, Calif.; three brothers-in-law, Harry, Gordon "Pink", and Homer Henricksen, all of Kalispell; and a sister-in-law, Phyllis Bolton, also of Kalispell.

Memorial services will be Dec. 23 at New Life Church in Los Alamitos with interment in Minneapolis.

Memorials may be made to the Christian Anti-Communism League, 227 E. Sixth St., Long Beach, Calif., 90802, or to the charity of donor's choice.

17 Dec. 1986 Interlake

1 Sept 1986

A. Hendrickson, 76

Anna Hendrickson, 76, a former Kalispell resident, died early Monday morning at Mercy Hospital in Williston, N.D.

She was born Dec. 6, 1909, at the farm of her parents, Ed and Jessie Eng, west of Medicine Lake. She was raised there and married Eddie Hendrickson at Wolf Point in December 1928. They lived and farmed at Medicine Lake until moving to Kalispell in 1955.

Mr. Hendrickson died Oct. 13, 1970. In 1983, she moved back to Medicine Lake.

She was a member of Medicine Lake Lutheran Church and American Lutheran Church Women. She enjoyed crocheting.

Survivors include a son, Richard, Medicine Lake; three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, and a son, Kenneth, on Oct. 3, 1985.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at Medicine Lake Lutheran Church, Medicine Lake, with the Rev. Tim Hutsler officiating. Interment will be in Medicine Lake Cemetery.

Fulkerson Funeral Home of Plentywood is in charge of arrangements.

6 May 1988

Mary Hepnar, 91

Mary Hepnar, 91, died Tuesday evening in Immanuel Lutheran Home where she had resided since 1977.

She was born Feb. 21, 1895, in Poland and received her education there. As a young woman she came to the United States and joined her brother in Chicago, Ill. She lived in Chicago most of her life.

In 1918, she married George Hepnar in Chicago. He preceded her in death on April 6, 1973.

In 1974, she came to Kalispell.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. John (Ann) Lipinski of Kalispell, Mrs. Ted (Charlotte) Tomaszek and Angeline Law, both of Chicago; two sons, Andrew Hepnar of Chicago, and the Rev. Bede Hepnar in Wisconsin; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The body has been forwarded by Johnson Mortuary to the Ocwieja Funeral Home in Chicago where rosary will be recited Friday evening. Mass of the Resurrection will be Saturday morning with the Rev. Bede Hepnar as celebrant. Burial will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Chicago.

The family suggests memorials to Immanuel Lutheran Home.

DI
M. Herington, 81

11 Jan 1987
Marjorie A. Herington, 81, formerly of Kalispell, died Saturday of natural causes at her home in Lacey, Wash.

She was born July 28, 1904, in Joliet, the daughter of William and Flora Anderson.

On Oct. 6, 1924, she married Andrew Charles Herington in Billings. The couple moved to Fallon in 1941, and to Kalispell in 1968, following Mr. Herington's retirement from the railroad. He preceded her in death in April 1973.

Mrs. Herington moved to Missoula in 1975 and had been in Lacey since 1978.

She belonged to the VFW Auxiliary in Kalispell; Sapphira Temple, Daughters of the Nile, Kalispell; Adah Chapter No. 17, Order of the Eastern Star, Kalispell; and White Shrine of Jerusalem, Missoula.

Survivors include two daughters, Pauline Danzer of Lacey, and Gertrude Geiger of Hebron, N.D.; two sons, William and Russell Herington, both of Lacey; two sisters, Elizabeth Bloom and Louise Erickson, both of Kalispell; two brothers, Robert and Russell Anderson, both of Kalispell; 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Graveside funeral services will be 11 a.m. Friday at Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. William Reid, retired Baptist minister, officiating. Military honors will be provided by local veterans.

Arrangements are by Weatherford Funeral Home.

Robert Herrig, 80

LIBBY — Robert F. Herrig, 80, a former Lincoln County superintendent of schools, died Sunday at Deaconess Medical Center in Spokane.

He was born Sept. 23, 1906, at Ant Flat, near Fortine, to Fred and Frieda Herrig. He was reared and educated in north Lincoln County, graduating from Lincoln County High School in Eureka in 1924. He attended Western Montana College in Dillon, Eastern Washington State College at Cheney and the University of Montana, where he earned a bachelor of education degree and life certificate in 1939. He later did graduate work at UM.

He taught in Montana public schools for 13 years, 12 of which were in rural county schools at Trego, Fortine, Rexford and Tooley Lake. During World War II he served with the U.S. Army Air Corps as a tower operator with Chenault's Flying Tigers Squadron in the China, Burma and India theaters.

After receiving his honorable discharge in 1945, he returned to Lincoln County and became business administrator and personnel superintendent for the U.S. Forest Service on the Kootenai National Forest at Libby. He held that position for 21 years, retiring in 1967.

After his retirement, he was appointed Lincoln County superintendent of schools, a post he held until 1975. Mr. Herrig was appointed to the Lincoln County Local Government Study Commission in 1975 and was a founding board member of the Lincoln County Alcohol Service Center. He also served as the center's treasurer for nine years.

He devoted much of his time to working on many other community activities, including development and construction of the Heritage Museum in Libby. He was a longtime member of the First Presbyterian Church and served as an elder and Sunday school teacher.

He married Inez Ratenkin in 1953 in Libby and is survived by her at the family home. Also surviving are two nieces, Freida Miller of Monarch, and Naomi Burkgart of Osburn, Idaho; and two nephews, Herbert Wilke of Fortine and Neal Wilke of Whitefish.

Services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at First Presbyterian Church in Libby with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Burial will be at the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home of Libby.

The family suggests memorials to First Presbyterian Church, the Heritage Museum or a charity of the donor's choice.

