Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mable Luella Noffsinger to Mr. James Shaw Monteath on September 21, at six o'clock at Christ church.

Monteath-Noffsinger.

One of the most splendid weddings ever celebrated in Kalispell took place at Christ church on Tuesday evening September 21st, at six o'clock when James Shaw Monteath and Miss Mable Noffsinger were united in marriage.

The church was decorated profusely with mountain cedar and kinnekinick Montana's richest foliage while that altar was banked in white and pink flowers. The ushers on the occasion were Carl Hamner and Will Whippes. Promptly a six o'clock, with Mrs. O. A. Farrar at the organ the doors of the church opened for the bridal party. Florence Farrall and Helen Keith, dressed in white and pink, entered with baskets of flowers which they strewed in the aisle. Then came little Irma Keith in white and pink, bearing the ring on a pillow, then Miss Catherine Monteath, bridesmaid, and Miss Lelia Noffsinger, sister of the bride, as a maid of honor, in robes of pink messaline with black picture hats; they were followed by the bride, Miss Mable Noffsinger, who looked lovely gowned in a beautiful creation of white satin en train with bridal veil and orange blossoms. On the arm of her father she approached the altar where they were met by James Shaw Monteath and R. C. Capp his best man, who had entered by the side entrance of the church. In a few moments the impressive ceremony was pronounced by Dr. Tanner. Kneeling on two satin pillows the bride and groom received the blessing of their pastor, Rev. Green.

The party returned to the Noffsinger home which had been converted into a bower of greenery and flowers where Mrs. A. L. Akins as matron of honor in pink messaline and black picture hat, received the guests. The receiving party consisted of Mr. Noffsinger and wife, Geo. Noffsinger, the bride and groom, Mr. J. H. Monteath Mrs. O. A. Akins, Misses Noffsinger and Monteath, R. Capp and Mr. Farrall. The ropes of cedar were carried by eight little girls in white; they were the little Misses Louise Keith, Manetta Sweetland, Eissie Chester, Florence Jaqueth, Lillian Ritto, Clara Chester and Janette Bjorneby.

Moore A M Bennet Aileen Beatrice 3 Jun 1909 p8- announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wickes Bennet have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Aileen Beatrice, to Mr. A. M. Moore, on Tuesday evening, June fifteenth, at Christ Episcopal church in this city.

17 Jun 1909 p5- marriage

Moore-Bennett

What is so rare as a day in June. Then if ever come perfect days. And a perfect day it was that dawned Tuesday and smiled benignantly down upon the fair young bride who had chosen that as her happy wedding day. Her young friends were up with the sun, and from forest and gardens they brought branches and flowers to make beautiful the little church in which the event was to take place. Lilies with their delicate color and sweet perfumes were used in abundance about the chancel, the railing banked with their clusters, and a carpet made of their soft blossoms, while the forest branches with their bloom, were used in decorating the main portion of the church.

By 6:30 the little church was well filled with expectant friends, and promptly at the hour, to the soft sweet strains of Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Helen Kavanaugh, the bridal party entered. As ushers, Messrs. Phil Jacoby, and Henry Moore led the way, and in turn came the bridesmaids, Miss Henrietta McGree and Miss Elizabeth Tate, the maid of honor, Miss Leila Bennett, and the bride accompanied by her father. They were met at the altar by the groom and his attendant, Mr. Hummer, and here in the impressive ring ceremony of the Episcopal church, Rev. Henry M. Green pronounced the words which joined forever the lives of A. M. Moore and Aileen Beatrice Bennett.

After the ceremony, the bridal party passed slowly down the aisle and out to waiting carriages, which conveyed them to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. R. Moore, where a goodly number of their friends soon followed to extend hearty congratulations and best wishes.

The bride, at all times a beautiful young woman, was more lovely in her wedding gown of white lace wearing the bridal veil and carrying white roses and valley lilies. The bridesmaids wore lavender gowns and picture hats and carried violets, while the maid of honor was gowned in yellow and wore a black picture hat and carried white lilies.

Mr. Moore is a young man of many sterling qualities that have earned for him the respect and friendship of all. It is hoped by their host of friends that the young couple will make Kalspell their home.

The usual effort was made by the guests to learn when Mr. and Mrs. Moore were to leave town, that they might bid them an appropriate God speed, but in this the friends were outwitted, for while they made a rush to the station the bride and groom quietly took a carriage and drove out of town directly to the Moore ranch at Marion, where they will spend the honeymoon.

In the library on a bank of kinnikinnick the guests registered on pages of birch bark then entering the dining room, which was superb in its dainty decoration, a most delicate luncheon was served on trays. The gift room was exquisite in its trimming of green, white and pink, and contained hundreds of beautiful, expensive, as well as small and useful tokens of esteem, given to one so dearly loved by all who know her. Stationed at the head of the stairs was the Ruffo orchestra enchanting music during the entire evening.

