Blackwell Albert Edsel Brooks Mary 30 Aug 1909 p5- marriage

On Wednesday of last week at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. W. T. Lavin, solemnized the marriage of Albert Edsel Blackwell of Lloyd, Pennsylvania, and Miss Mary Brooks of Libby. Only immediate friends of the bride were present at the ceremony. The bride looked very pretty in a dress of white silk mulle while the groom wore the conventional black. The groom has been employed as telephone operator for the Great Northern at Missvale for the past three months, while the bride has lived in Libby for one year, coming here from Pennsylvania, where the romance started. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life. The couple will make their home in Libby.

Bland Rolla Peeler Sadie 11 Nov 1909 p7- marriage 15 Nov 1909 p8- marriage

Married in Salt Lake.
Announcement was received in this city of the marriage of Mr. Rolla Bland and Miss Sadie Peeler, the happy event occurring in Salt Lake City yesterday, in the presence of a few friends and relatives.
The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Peeler, and has lived in Kalspell since childhood. She has a wide circle of friends, and those who know her best admire her most. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bland, and has also lived in Kalspell and the valley for years, and is a young man of exemplary habits and of splendid character. The many friends of the happy couple in this city will hasten to extend congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.
Mr. and Mrs. Bland expect to spend a few weeks in California and at other western points before returning to Kalspell, and will make their home for the winter in the Peeler residence at the corner of Second street and Second avenue east.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday at high noon by the Rev. Bishop Scanlan at the Cathedral parsonage, when Miss Sadie M. Peeler daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Peeler of Kalspell, Mont., became the bride of Rollin J. Bland, also of Kalspell, Mont. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian J. Peeler and Carl O. Lewis, of St. Louis Mo., acted as best man. After the ceremony the party enjoyed a delightful wedding breakfast at the Wilson hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Bland will be at home to their friends after December 15, in the Peeler home at Kalspell, Mont. Mr. and Mrs. Peeler and daughter Miss Lillian, and little son Robert, will spend the winter in Santa Barbara, California. -Salt Lake Tribune

Brown	David	Campbell	Bessie	22 Nov 1909 p8- marriage	29 Nov 1909 p4- marriage
				Brown--Campbell. A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Iseninger, eight miles northwest of Kallispell, on Saturday evening, November 20th, at six o'clock, when Rev. T. Stancliffe, of the First Presbyterian church, united in marriage Mr. David Brown and Miss Bessie Campbell, sister of Mrs. Iseninger, in marriage. Only the near relatives were present. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a table that fairly groaned with good things—a dinner such as only a Flathead county rancher can give. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown have many friends in and around Kallispell—in fact they are old-timers, not in years but in residence, in Flathead, a host of good wishes will follow them as they launch their boat upon the sea of matrimony.	Mr. David Brown and Miss Bessie Campbell were married Saturday evening, November 20th. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clyde Iseninger. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home on the John Campbell ranch. Mr. Oliver S. Kramstad of Spokane and Miss Martha Hougen were united in marriage last Monday evening, November 22. The ceremony was performed in the Scandinavian Methodist church, Rev. N. L. Hansen officiating. Miss Hoesse, Miss Nora Hansen, Mr. Emil Hougen, and Mr. Andrew Havaland completed the bridal party. Miss Hansen and Mr. Stakson played the wedding march. A wedding dinner was served at the parsonage to about seventy friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kramstad left that evening for Spokane where they will reside.
Brown	George	Redmond	Loretta	21 Jan 1909 p5- marriage	28 Jan 1909 p5- marriage
				A wedding of interest to the people of Montford was solemnized Wednesday, December, 23, 1908, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dolphus S. Brown of Watertown N. Y., when in the presence of relatives and a few immediate friends of the contracting parties, Miss Loretta Redmond of Watertown, and Mr. George Brown of Montford were united in marriage. Mr. Brown has been a resident of Montford for some years and is well and favorably known and held in high esteem by his many friends. He and his estimable wife have the best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Brown reached home Sunday and went at once to housekeeping in the pleasant home Mr. Brown had prepared for his bride.	CHILDHOOD LOVERS WEDDED. George Brown, of Montford, Mont., spent the holidays with his uncle, Adolphus Brown, of this village. This was his first visit to his old home in 15 years. While here, he and Miss Loretta Redmond, who were lovers in bygone years, were married at the home of his uncle, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. G. Atwell, pastor of the M. E. church. The bride and groom accompanied by Earl J. Brown, a cousin of the groom, left for their Montana home yesterday.—Watertown News.

Casswell John J Gorton Lucille

1 Jul 1909 p1- marriage

Casswell-Gorton.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred last Tuesday evening, when Mr. John J. Casswell and Miss Lucille Gorton were married at the home of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gorton, at their country home near Montford. Rev. H. H. Griffin, of the Christian church of this city, pronounced the impressive ceremony that united the lives of these two splendid young people.

A large number of the friends and relatives gathered to witness the ceremony, and after congratulations and good will expressions from the many friends and admirers, a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The home was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The principals in this wedding are two of Flathead county's very best young people, and have a host of friends who will hasten to extend congratulations and best wishes for the very best things that life may hold in store for them. The bride lived for several years in Kalispell, where she has a large circle of friends and acquaintances, but it is in the neighborhood where she has lived with her parents and taught school for the past three years that she is most appreciated. In social and religious circles of the eastside Miss Gorton has always taken the leading part, and it is with sincere regret that her many friends there will give her up.