DI
W. Herriman, 87

William Herriman, 87, Bigfork, died Thursday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born July 6, 1899, in Ainsworth, Neb., a son of Charlie and Abbie Herriman. He received his education in Nebraska and served as a Pentecostal minister in Ainsworth.

He played guitar and banjo for the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tenn., from 1922-1929.

In May 1939, he moved to Kalispell.

He met Mable Bernice Kent in Kalispell and they were married on Aug. 24, 1939, in Thompson Falls.

He was employed with Great Northern Railroad for a time, and then was employed with the creamery in Whitefish.

Survivors include his wife, Mable of Bigfork; a son, Carroll Tuxton of Hanson, Nev.; two daughters, Arlene Lubuck of Hanson, Nev., and Lola Noel of Phoenix, Ariz.; his twin sister, Gladys Gould of Darby; and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in Glacier Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Robert J. Ross of the Christian Center Assembly of God officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

14 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

24 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

Robert Herseim, 34

Robert A. Herseim, 34, Columbia Falls, a truck driver for International Transportation for the past three years, died Thursday in a traffic accident near Browning.

He was born Aug. 6, 1951, in Great Falls to Amil and Margaret Herseim. He grew up in various parts of Montana, graduating from Boulder High School.

He enlisted in the Air Force, serving a total of 13 years. Then he worked as a truck driver, machinist and miner in Arizona and a steel worker in Colorado.

He married Laurie C. Duncan on Dec. 12, 1980, in Coolidge, Ariz. They moved to Columbia Falls in 1982.

Surviving are his wife, Laurie, Columbia Falls; four children, Harley and Trampas of Columbia Falls and Carey and Charlene of Helena; his father and stepmother, Amil and Feima Herseim, Boulder; three sisters, Lynette Fielder of Gillette, Wyo., Vicki Ovitt of Orange Park, Fla., and Pamela Scheicher of Columbus; six brothers, Craig Herseim of Columbia Falls, Gary Herseim of East Helena, Dale Ovitt of Helena, Dick Ovitt of Las Vegas, Nev., and Dean and Donald Ovitt, both of Burley, Idaho. His mother preceded him in death.

A memorial service will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Dr. David Kauffman of Whitefish will officiate. Cremation has taken place.

15 Feb 1984

E.J. Herzog, 78

Erwin "E.J." Herzog, 78, Columbia Falls, died at his home Saturday morning.

He was born Nov. 11, 1907, in Brothertown, Wis., to John and Elizabeth Herzog. He was raised and educated in Chilton, Wis.

He married Catherine Schneider in the late 1920s. She preceded him in death in 1933.

He married Alice R. Felski on Jan. 24, 1934, in Chilton, Wis. They operated a trucking business for many years.

During World War II, he worked with the Construction Battalion of the Navy in Kodiak, Alaska, and Greenland.

He later moved his family to Arco, Idaho, where he worked for AEC.

He moved to Columbia Falls in 1956, where he and his sons had a successful logging business.

He also operated a construction business, working in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana.

Survivors include his wife, Alice, at the family home in Columbia Falls; four daughters, Alicia Marek of Chilton, Wis., Janice Kuler of Keil, Wis., Nancie Goin of Belton, Mo., and Margaret Ditch of Boise, Idaho; six sons, Charles E. Herzog and Robert A. Herzog of Kalispell, John J. Herzog of Three Forks, Michael Herzog of Kamiah, Idaho, Richard Herzog of White Sulphur Springs, and Joseph A. Herzog of Columbia Falls; a sister, Genevieve M. Nedden of Bonita, Calif.; a brother, William A. Herzog of Keil, Wis.; 27 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

Rosary will be recited at 7:30 tonight at Van Leuven Funeral Home. A Christian service will be at 3 p.m. Thursday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Burial will be in St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery.

C.H. Hewitt, 69

24 June 1984

Clarence H. Hewitt, 69, Bigfork, died of natural causes Tuesday morning at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Aug. 17, 1916, in Sykeston, N.D., the son of Robert and Bertha Hewitt. He was raised in the Sykeston and Carrington areas, and attended Sykeston High School. As a young man he helped run the family farm for several years, then worked for several different employers.

He moved to Plentywood in 1937 and worked with the Civilian Conservation Corps.

On Aug. 2, 1938, he married Vera Darvis in Havre. He worked in Havre until World War II, first as a carpenter, then a contractor. Mr. Hewitt then worked on defense construction projects at Camp Carson, Colo., and Fort Missoula. At Fort Missoula, he was also a photographer assigned to the Italian and Japanese prisoners of war.

After the war, he managed the Darvis family ranch and did some contracting. He had a photography studio in Plentywood from 1945 to 1956. He was blueprint inspector for McIver, Hess and Haugsjaa architects in Great Falls until 1964, when he became chief appraiser and vice president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Great Falls.

He had lived in Bigfork since retiring in 1980.

In Plentywood, he served as chairman of the school board and was active in Masons, Jaycees and Boy Scouts. In Great Falls, he served on the Salvation Army board of directors and joined the Elks and Scottish Rite Masonic bodies. He was a certified member of the National Association of Review Appraisers.

Survivors include his wife, Vera at the family home; two daughters,

Rosanne Olszewski of Great Falls, and Glenna Jean Murry of West Chester, Ohio; a son, Clarence "Skip" Hewitt of Bigfork; three brothers, William of Bigfork, Robert of Havre, and Lynn of Stoughton, Wis.; a sister, Agnes McCann of New Rockford, N.D.; six grandchildren; and a number of other relatives.

Memorial services will be 11 a.m. Monday at Bigfork Masonic Temple with William Brass, past grand master of AF&AM of Montana, officiating.

Arrangements and cremation are by Weatherford Funeral Home.