At half-past eight o'clock the bride and groom quietly disappeared with the former's father in his car for Columbia Falls, where they took the west bound train for the coast. (Still there was rice and a few old shoes at Mr. Webster's side gate.) They will spend some time in the west on a wedding trip.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Noffsinger, and came to Kalspell when a child of three. She was a pupil in the Kalspell schools, and later attended St. Mary's Halland, later one year at New York and Boston conservatory of music.

James Monteath is the only son of Major J. H. and Mrs. Monteath. He was born in Butte and at one time resided in Kalspell, where the little romance budded that makes two happy hearts one today. He attended Leland Stanford university, but will be numbered among our citizens in the future.

Out of town guests present were: Geo. Noffsinger and wife, Somers; Dr. Tanner, Fairbault, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monteath and daughter Catherine and Neice Florence Ferrill, Tonopah; J. H. Sherburne, Browning; Mrs. Clowes and daughter Dorothy, Los Angeles; the Dawson, of Whitefish; Wm. Mooring and wife, Columbia Falls; John Stubble and wife, Columbia Falls; and Mrs. Conrad of Great Falls.

After the wedding the happy couple will start on an unusually long and interesting wedding journey that will consume the greater part of the summer. From Spokane they will go to Seattle and take a trip down the coast, stopping at Sacramento, Los Angeles and other California towns. From there they will go to Denver, then to Chicago and New York, from which latter city they will sail about the last of May for Europe. They will visit London, Cherbourg, France, Paris, take a trip to Italy, thence to Germany and after that will visit the Scandinavian peninsula where they will spend the greater part of their time, returning to America in the fall, and back to Kalispell.

Rev. Skindelov has been pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church here for a number of years, and has done fine work, and is held in the highest esteem by his congregation. His bride has grown to womanhood in Kalispell and boasts a large circle of admiring friends. Both will be heartily welcomed on their return to this city, where they expect to make their future home.

Skrenstead Oliver Haugen Martha 25 Nov 1909 p1- marriage

Skrenstead-Haugen.

Mr. Oliver Skrenstead, a young business man of Spokane, and Miss Martha Haugen, of this city, were married Monday evening of this week at the Scandinavian M. E. church at the corner of Second street and Fifth avenue west, this city. The wedding was an elaborate affair, there being present about seventy invited guests to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Hansen. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the parsonage, where an elaborate wedding supper was served.

The groom is a promising young business man of Spokane, while the bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Haugen of this city. She has resided in Kalispell for the past year, and during that time made many friends, who regret to see her leave the community, but will wish her all happiness in her new relation and her new home.

The happy couple left on the evening train for Spokane, where they will make their future home.

Stevens Archibald W Rollins Mayme

17 Jun 1909 p5- marriage

Stevens-Rollins.
One of the most complete surprises of the season was the wedding of Mr. A. Stevens and Miss Mayme Rollins, which occurred last evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride in Duncan addition. The young couple had kept their secret guarded well, and while some of their friends had an inkling that a wedding had been planned for some time during the summer, they were completely surprised at the early date, and not even the most intimate associates knew of the happy event until after the ceremony was performed and Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were well on their way in an automobile to Columbia Falls, where they caught the evening train for Seattle to spend their honeymoon.
The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Armstrong, of the Methodist church of this city, and was witnessed only by the immediate members of the family.
Both the bride and groom are among the best known and highly respected young people of the city, and number their friends by the score. Mr. Stevens is the junior member of the firm of Harrington & Stevens of the Flathead Paint & Wall Paper Co., and is considered one of the substantial young business men of the city. The bride has lived in Kalispell for several years and by her many splendid traits of character has won many admirers and friends. Their many friends will hasten to extend congratulations and best wishes for all the best things life may hold in store for them, and on their return will give them a rousing reception.
Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will return to Kalispell about July first to make their home.

Weidner Henry C Conklin Blanche 28 Jan 1909 p8- marriage

A Pretty Wedding.
An unusually pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thompson on Second Avenue East at seven o'clock last evening. The wedding was that of Mr. Henry C. Weidner and Miss Blanche Conklin. Under the solemn strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Laura Knott, the young couple appeared in the parlors of the Thompson home, where in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives Rev. Harold H. Griffis administered an impressive ceremony that made these two young people one in the sacred realm of matrimony. The ceremony with its attendant congratulations and good wishes was followed by an elegant repast served by Mrs. Thompson.
Mr. Weidner, the groom in this wedding, is a highly esteemed young man whose home is at Troy, near which place he is employed in the Forest service. Miss Conklin, the bride, is a talented daughter of Mrs. Thos. B. Conklin of this city and is a young lady who has won the love and admiration of a large circle of KallsPELL acquaintances. For the past two years, until last Christmas, she has been an efficient teacher in the public schools at Somers. Soon after the wedding last evening the newly wedded couple took the west-bound train for Troy, where they will go at once to house-keeping and where they will carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy married life.