Mr. Casswell has been with the Missoula Mercantile company for a number of years, and is rated as one of the promising young business men of the city. At present he occupies the position of traveling salesman, and in this capacity has extended his acquaintance to every corner of the county, and all who know him hold him in highest regard.

A large array of wedding presents attest something of the esteem in which this worthy couple are held by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Casswell have gone to Seattle for a short sojourn at the exposition, and will return to Kalispell to make their home.

16 Sep 1909 p5- marriage

Disbrow-Redeker.
 The many invited guests who were present last evening at the Presbyterian church to witness the marriage ceremony of Charles W. Disbrow to Laura May Redeker, were charmed with the beautiful decorations of the church which had been almost lined with evergreens, relieved with spots of color by the judicious use of golden glow. A bell of evergreen and golden glow hung in front of the altar, which had as a background a curtain of the same pleasing decorations.
 Promptly at seven o'clock to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Alta Woolf the wedding party met at the altar and the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Stanchiff, after which the party repaired to the Masonic temple where the reception was held. Messrs. L. A. Foot and Budd Beaman were ushers at the church, Misses Mame Wade and Kate Disbrow bridesmaids and Mr. Hans Walschli and Mr. Redeker, brother of the bride were groomsmen. Little Lillian Margaret Riffe and Harbino Disbrow were charming as flowerbearers. The bride was beautifully gowned in white with bridal veil, and carried bride roses.
 In the receiving line at the Masonic Temple the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Redeker, Mrs. Disbrow, the groom's mother and the groomsmen and bridesmaids received the guests. After the reception a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room. Later the newly married couple managed to get away on the train, bound for Seattle where they will visit a couple of weeks before returning to Kallispell.
 Mr. Chas. Disbrow has resided in Kallispell for many years and during his work here teaching the young idea a proper sense of good music has made friends of the entire community, who cordially congratulate him in winning so charming a bride as the accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Redeker. The bride has resided here a couple of years coming from Pennsylvania to join her parents. She taught for a time in the Kallispell schools, and the board were disappointed at not being able to retain her in the community.

Griffis H H Kamard Lucille M

8 Jul 1909 p8- license

Marriage licenses were issued this week to H. H. Griffis and Lucille M. Kamard, both of Kalspell, and Oscar C. Peterson and Lizzie Hankle, of Browning.

8 Jul 1909 p8- marriage

Griffis-Kamard.

A pretty home wedding that came as a complete surprise to the many friends of the bride and groom, occurred Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Moses, when Rev. Harold H. Griffis of the Christian church, and Miss Lucille Madeline Kamard were quietly married in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives, Rev. T. A. Stanclife, pastor of the Presbyterian church, pronouncing the impressive words that made the twin one.

From the wide acquaintance and popularity of both Rev. Griffis and his bride came an unusual interest in this happy culmination of a romance that started shortly after the young parson arrived in Kalspell three years ago fresh from college to take up his life work in the great new northwest, far from home and friends, and both members of his large congregation and friends and admirers outside, hastened to extend congratulations and best wishes for a full measure of the best things that life holds for the happy couple.

The bride is one of Kalspell's fairest daughters, has grown to womanhood here, and her admirers are limited only by her acquaintance. Only two weeks ago she completed her course in the Flathead County High School, and graduated with honors. She has many accomplishments and a disposition that will go to make an ideal home. In the Moses home, where she has been reared since babyhood, she is loved as an only daughter, and in the church, of which she has been a faithful member for a number of years, she is held in highest esteem by all.

Rev. Griffis came to Kalspell just about three years ago, and found a young struggling church, or rather two churches, for he was employed by the congregation in Kalspell and the one at Spring Creek, dividing his time between the two places. The Kalspell congregation then had a membership of something like 75, but with all the ambition that young blood is heir to, the young pastor bent his every effort to bring the Christian church to the front ranks in the religious world in Kalspell, and how well he has succeeded is a matter of church history. The remaining debt that hung over the little frame church building on Second avenue was wiped out, and then plans were laid for building a new house of worship. The new building was completed early this spring, and in May was dedicated free of debt, an eighteen thousand dollar edifice with a church membership of over three hundred. It is such men as Rev. Griffis that make cities, and his coming to Kalspell has been a blessing that many appreciate.

Many useful presents were received by the bride from friends who know nothing of the wedding until after it was over, and speaks something of the esteem in which the newly married couple are held.

Rev. and Mrs. Griffis will be at home temporarily at the McCarty residence on First avenue east, and will leave about the first of September for an extended wedding tour, going to Pittsburg, Penn., to attend the Centennial celebration of the Christian church, and later going to Rev. Griffis' old home in Indiana for a visit.

Jones-Tate.
The marriage of Mr. Ora T. Jones and Miss Minnie P. Tate occurred Tuesday evening at six o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in this city, Rev. Armstrong, of the Methodist church performing the ceremony that made the twain one. Mr. H. V. Alward and Miss Ena Jones attended the contracting parties during the performance of the ceremony. After the wedding service a supper was served to the invited guests present, numbering about fifty. Later in the evening the couple were driven to Whitefish in an automobile, where they took the train for Seattle. They expect to be gone a couple of weeks, after which they will return to Kallispell and make their home in the Jones house on Third avenue west. They will be at home to their friends after November first.
Mr. and Mrs. Jones need no introduction to the people of Kallispell, who have known them both well for a long time. Mr. Jones is a fine young man, one of the force at the First National Bank, and is a citizen who is a credit to the town. His bride is a graceful and charming young lady who grew from childhood to womanhood here, is a graduate of our schools, and is blessed with many friends all of whom extend hearty congratulations.