DI

Theodore Hiatt, 87

17 May 1986
Theodore W. Hiatt, 87, Whitefish, died Saturday in Plains.

He was born May 9, 1899, in Alden, Mich., a son of Joshua and Mary Ann Hiatt.

Survivors include his wife, Lydia, of Whitefish, and a daughter, Kim Knutson of Plains.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Tuesday at Whitefish Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Ken Peterson officiating.

DI

S.J. Hilgers, 71

27 Oct 1986
Sylvester "Si" James Hilgers, 71, Whitefish, died of heart problems Saturday morning at North Valley Hospital.

He was born Nov. 16, 1914, in Crary, N.D., a son of John and Margaret Hilgers. He was raised and educated in Crary, N.D.

He worked for Inland-Western Airlines in Great Falls, Denver and Sheridan, Wyo., as station manager from 1941 to 1947. In 1947, he moved to Whitefish and was part-owner of the Hungry Horse Coach Lines. In 1952, he was employed with Great Northern and later with Burlington Northern Railway as a carman until his retirement in 1979. He also worked at Stacey Service Station in Whitefish.

He was a fisherman and a sports fan.

He was a 30-year member of the Knights of Columbus and a BN veteran.

He married Rose Orzynski in 1940 in Great Falls, and is now survived by her at their home in Whitefish.

He is also survived by two sons, Jim Hilgers of Andalusia, Ill., and John Hilgers of Lake Five; two daughters, Carol Judge of Spokane, Wash., and Cathy Leathers of Whitefish; three sisters, Evelyn Desautels of Aberdeen, S.D.; Clara Gavin of Fargo, N.D.; and Lois Jones of Vacaville, Calif.; a brother, Vern Hilgers of Crary, N.D.; and eight grandchildren.

Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Austin Funeral Home. Mass of the Resurrection will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Charles Catholic Church in Whitefish. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery in Great Falls at 1 p.m. Thursday.

24 Dec ~~1983~~ 1983
Claudia Hill, 78

Claudia Lewis O'Connell Hill, Columbia Falls, died unexpectedly in Yuma, Ariz., on Dec. 17.

Since retiring, Mrs. Hill had spent her summers at her birthplace in the Bad Rock community and her winters in Arizona.

She was born Dec. 8, 1908, in the Bad Rock community, a daughter of Anna and S.W. Lewis. She graduated from Columbia Falls High School in 1927.

She married John O'Connell in Kalispell in 1936. They resided in Glacier National Park until moving to Columbia Falls, where Mr. O'Connell was mayor from 1946 to 1949.

The family moved to Alaska in 1950 where Mr. O'Connell was a member of the Alaska Legislature and mayor of Sitka, Alaska. He died on Feb. 14, 1971.

She married Clyde Hill on Dec. 9, 1972, in Nevada. She served as magistrate and coroner in Sitka for 20 years. The Hills resided in Sitka until they retired and returned to the Bad Rock community in 1978.

She was a past matron of Estelle Pomeroy Chapter No. 68, Order of the Eastern Star; charter member of the auxiliary to William Murphy Post 5650, VFW; and past noble grand of Rebekah Lodge, all of Columbia Falls. She was a past officer in both the Emblem Club and Soroptimists in Skita; and a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Kalispell.

Survivors include her husband, Clyde Hill; one son, Chuck O'Connell, Anchorage, Alaska; one daughter, Jerry Anne Peterson, Bellevue, Wash.; one stepson, Wayne Hill, Eugene, Ore.; one stepdaughter, Kathy Mock, Enterprise, Ore.; 12 grandchildren; one sister, Edith Taylor, Kalispell; and one brother, Edward Lewis, Yakima, Wash.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Ella Van; brothers, Harry, Everett, Albert and Walter Lewis; and one granddaughter, Katie O'Connell.

Services were conducted in Ryzek Mortuary in Yuma on Dec. 19. The eulogy was given by her son,

DI

Chuck O'Connell, and the Rev. Charles Northmell officiated. Eastern Star members from the Yuma chapter conducted ritualistic rites.

The body has been cremated and the ashes will be taken to Sitka.

Memorials to Eastern Star have been suggested and may be mailed to Shirley McCallum, secretary of Estella Pomeroy Chapter, 885 Jellison Road, Columbia Falls.

DI

21 May 1986
Harry E. Hill, 78

Harry E. Hill, 78, Kalispell, died Wednesday morning of natural causes at Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

He was born Oct. 17, 1907, in Creston, the son of Deck and Ona Hill. He was raised in the Kalispell area and attended Flathead County High School. Except for service with the U.S. Army during World War II, Mr. Hill spent most of his life in the Flathead Valley.

On Dec. 30, 1935, he married Merle Bricker in Libby and the couple made their home in Kalispell. Mr. Hill worked for the U.S. Forest Service for about 15 years, and then was a self-employed used car dealer.

He was a member of the American Legion.

Survivors include his wife, Merle Hill, at the family home in Kalispell; a son, Gary Hill of Tallahassee, Fla.; two grandchildren; a brother, Omer Hill of Port Orchard, Wash.; and a sister, Marie Kimes of Kalispell.

There will be no public memorial services. Arrangements and cremation are by Weatherford Funeral Home.

DI
16 Mar 1986
Hill infant

The infant daughter of Lorna Rae and Lavon Hill Jr. died shortly after birth on Sunday morning in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Hill Jr., and a brother, Lavon Hill III, at the family home; her grandparents, Marlene and Lavon Hill Sr. of Columbia Falls, and Richard and Rena Hagen of Kalispell; her great-grandparents, Ida Lindsay of Libby, and Isabelle Everett and Verna Hagen, both of Kalispell; and a number of other relatives.

No public services are planned.

DI
Sat 1986
Pauline Hill, 61

LIBBY — Pauline L. Hill, 61, died at her home in Libby following a lengthy illness with cancer.

She was born July 7, 1925, in Whitefish, to John and Daisy Reimer. She attended Whitefish schools, Northwest Nazarene College in Nampa, Idaho, and Rocky Mountain College in Billings.

She married Dayton W. Hill on March 14, 1945, in Billings. After their marriage, the couple moved to Libby, where she was a medical receptionist for 11 years. She also was employed by the Libby Rexall Drug and the Western News until retiring.

She enjoyed fishing and golfing.

Survivors include her husband, Dayton, of Libby; a daughter, Jo Thompson of Libby; four sons, Gary Hill of Kalispell, Don Hill of Libby, Jim Hill of Helena, and Wayne Hill of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; four sisters, Clareece Cooley of St. Ignatius, Martha Cullen of Ronan, Joann Spurlock of Whitefish, and Lorna Isaak of Libby; a brother, Bruce Reimer of Whitefish; and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 3 p.m. Thursday at the Church of the Nazarene in Libby with the Rev. L. Dewayne Price officiating. Interment will be at the City of Libby Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

DI
7 Sept 1983
M.C. Hoagland, 42

Michael C. Hoagland, 42, Columbia Falls, died Sunday afternoon in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Nov. 26, 1943, in Ephrata, Pa., a son of George and Elizabeth Coldren Hoagland. He received his education in Pennsylvania and attended the Massanutten Military Academy in Virginia.

He was employed as a cookie distributor in Pennsylvania and later as a vending machine serviceman in New York and Connecticut.

On May 27, 1972, he married Elaine Zabohonski in Watchung, N.J.

In 1974, he moved to the Flathead Valley, living at Creston until 1981, when he moved to Columbia Falls.

Since coming to the Flathead, he had been employed with the Montana Forest Service for several years, Plum Creek Lumber, and had been a self-employed forestry worker for the past several years.

He worked on the movie "Heavens Gate."

He was a member of the Teamsters Union.

He was active in Whitefish Little League and the soccer club as coach and coordinator.

Survivors include his wife, Elaine, at home; four children, Elizabeth and John Hoagland in Pennsylvania, and Joseph and Jennifer Hoagland at home; a sister, Jane Hirt of Mill Valley, Calif.; an aunt and several relatives in Pennsylvania.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later by Johnson Mortuary.

DI
13 Feb 1986
'Tony' Hoerner, 78

Anton "Tony" Hoerner, 78, a Columbia Falls area logger and farmer, died Thursday in Spokane.

He was born March 20, 1907, in Hazen, N.D., to Anton and Caroline Hoerner, and later attended school there.

He moved to Columbia Falls in 1937. He raised cattle and sheep there, and was an avid gardener. He was known for giving extra produce to those who could use it.

He married Delores Dial in Columbia Falls on Dec. 10, 1949.

He was preceded in death by six brothers and one sister.

Survivors include his wife, Delores, at the family home; one daughter, Sue Salminer of Columbia Falls; two sons, Lee of Kentucky and Aly of Kalispell; six sisters, Frances Schmidt, Ida Weiland and Millie Gress, all of Whitefish, Regina Weiland and Helen Weiland of Columbia Falls, and Rose Binns of Alameda, Calif.; four brothers, Willie, Vincent and Ronnie of Columbia Falls, and Frank of Whitefish; eight grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Rosary will be recited today at 7:30 p.m. at the Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated Monday at 10 a.m. at St. Richard's Catholic Church in Columbia Falls. Rev. Fr. Bernard Sullivan will officiate. Burial will follow in St. Richard's Catholic Cemetery.

Visitation will be Sunday from 1-8 p.m. at Van Leuven Funeral Home.

The family suggests memorials be made to Montana Heart Association.

M. Hagadone, 56

^{4/26/1986}
Marguerite R. Hagadone, 56, Kalispell, died at home Wednesday morning following a lengthy illness.

She was born Feb. 22, 1930, in Lansing, Mich., the daughter of Gaylord J. and Gladys Kikendall. She was raised and attended public schools in Kalispell. As a young woman, she worked at several Kalispell restaurants, including the Silver Grill and Jordan's.

In 1950, she married Walter A. Gilbert in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and this marriage was later dissolved.

She married Ronald L. Hagadone on July 1, 1955, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. The couple made their home in Poplar from 1956 until moving to Kalispell in 1964. Mr. Hagadone preceded her in death in 1977.

She was a member of Calvary Lutheran Church.

Survivors include six sons, Terry, Tony, Danny and Dale Hagadone, and Gary Gilbert, all of Kalispell, and Jay Gilbert of Riverton, Wyo.; three daughters, Mrs. Don (Bonnie) Arrigoni of Moorcroft, Wyo., Sally Hagadone of the family home, and Gloria Gilbert, of Kalispell; her mother, Gladys McHenry of Kalispell; a sister, Maxine Spear of Libby; a brother, Joseph Kikendall Sr. of Kalispell; eight grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Visitation will be from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at Weatherford Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Monday at Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. Thomas Walker of Calvary Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery followed by a reception at the Kalispell Moose Lodge.

Joseph Holcomb, 72

^{4 Sept 1986}
Joseph V. Holcomb, 72, of Libby, died Thursday at his home of heart failure. He had been part owner of the Neapolitan Pie Plate Deli in Libby since 1984.

He was born May 9, 1914, in Troup, Texas, to George and Nellie Nolcomb. He attended school in Texas and Arkansas. On May 11, 1935, he married Eula Mofield in Corning, Ark.

He farmed in Arkansas until 1938, when he moved to St. Louis and joined the Curtis Wright Airplane Division. In 1948 he moved to Longview, Wash., where he worked for Longbell Lumber Co. and Weyerhaeuser Lumber Co. He also owned a janitorial service in Longview from 1960-1964. The following year he became a school custodian in Kent, Wash. He retired in 1977 and moved to Libby in 1979.

He was a member of the Church of God.

Survivors include his wife, Eula, of Libby; a daughter, Beverly Tunison, Libby; two sons, Kenneth and Don Holcomb, both of Libby; a sister, Gertrude Ball, in Oklahoma; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Libby with the Rev. Tom Howland officiating. Burial will follow at the City of Libby Cemetery.

Lonita Holland, 81

^{30 Jan 1986}
Lonita Kurtz Holland, 82, who was Flathead High School librarian for 18 years, died Thursday afternoon at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born March 29, 1903, in Cantonment, Okla., to George and Mary Kurtz. The family moved to Poplar when she was 3, and she graduated from high school there in 1922.

From there she went to Jamestown (N.D.) College, where she was president of her form. After earning her bachelor's degree in 1927, she taught French, Spanish and English at Hardin and at Wallace, Idaho.

In the mid-1940s she earned a degree in library science at the University of Southern California.

She worked at FHS from 1946 until 1964. During that time she was also the National Honor Society sponsor.

She served as deacon at First Presbyterian Church and was awarded a life membership in the United Presbyterian Women's Organization.

She married Herbert E. Holland in 1960. The couple built a home on the east side of the valley near the Trap Zoo, where they lived until his death in 1980. She then moved to Kalispell, first into an apartment and in May 1982 to the Immanuel Lutheran Home.

Surviving are two brothers, Lowell Kurtz of Louisville, Ky., and Dr. Kenneth Kurtz of Altadena, Calif.; three nieces and a nephew.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Mortuary chapel with the Rev. Barry Dawson of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery at Columbia Falls.

DI

Don Holliday, 59

27 May 1986
Don Eugene Holliday, 59, Lakeside, died Tuesday morning in Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Aug. 26, 1926, in Stuart, Neb., a son of Wever Jennings and Daisy Gardner Holliday. He received his education in Nebraska and graduated from high school there.

On Oct. 28, 1944, he entered the Marine Corps and served until receiving his honorable discharge on Dec. 9, 1946. On April 1, 1950, he entered the Air Force and served until receiving his honorable discharge on Sept. 30, 1968.

He moved to Lakeside in 1958 and had lived there since.

He was employed with Montana Fish and Game Department, Equity Supply and Somers tie plant until his retirement several years ago.

Survivors include his wife, Eileen, at home; two sons, Larry Holliday of Kalispell and Gene Holliday of Kirkland, Wash.; a daughter, Deborah Holliday of Lakeside; his mother, Daisy Holliday of Bakersfield, Calif.; two grandchildren; and several other relatives.

Memorial services will be 10 a.m. Thursday in Eidsvold Lutheran Church with the Rev. Wayne Pris officiating. Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

DI

14 Mar 1986
Dale Holmes, 54

Dale Kermit Holmes, 54, Kalispell, a caretaker at Conrad Memorial Cemetery for more than 35 years, died Friday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born Sept. 15, 1931, in Genoa, Wis., to Sig and Tillie Holmes. The family came to Kalispell when he was a child, and he attended Kalispell schools.

He was a 25-year member of the Kalispell Eagles Lodge.

He was a bachelor. Surviving are a brother, Lyle, Post Falls, Idaho; a sister, Bernice Sterner, Kalispell; several nieces and nephews. Two brothers preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Johnson Mortuary chapel with the Rev. Howard Mars of Bethlehem Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Conrad Memorial Cemetery. Visitation will be until noon Tuesday.

DI

26 Feb 1986
James Holcomb, 58

James A. Holcomb, 58, Kalispell, who lived in Kalispell most of his life, died of natural causes Wednesday evening at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

He was born April 23, 1927, in Hardin, the son of George and Maggie Holcomb. He lived in Cody, Wyo., until age 6, when his family moved to Kalispell.

Mr. Holcomb served with the Navy in the Pacific Campaign during World War II.

Mr. Holcomb worked with Pacific Power and Light Co. as a central office repairman from 1952 until retiring due to ill health in 1975.

He was an avid fisherman and camper.

On Oct. 3, 1945, he married Grace Cooper in Kalispell, and she survives him at the family home.

Also surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Michael (Linda) Hayden of East Fairview, N.D., Judy L. Sipe of Eureka, Mrs. Mark (Karen) Kvaalen of Kalispell, Mrs. Norman (Kathy) Calobeer of Cannon AFB, N.M., and Mrs. Dale (Vicki) Wyman of Missoula; a son, James L. Holcomb of Kalispell; a brother, Robert Holcomb of Port Angeles, Wash.; five sisters, Mrs. Harold (Emma) Babcock of Woodland, Wash., and Adeline Lobdell, Eunice Baker, Dorothy Galyon and Lois Sheppard, all of Kalispell; 14 grandchildren; and a number of other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother and three sisters.

Memorial services will be 12:30 p.m. Friday at Weatherford Funeral Home with the Rev. James R. Newman of Bethel Baptist Church officiating. Cremation has taken place at Weatherford Crematory. Private interment will be at Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials to a charity of the donor's choice.

DI

Charles Holte, 72

12 May 1986
TROY — Charles A. Holte, 72, died of natural causes Monday morning at his home in Troy.

He was born Aug. 16, 1913, in Lunde Valley, N.D., to Paul and Sarah Holte. He was reared and educated in Lunde Valley, and later moved to Montana where he worked in construction on Fort Peck Dam. He farmed near Poplar until enlisting in the Army in 1942. He served with the Army Air Corps in the European and African theaters and later the Pacific theater. He returned to Poplar following his honorable discharge in 1945.

On Sept. 25, 1945, he married Hazel Rasmussen in Wolf Point. The couple farmed at Poplar until moving to Froid in 1954. Mr. Holte was employed in construction before moving to Billings in 1969. He was a truck driver for Empire Sand and Gravel in Billings until retiring and moving to Troy in 1979.

He was preceded in death by nine brothers and two sisters.

Survivors include his wife, Hazel, Troy; a daughter, Colleen Holte, Troy; a grandchild and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be 2 p.m. Friday at Milnor Lake Cemetery with the Rev. James Darchuk of Christ Lutheran Church officiating. Military honors will be provided by the VFW and the American Legion. Arrangements are by Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

The family suggests memorials to the Troy Ambulance, P.O. Box 641, Troy 59935.

Russell Hoppe, 58

LIBBY — Russell Hoppe, 58, Libby, died of an apparent heart attack Wednesday morning on arrival at St. John Lutheran Hospital.

He was born Jan. 28, 1928, in Dodson to Louis and Mary Hoppe. He moved to Libby in 1935 with his family and attended public schools there. He later served with the U.S. Air Force for 7½ years until his honorable discharge in the early 1950s.

He married Jeanette King on Aug. 8, 1954, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Mr. Hoppe was employed by the J. Neils Lumber Co., St. Regis

DI

Beulah Homier, 68

28 July 1986
Beulah A. Homier, 68, Helena, a former resident of Trego, died Monday at Western Care Nursing Home in Helena of cancer and congestive heart failure.

She was born Sept. 16, 1917, in Brimstone Creek, Tenn., to Joe and Linda Lynn. She was raised and educated in Tennessee.

She married George Homier April 22, 1943, in Nashville, Tenn. The couple later resided at Plattsburg, N.Y., moving to Trego, in 1945. They were employed in the Christmas tree industry until moving to Helena in 1958.

Mrs. Homier had been a cook at Carroll College and at Shodair Hospital in Helena. She had also done volunteer work at the God Is Love Mission in Helena.

Her husband died in 1961. She moved to Glendale, Calif., in 1975, where she lived until returning to Helena in 1986.

She was a member of the Christian Missionary and Alliance Church in Helena.

She is survived by two sons, James Homier of Helena, and George Homier Jr. of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a daughter, Ann Young of Reseda, Calif.; a sister, Evelyn Green of Hope, Ind.; and 11 grandchildren.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Vial Funeral Home Chapel in Eureka with the Rev. Joseph Robins officiating. Burial will be in Tobacco Valley Cemetery in Eureka.

DI

Evelyn H. Honn

10 Mar 1986
Evelyn Holtan Honn, a former Kalispell resident, died March 10 in Mankato, Minn.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Holtan of Dawson, Minn.

After high school, she attended Mankato State and entered the teaching profession at Sleepy Eye, Minn., where she married William Honn.

She taught in several localities including Kalispell. She retired from teaching while at Kalispell.

Mrs. Honn was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith.

She enjoyed music and directed several cherub choirs.

She had several hobbies, including bell collecting. She had bells from all over the world.

She was preceded in death by three sisters, Mrs. Everet (Polly) Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph (Edna) Johnson, and Mrs. John (Vornie) Dahl.

Survivors include her husband, William; two sisters, Mrs. Milton (Rebecca) Mattson of Forest Lake, Minn., and Mrs. Oscar (Margaret) Lundquist of St. Paul, Minn.; a brother, Russell Holtan of Dawson, Minn.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were at Dawson, Minn.

DI

Paper Co. and Champion International for 32 years. At the time of his death he was the manufacturing director of quality control at the Champion mill in Libby.

He was a member of the Elks Lodge, American Legion and the Champion Fire Department, and was secretary/treasurer of the Libby Video Club.

Survivors include his wife, Jeanette of Libby; a daughter, Billie Lou Mercer of Poison; a son, James Price of Missoula; his mother, Mary Hoppe of Libby; two sisters, Gayle Rodes of Seattle and

100d. 1986 - Interlake

Judy Jordan of Libby; three brothers, Wayne Hoppe of Seattle, Richard Hoppe of Maui, Hawaii, and Leo Hoppe of Moyie Springs, Idaho; 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Libby with the Rev. Charles Roman officiating. Burial with military honors will be at the City of Libby Cemetery under the direction of Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

Verlyn Horst, 24

Verlyn R. Horst, 24, Columbia Falls, died Monday at North Valley Hospital from complications from pneumonia.

He was born Nov. 13, 1961, in Pierre, S.D., to Arleen and Alvin (Blackie) Horst. They lived in South Dakota and North Dakota until moving to Columbia Falls in 1966. He attended school in Columbia Falls and graduated from Columbia Falls High School in 1980.

He worked as a UPS carrier for a short time before moving to Texas. He worked as a mold set up-man for Jois Plastic Company in Irving, Texas. He returned to Columbia Falls in January 1986.

12 Nov. 1986 - Inter-lake

Hugh Houston, 70

Hugh E. Houston, 70, Bigfork, died in Kalispell Regional Hospital Monday morning following a lengthy illness.

He was born March 4, 1916, in Kalispell, a son of Dr. Hugh E. and Lorretta Houston. He attended Kalispell schools, the University of Southern California and Gonzaga University.

He was a radio announcer for NBC for a time before entering the U.S. Army where he served during World War II. He then returned to Southern California where he was a salesman for W.R. Grace Textiles.

In 1973, he moved to Bigfork.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Gretchan Chase and Virginia Gay.

In 1972, he married Edythe Toms in Las Vegas, Nev., and is now survived by her at the family home in Bigfork.

He is also survived by three children, Hugh Jr., Jade, and Bradley Houston, all in Southern California; a sister, Mary Pat Coddington of Petersburg, Ill., and several other relatives.

Private graveside services will be conducted Wednesday in Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Survivors include his parents, Arleen and Alvin (Blackie) Horst of Columbia Falls; a sister, Mrs. Danny (Vian) Borg of Nashville, Tenn.; a brother, Vern Horst of Anchorage, Alaska; a niece, Ashly Borg of Nashville, Tenn.; and his grandmother, Frieda Rieger of Mobridge, S.D.

He was a member of Our Redeemer Church in Columbia Falls.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Michael Warbier will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls.

Alvyna Howard, 84

LIBBY — Alvyna Howard, 84, Libby, died Monday morning at St. John Lutheran Hospital.

She was born June 13, 1902, in Nevus, Minn., to Oswald and Mary Martin. She and her parents moved to Divide County, N.D., and homesteaded near Wildrose.

She married George M. Howard on Nov. 15, 1922, in Hamlet, N.D. The couple farmed in the Wildrose and Crosby areas for many years before moving into Crosby in 1944.

They moved to Libby in 1951.

Mrs. Howard was a member of the VFW Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, George of Libby; three sons, Donald, Marlyn and Vernon Howard, all of Libby; a sister, Etta Skor of Williston, N.D.; 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at the City of Libby Cemetery with the Rev. Everett Tande of Christ Lutheran Church officiating. Arrangements are by Vial Funeral Home in Libby.

DI

DI

Jacqueline Hout, 53

POLSON — Jacqueline C. Hout, 53, died of a heart attack Tuesday at her home in the Valley View area.

She was born April 23, 1933, in Polson to Raymond and Violet Davis Koehler. She was reared in Polson by her grandmother and received her education in Polson public schools.

On Dec. 7, 1959, she married Robert S. Hout in Polson. They had made their home in the Valley View area since their marriage.

Survivors include her husband, Robert of Polson; a son, Ricky Koehler, in Texas; four stepsons, Robert J. Hout of Pablo, Ronald Hout of Charlo, Charlie Hout of Valley View, and Melvin Hout of Sunburst; a stepdaughter, Carol Matt of Moiese; a brother, Tom Koehler, in eastern Montana; and 23 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Friday at Mosley Funeral Chapel in Polson with the Rev. Rudy Ringhoff of First Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Lake View Cemetery.

DI

DL

Leon Howell, 70

Leon Curtis Howell, 70, Stevensville, a former Kalispell resident, died of natural causes Aug. 15 in a Missoula hospital. 1986

He was born Nov. 17, 1915, in Dillon. He moved to the Charlo area with his parents, Wiley and Lulu Howell, and attended grade school at Ridgeway School southeast of Charlo. He graduated from Charlo High School in 1935.

He married Beatrice May Stipe on Aug. 22, 1948, in Ronan. They lived in Charlo for 21 years. He was employed as a mechanic at Jack Wilson's Garage in Charlo.

In 1969, they moved to Kalispell, where he worked as a mechanic for the Army Reserve. He later was transferred to Missoula, where he worked in the same capacity. He retired from the Reserves in 1982. The Howells then moved to Stevensville.

He served for four years in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II and was a member of the Army Reserve for 26 years.

He was a member of the American Legion George "Bud" Pelley Post in Charlo and later was a member of Fort Owen American Legion Post No. 94 in Stevensville.

He is survived by his wife, Beatrice, at the family home in Stevensville; a daughter, Carol E. Cariveau of Arlington, Wash.; four sons, Dale L. Howell and Rodney A. Howell, both of Kalispell, Curtis J. Howell of Anacortes, Wash., and Wayne E. Howell of Neah Bay, Wash.; a brother, R. Dale Howell of Polson; three sisters, LaVaughn Heyne, Leota Peters and Ruth VanDenHeede, all of Oregon; 10 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Denise May, in 1969; two brothers, Claude and Ted Howell; and a sister, Blanche Hendricksen.

Graveside services were Monday at Mountain View Cemetery with military graveside rites.

Arrangements were under the direction of Shrider's Mortuary in Ronan.

Memorials may be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

DL

Ruth Howell, 69

8 May 1986
Ruth Esther Hanson Howell, 69, Whitefish, died Thursday morning at North Valley Extended Care.

She was born Oct. 19, 1916, at Falls City, Neb., a daughter of Lawrence and Mary Ellen Hanson.

She married Harry Howell on April 17, 1937, in Hamilton, and shortly thereafter they moved to Whitefish. He preceded her in death on Feb. 13, 1964, in Whitefish.

She became a licensed practical nurse and worked in Whitefish and Missoula for many years. She also worked as a housemother for the local colleges in Bozeman and Missoula.

She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of the Eastern Star.

She was preceded in death by her eldest son, Arthur Howell, and four brothers and three sisters.

Survivors include two sons, Dick of Columbia Falls and Ron of Missoula; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a number of other relatives.

Graveside services were at 2 p.m. today at Whitefish Cemetery with the Rev. Kent Morrison of First Baptist Church of Whitefish officiating. Burial was in Whitefish Cemetery under the direction of Austin Funeral Home of Whitefish.

DI
30 June 1986
DL

Dennis J. Hoylo

Former Missoula resident Dennis J. Hoylo, 39, of Woodbury, Minn., died Monday in a St. Paul, Minn., hospital of a ruptured aneurysm.

He was born Oct. 1, 1946, in Montana.

While living in Missoula, Mr. Hoylo was a clerical employee for the Burlington Northern Railroad for 18 years. For the past three years he had served as vice general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks.

Survivors include his wife, Mary, and three children, Jared, Stacie and Krista, all at the family home; his parents, Jake and Iola Hoylo, and a brother, Craig, all of Missoula; and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday at Woodbury United Methodist Church, with burial in Woodbury United Methodist Cemetery.

A memorial service will be held in Missoula at a later date.

- 114 -

DI
11/6/1986

Homer Huggins, 91

Homer H. Huggins, 91, Kalispell, died Wednesday morning in Flathead County Nursing Home.

He was born Feb. 2, 1895, in Columbia Falls, a son of Logan and Nannie Huggins. He attended Deer Park school.

On May 9, 1914, he married Agnes May Radabah.

He had done logging work. He also farmed, was a trainer of work horses and did all kinds of work with horses.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Agnes, on Nov. 17, 1935; a son, Dale, in infancy; two daughters, Lois, in 1939, and Barbara Callahan in 1969.

Survivors include seven sons, Martin L. of Kalispell, Edward of Missoula, Arthur of Tacoma, Wash., Thomas of Seattle, Bill of Auburn, Wash., Robert of Orange, Calif., and Dennis Huggins of Lakeside, Calif.; four daughters, Effie McKinley of Columbia Falls, Helen Romeo of Seattle, Wash., Millie Louise of Lakeside, Calif., and Carol Huggins of Missoula; 32 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren and many other relatives.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Monday in Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Sean Dillon of First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

12 Sept 1986
Gladyce Hundahl, 71

Gladyce Marie Hundahl, 71, Kalispell, died Friday afternoon at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

She was born Aug. 16, 1915, in Whitefish, the daughter of Elmer and Henrietta Evans. Raised in Whitefish, she graduated from Whitefish High School in 1936. She then moved to Kalispell, where she was employed by the Montgomery Ward store.

On Nov. 27, 1938, she married Victor P. Hundahl and they made their home in Kalispell until 1958. Then they lived for a number of years in Wenatchee, Wash., and Eugene and Portland, Ore. They returned to Kalispell in 1983.

She was president of the Kalispell Teen Center when it began in the mid-1950s. She also enjoyed painting and fishing.

She is survived by her husband, Victor, at the family home in Kalispell; four sons, Victor A. Hundahl of Alameda, Calif., Jess Hundahl of Chicago, Ill., Peter James Hundahl of Portland, and Gary Wade Hundahl of Tualatin, Ore.; one daughter, Sharon K. Hundahl of Kalispell; a brother, Harold Evans of Kirkland, Wash.; five granddaughters; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Cremation has taken place.

DI
7 Nov 1986 - Interlake
Olive Hussy, 83

KENNEWICK, Wash. — Olive Nelson Hussy, 83, died Tuesday in Kennewick, Wash. She was born in Frazier in 1903.

She is survived by two brothers, Mark and Chuck Jerrow of Kalispell, and a daughter, Esther Walker in Kennewick, Wash.

Burial services will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Kennewick.

DI
15 March 1986
Julia Hunt, 84

Julia A. Hunt, 84, formerly of Hot Springs, died Saturday at Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls.

She was born May 8, 1901, in Huggins, Mo., to George W. and Sarah S. Lingle. She was raised and educated in Missouri.

She married Harry Hunt in Glasgow. He preceded her in death in 1976.

She was a member of the Church of God in Paradise.

She was preceded in death by three sisters, Celia Keebough, Grace E. Sigmund, and Opal S. Kryder; and a brother, Fred Lingle.

Survivors include a brother, Alfred Lingle of Kalispell; a sister, Lottie McNabb of Glasgow; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The body has been forwarded to Gordon Funeral Home in Mio, Mich., for services and burial. A graveside service is planned Wednesday in Luzerne Cemetery in Big Creek Township, Mich. No services are planned locally.

Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls is in charge of local arrangements.

DI
Marie Huston, 91

Marie G. Huston, 91, Columbia Falls, died Sunday at North Valley Extended Care.

She was born Oct. 1, 1895, in Inverkeithny, Scotland, to George and Elspet Clark. She was raised and educated in Scotland. She moved to Montana in 1912.

She married Harry Benjamin Huston on July 2, 1915, in Malta.

She was a member of Eastern Star in Sidney for many years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harry Benjamin Huston, in August, 1964; a daughter, Decima Ruby Huston; two sons, Glenn on Nov. 18, 1969, and Richard on June 22, 1973.

Survivors include eight grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be at 3 p.m. today at Van Leuven Funeral Home in Columbia Falls. The Rev. Wendell Phillips will officiate. A graveside service will be at 10 a.m. Friday at Malta.

29 Oct. 1986 - Interlake

'Bill' Hutchinson, 57

Paul W. "Bill" Hutchinson, 57, Kalispell, who had been manager of the tack department at Western Outdoor for the past 14 years, died Thursday afternoon of natural causes at Kalispell Regional Hospital.

31 July 1986

He was born March 11, 1929, in Helena to Samuel W. and L. E. L. a Hutchinson.

He was raised in Billings, and graduated from Billings Senior High School in 1947.

During his senior year he was voted Most Valuable Player at the state Class A basketball tournament, where he was the only player to score more than 20 points in a game, doing so twice. He also played basketball for the University of Utah, from which he graduated in 1951.

On June 10, 1951, he married Esther Mau in Salt Lake City. He then spent two years in the U.S. Army during the Korean conflict.

After his honorable discharge in 1953, he ranched at Cokeville, Wyo., until moving to Kalispell in 1972. He began working for Western Outdoor shortly after his arrival in the Flathead Valley.

He served on the Cokeville school board for 15 years, the last seven years as president, and was active in a number of other civic groups. He was an active sportsman and outdoorsman.

Survivors include his wife Esther at home, a son, Michael, Kalispell; a daughter, Barbie Smith, Spokane; his father, in Somers; and two grandchildren.

Visitation is today, 2-5 p.m. at the Weatherford Funeral Home. Funeral services will be Monday at 11 a.m. at the funeral home, with the Rev. Edmund Smith of St. Matthew's Catholic Church officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Montana Heart Association, 435 Second St. E., Kalispell.